Proceeds of Entertainment Go to the MADRID, May 12.—It seemed this after-

At the patriotic bull fight to raise funds for the navy, as at the recent gala performance at the Royal theater, there was a great patriotic turnout, but the latter was an expression of patriotism on the part or the aristocracy and today it was the people who expressed the patriotic feeling. The seats sold at fabulous prices, all the receipts being devoted to the navy fund. Every available vehicle was requisitioned and thousands on foot formed a long procession the length of the Calle Alcala, awaiting admission and all wearing the national colors, the women having the yellow and red of Spain in their hair and on their breasts, the men displaycravats, while all the trappings of the horses were bedecked with the Spanish colors. Lendville and Aspen Mines. DENVER, May 12 .- (Special.) -- Leadville is shipping big tonnage and new efforts are making in a number of old properties to increase the output of the camp. At the present time mining affairs there are in the best of shape. A new company of local men has been organized to reopen the Triumph property on Breece Hill. The new company will begin by pushing the drift at the 740-foot level a distance of 100 feet, in the hope of finding the ore body believed to lie in that territory. The Dollie B. mine, which was almost drowned out just after a big ore chute was discovered, is about ready to resume shipments, the new pump ing plant having drained the mine. The Mahala people, who were stopped by reason of a cave-in in the old workings a few weeks ago, are driving a winze to reach the ore body which they had to abandon so suddenly. Concentration of ores is revolutionizing Aspen. The joint mill of the Mollie Gibson and the A. J. will be in operation by next week. The entire product of both mines will be run through the mill regardless of grade of ore. The old Holden lixiviation works has been remodelled into a concentrator, and is now working upon Aspen ores. A new mill to handle the ores of the Farwell group at Independence is nearly ready to start.
