HAHN WILD AND STEADY BY STREAKS

Twelve Bases on Balls and Nine Strike-Outs His Record-Mannger Fisher Gets Some New Players.

DETROIT, May 28 .- (Special Telegram.)-Though Hahn presented five Omaha batters with a base on balls at the outset, forcing in a run by four straight bases in succession, and after striking out Roat, forcing in another, he settled down and struck out the third man and only two runs came in. Later in the game he continued the base-on-balls habit and gave seven others, besides having eleven hits, three of them two-baggers made off him. At that the Tigers won handily, as they lighted on Hagerman in the third and pounded out six runs with seven hits and a base on balls, Dungan's three-bagger bringing in two runs in front of it.

Hahn was wild and steady at intervals. as is shown by his nine strike-outs and twelve bases on balls. The base running on both sides was wretched, owing to a sloppy field, on which the rain had fallen but half an hour before the game. Consequently several of the hits on either side were excuses for the fielders, who, considering the condition of the diamond, did very good work. There were no errors on the Detroit side and of the four made by the Omaha's, those of Eustace and Roat Baltimore wore excusable. McCauley played a great game behind the bat, but Hahn had his 8. measure at the bat, and struck him out three times.

cured Outfielder Fleming from Indianapolis and he will join the Oraha team at Columbus tomorrow, while Burnett will be released when the team gets back to Omaha. When Germany Smith reports, Hollingsworth will be utility man, and his playing in the series here has been good chough to entitle him to a permanent place. There will be no game here tomorrow as the arrangements for Sunday games outside the city fell through, and the Omaha's left for Columbus tonight. Score:
