Frank Johnson and Ed Charington were brought up from Plattsmouth yesterday afternoon by Chief Brennan and Officer Morrison and charged with burglary. It is stated by the police that these men burglarized the Wordeman boarding house at Twenty-fifth and M streets Wednesday night. As soon as the occurrence was reported all of the surrounding towns were notified and the suspicious actions of Johnson and Charington attracted the attention of the marshal at Plattsmouth. The men fitted themselves ou with new clothing, hats, etc., and were spending money like water. During the afternoon they were arraigned before Judge Babcock and were bound over to the district court for further examination

> Boys Become Reckless. Crews on the street cars operating here are greatly annoyed by small boys jumping on and off trains. Yesterday forenoo a newsboy came very nearly being killed while attempting to board a rapidly moving car. The lad had an arm full of papers and tried to grasp the car railing with the other. The footboard was wet and as his feet struck it they slipped and he fell to the pavement. Fortunately he was thrown away instead of under the car. Mayor Ensor happened to be a passenger on the train and he at once notified the police to put a stop to the practice. All boys caught jumping on and off cars within the city limits will be arrested and taken before Judge Babcock

Railroad Crossing Lights.

City Attorney Montgomery was engaged yesterday in making preparations for commencing action against the railroads to compel them to maintain are lights at grade crossings within the city limits. Over two months ago the council passed the necessary ordinance, which gave the railroads sixty days to comply in. Although the managers of the roads interested were notified of the passage of such an ordinance no attention has been paid to it. Legal proceedings will
