COMING COUNTY INSTITUTE

Superintendent Sawyer Prepares a Treat for Teachers Who Attend.

SECURES TWO PROMINENT EDUCATORS

Corps of Instructors to Be Headed by Men of National Repute in the Matter of Teaching Teachers.

County Superintendent Sawyer has about completed all the preliminary arrangements for the Pottawattamie County institute, which will be held in this city June 27 to July 9. Among the instructors secured is Dr. Emerson E. White of Columbus, O., who will have "Methods and Principles of Teachings." Dr. C. C. Rounds of New York City will have "Language and Literature." Dr. Rounds was for many years president of the New Hampshire State Normal school, and had charge of the American Educational exhibit at Paris in 1889. It is confidently expected that the opportunity to hear two such renowned educators as Drs. White and Rounds will attract many teachers from abroad to attend the institute. Other instructors secured for the institute are: Prof. J. S. Shoup, arithmetic; J. Peasley, grammar; J. W. W. Laird, history; O. J. McManus, civics; D. Fred Grass, economics; M. E. Crosier and W. J. McDonald, geography: Mrs. E. D. Burke. music; Harriet Blood, drawing; H. W. Sawyer, psychology.

The daily sessions will begin at 8 a. m. and close at 12:30 p. m., thus affording teachers attending an opportunity to visit the Transmississippi Exposition half the time. All schools throughout the county will be closed during the holding of the
