

EPISCOPAL CHURCH AFFAIRS

Progress and Prospects in Nebraska Are Very Fully Considered.

DIOCESAN COUNCIL IN SESSION

Interesting Letter from Bishop Worthington Read, After Which the Matter of Missions is Given a Very Full Discussion.

The annual Council of the diocese of Nebraska, Protestant Episcopal church, devoted the major portion of yesterday afternoon to the consideration of church extension and mission work.

Very Rev. Dean Fair presided over the session. The secretary was Mr. C. H. Young, who acted as secretary and read a letter which received the closest attention from Bishop Worthington was read.

The full text of the letter is as follows: To the Clerical and Lay Members of the Thirty-first Annual Council of the Diocese of Nebraska: My well-beloved in the Lord—

In the all-wise providence of God, I am obliged to extend greeting to my fellow-workers in the gospel of Christ in a way that is far from satisfactory to myself.

While striving to be patient and submissive under the enforced absence, at this time, from your deliberations of the welfare and extension of the church, there is an intense longing to look into the faces and grasp the hand of my loyal brethren, both clerical and lay.

When requested by the standing committee to consider the matter of the order of the indefinitely wise God.

The president was empowered to appoint a committee of five laymen of the city of Omaha whose duty it shall be to look into the matter of missions.

Rev. H. H. Johnson presided at the debate which took up most of the afternoon by the presentation of somewhat lugubrious statistics and views on the outlook for missions and the scarcity of contributions.

Rev. Wharton, of York, who is engaged in missionary work, drew a rather dark picture of the situation as it relates to propoganda. Then Rev. H. Perry Silver came forward with a suggestion which was adopted.

The plan is to procure a house in Lincoln to be presided over by some man who has made his mistakes "and yet who is very able, earnest and of fine executive ability."

Rev. Wharton opposed the plan on the ground that only priests were suited to evangelize.

Mr. March, Howard and Wattson all gave it their endorsement and the council appointed a committee to further perfect plans for its carrying out.

Comments the Parishioners. Very Rev. Dean Fair in the course of a ten minutes' speech gave a touch of sunshine to the outlook.

Rev. Canon Doherty commended the plan of Rev. Mr. Silver and told of a similar school which had once flourished at Nebraska City.

Mr. Theodore L. Ringwalt in a good natured way took the clergy to task. "You are always telling us to put more religion in our business."

Rev. Johnson said that last year the men promised $2,470 and gave $2,050, the women promised $411 and gave $369.60 and said in his heart all men are liars.

"They got it out of the men," spoke up a brother. "They got it in spite of the men," said Rev. Johnson.

Evening Session. Rev. George Edgerly preached the sermon for the evening, choosing for his theme the parable of the reek man, given in Luke xii.

The Lord did not say to this man "Thou fool" because he had wealth, because he was rich and by that he was rich.

With a conscientious regard for the canonical collections and a compliance with the conditions under which they are regularly to be made, the diocese might not only make a generous and a commendable offering but also be strengthened by the reflex influence which such effort always gives.

Our people need only to be told of the nature of the work or charity for which their offerings, by canon, are required, to make generous response.

The American Church Building Fund association has been ready and willing to aid the diocese whenever requested in any way to increase the endowment from which we have received very liberally.

I cannot be unfaithful, my dear brethren, of the conditions that attend us as a nation at this time.
