Colonel Bratt Reports on His Arrival and Reception at San Francisco.

CITIZENS TREAT THE SOLDIERS ROYALLY

Sensational Reports Published in Obscure Papers Denied by the Commander of the Gallant Nebraska Volunteers.

LINCOLN, June 6 .- (Special.)-The following letter has just been received at the has been dammed up, the water running headquarters of Adjutant General Barry, and away through another channel, and leavgives some official information regarding ing a considerable body of stagnant water.

CAMP MERRITT, SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 31, 1898.-General P. H. Barry, Lincoln: My Dear General-My attention has been called to the reproduction, by Lincoln papers, of an article published in the Report of this city on May 20, entitled Not Complimentary to Nebraska Troops. enclose copy and will say by way of explanation that there are a number of daily papers published here and the reception given by most of them was very satisfactory, and I am surprised that some of the complimentary notices published by the Chronicle, Call, Examiner and Post have not been reproduced also.

Our regiment was the first from east of the Rockies to arrive here and we made the first camp at this place. The California and Oregon troops being encamped at the Presidio, and leaving shortly after we came in, we did not get to see them, but the Cali-fornia regiment has been harshly criticised by the residents here.

Our camping place is not of the best It is located on a flat, sandy bottom and has been laid off in blocks of about five sores each, each block being fenced in. The sand is loose and deep and it has been very windy and the nights have been chilly and cold. We had to march four miles after reaching here, wait for our baggage and pitch camp in the night, so you may know neither officers nor men would be expected to be very bright and snappy. How ever, none of the regiments coming in here have made camp and gotten down to hard work quicker than the First Nebraska. Be-fore we were in camp eighteen hours we had a full supply of fresh meat, camp equipage, clothing, etc., while some of the other regiments went several days withfinding out that such things were to

As to the "N. N. G." on our collars, none of us are ashamed of the designation, and you cannot visit a camp here without being able to tell by the collar of the officer's bloose which state be comes from, as all old guard officers have state designations and no other has yet been authorized.

How the Battalions Arrived. Major Stotsenberg's battalion was the first to make camp after our arrival. On reaching the city I reported immediately at department headquarters for orders and upon my arrival at camp the battalien was in place waiting for baggage. Sentries had been posted, the grounds policed and citi-zens turned out, including newspaper men. which undoubtedly gave cause for the ar-

We have one of the finest bodies of men here now and are better outfitted, the dis-cipline is, better and none do more work on the field each day than we do, and none are better fitted for work than we, which is recognized and freely spoken of by the army officers in authority here.

Now a word in regard to the surgeons. When we came in the Red Cross people met us at the station, gave the men a lunch and the hospital people came forward and voluntarily took our sick until we could provide for them. This was very kind of them and an act which we appreciated. The hospitals are still caring for the poor unfortunates whenever we will permit them

The Examiner published a silly story Sunday morning about the poisoning of some that given by the bishop. As soon as the current for several days. First it occurred in Minnesota, then in Colorado, then Kanas, then we had to meet it. I published a card in one of the papers denying it and It had the effect of suppressing such fool-

We have been treated splendidly on all sides by the citizens here, so much so that we have had to turn many away for the good of the men. I am very proud of my command and I trust that the citizens of Nebraska will never have occasion to be ashamed of their soldiers. The general health of the command is good. We have only a few cases of colds, tonsilitis, etc., and the men are just as anxious to get to Manila as they were when we left Lincoln.

Since writing the above I have seen the Report of this date, which says, speaking of the Dakota regiment: "Many are without decent shoes and one-half are without weapons. Many carried small pastets filled with little necessaries. One lieutenant caused a ripple of laughter among the spectators because instead of a sword he had a banjo case. The public has become accustomed to the sight of soldiers and are growing They have watched with asm the finely equipped regiments of Oregon, Colorado and Nebraska and expect that incoming troops shall be as well appointed as those that have preceded." Very respectfully. JOHN P. BRATT, Colonel Commanding First Regiment, Ne-private detective and a woman to keep house arrived here at 2:55 p. m., Saturday, to take posessison of the parsonage. Rev. Trejohn was out of town at the time, no one being at home but his housekeeper. After trying all the doors and finding them locked the bishop broke a pane of glass, cosened the catch in the window and crawled in, badly frightening the housekeeper. With the assistance of the two priests he at once commenced to carry Rev. Turjohn's personal effects out to the stable

The woman they brought with them returned to Lincoln on the first train, refusing to have anything to do with them. About 6:30 the bishop and his two priests came down town for supper. Turjohn's housekeeper refusing to cook for them when Turjohn executed a flank movement that would have been a credit to Dewey. He had returned to town about 5:30 and knowing they would have to come down town for supper, he waited at a friend's house while a few friends watched for the bishop and his priests. All three came down together, leaving the private detective to watch the house, with instructions to shoot any one attempting to enter the premises. WHEELING. W Va. June 6.—Oscar Gardner added another to his long string of victories tonight, when he put Jerry Marshall of Australia out in thirteen rounds. It was a very pretty battle for the first eight rounds, but in each succeeding round Gardner put his famous shortarm labs in the wind, sending Marshall to the floor repeatedly. There was a good deal of money wagered that Marshall would hast fifteen rounds, and the colored boy was evidently trying to save his money entertained with three bouts of six rounds each. Those who went on were Waiter Noian of Syracime and Jack Daip of Chicago, Jack O Donnell of San Francisco and Jim Adams of Pittaburg and Mointyre of Lincoln and Billy Lambert of Chicago. All three of the goes were of a fairly lively character, but no attempt was made to force matters to a finish and as a consequence they were all declared draws. A feature of the affair was that a dozen challenges were thrown at everybody in this lenges were thrown at everybody in this city, county, state and country by the biffers in Omaha for any sum of money up to a half a thousand. The sum total was up in the thousands.
