

ANTHRACITE OF THE ANDES

American Coal Barons Secure a Snap in Northern Peru.

EXTENT AND VALUE OF THE MINES

A Possible Naval Station on the Pacific for Uncle Sam—Undeveloped Oil Fields of Ecuador—Sugar Plantations.

(Copyright, 1898, by Frank G. Carpenter.) PACASMAYO, April 6, 1898.—I find the Americans very much in evidence in Peru. I came from New York to Panama with a party of miners who were on their way here to the Carabaya gold region...

The American party at Pacasmayo consists of Mr. G. Clinton Gardner, formerly superintendent of the Pennsylvania railroad and the builder of the Mexican National, who is the general manager of the company...

But first let me tell you something about the concession which this company has and its probable effect on South American affairs. If the scheme be carried out as is now contemplated, it will result in putting America to the front in Peru and it will, I believe, make some Americans rich...

These American coal mines of the Andes, with a good railroad, would be more valuable than gold mines. There is practically no good coal on the west Pacific coast of South America...

Anthracite Beds of Peru. The coal fields of the Andes include both anthracite and lignite coal. The company now owns about forty anthracite properties. The anthracite is practically unlimited...

Oil Regions of Peru and Ecuador. All along the coast above here I saw signs of the oil fields of Peru. At one place we stopped and took on thousands of barrels of petroleum for Lima...

Mr. Gardner says it will pay at least $100,000 a year. The oil is in a river valley which is sunken in among the sands of the Peruvian desert. This valley has a number of sugar estates and other plantations...

of the Andes. We go on a railroad built by American capitalists a century or more ago, but now owned by the English syndicate known as the Peruvian Corporation. The cars came from the United States...

Among the Peruvians. I wonder how an American tenant would look if he were offered a place on one of these Peruvian farms. I refer more especially to those on the smaller estates. I went into one of the houses on a plantation near here today...

Parlor furniture samples. We purchased and now have displayed on our mammoth second floor the entire sample line of S. Karpen & Bros. Nos. 154 to 184 Michigan avenue...

Big carpet and Drapery sale. All wool Ingrain—good weave—pretty pattern—rich colorings—price this week 59c. Tapestry Brussels—very heavy—long wearing carpet—price this week 69c...

Hotels. Ahoy! While we are, first of all, house furnishers—we would remind all hotel, restaurant and boarding house keepers that there is no establishment this side of Chicago better prepared to provide you with an outfit...

Quick Meal Gasoline Stove. Positively the finest Gasoline Stove made. More Quick Meal in use right in Omaha than all the other makes combined. No soot, no odor, no fuss, no trouble...
