

BUTLER SHOWS UP VERY WELL

New Pitcher Looks as if He Knew His Business.

FISHER FAMILY GOES ALL TO PIECES

Unable to Field or Bat and the Hoosiers Get a Game that Amounts Almost to a Presentation.

The Babes were overpowered by the Hoosiers in an indifferent sort of game yesterday afternoon by the score 9 to 1. It was a listless and saffron-colored contest on part a contrast to the games that have been played since the return of the team. In fact, it was the worst exhibition the Babes have given on the home grounds yet.

Butler was on the slab for the Fishers and he commended himself to the fans by his work. He was a bit nervous on account of his first appearance and consequently a little wild, but he allowed the Indians only one run in the first inning. He struck out four of them. With the right sort of support the Hoosiers would have had two runs at the very most.

It was the same way at the bat. The Babes were unable to hit anything and Mr. Foreman consequently walked off the field with a big swelled head.

Our long rally was made in the third. After Butler struck out, Preston got a base on Foreman's error and was brought home by hits by Fleming and Pickering. We had two men on bases in the second, sixth and seventh, twice with only one man out, but they all died.

The first run the champs were really entitled to was in the second, when Hoffmeister got a base on a single and was brought home by Moiz's sacrifice and Stewart's single. In the third, after Butler had fanned Foreman, he gave Hoffmeister a gift and then struck out Deady. Lyons muffed the fly that had hit the side and Hoffmeister came in on Hoffmeister's single.

In the fourth Moiz got a base on an excusable error by Pickering, for he had a hard run for the ball. Stewart singled and both men came home before the side was retired. Empire Cantillon helped the work along by doubling in the fifth, in an account of Kahoe's interference with Holly at second, preventing a double play.

In the seventh Kahoe got a base on balls. After two men were out Lyons prevented the third putout by miffing a throw, which put Kahoe and Deady on third and second respectively. McCauley tried to catch the former alone and on his wild throw both men scored.

In the ninth Eustace had a good chance to put Allen out at first, but his baby throw gave the runner a life. The side would have been retired, because Kahoe died at first and Foreman fled out. By this time his support had melted away very fast and he was found for a single apiece by Hoffmeister and Deady and a triple by McFarland, scoring two runs.

The prettiest bit of run in the game was a double made by Butler alone. In the fifth Hoffmeister got a base on balls. Deady tried to hit the ball right in the twirler's paws. Butler threw the ball to Lyons to enable the latter to catch Hogzy, who was half way down to second. Lyons dropped the easy throw, but Butler had followed the ball. Quick as a flash he snatched it up and got across the bag before the Indian. Butler showed a base hit, too, in the way he backed up the other players in all the plays. Score:

YEISER MUST START ANEW

Initiative and Referendum is Not Quite Ready for Omaha.

PETITION IS DEFECTIVE IN SIGNATURES

Coert Holds the Position of the City Clerk in Refusing to Call the Election Properly Taken.

For the time being, at least, John O. Yeiser and his initiative and referendum scheme have gone out of court. His action was taken during the week while Yeiser was in court but he was not there legally, he having failed to secure the necessary number of voters to his petition, asking that the adoption of the initiative and referendum be submitted to the electors of this city.

Yeiser is a member of the legislature of Nebraska and during his last session he introduced and secured the passage of what is known as the initiative and referendum law. By the provision of this law, it is made the duty of the city clerk, on being properly petitioned, to include in the election proclamation a notice that the voters of the city may vote for or against the proposed law.

Some weeks ago Yeiser circulated the petition against the city clerk, but the signers asked that the city clerk bring the initiative and referendum matter before the voters at a special election, to be held on the date of the general election in November. City Clerk Higby refused to act, contending that the petition lacked the necessary number of signatures.

Yeiser will circulate another petition, and after securing the signature of legal voters of the city, will present it to the city clerk, thus hoping to get the matter before the electors at the November election.

Chinese Habeas Corpus Case Called Before Judge Scott.

VARIANCE IN TESTIMONY OF WITNESSES

Three Men Sisters Continue to Be a Case of Contention in the Courts of Douglas County.

The case wherein Wah Lee complains that three Chinese sisters, Kim, Lam, Yau and Lan Yue, are unlawfully detained and restrained of their liberty by H. Sling, Lam Yau and others was on for hearing before Judge Scott. Several witnesses were examined and the further hearing of the case went over until this morning.

At the afternoon session of court you was the first witness called to the stand. He testified that he had visited the quarters and had heard the girls crying. His visits had always been made at night. He did not go to the house in the daytime, for the reason that the street cars made such a noise that he could not hear what was going on in the building.

Dr. George L. Miller, surgeon of customs, had spent ten years in China and who spoke the Chinese language, testified that he visited the Chinese quarters in this city and found them in wretched condition. There were no beds, chairs or furniture in the rooms. The women and children were lying on matting on the floors, several in each room.

Mrs. Wykoff, a Methodist missionary, who had spent ten years in China and who spoke the Chinese language, testified that she visited the Chinese quarters in this city and found them in wretched condition. There were no beds, chairs or furniture in the rooms. The women and children were lying on matting on the floors, several in each room.

Dr. Miller was recalled and testified that he visited the Chinese quarters in an official capacity and also on account of the reports that had reached him that the people in the building at Thirteenth and Chicago streets were being ill treated. Reports had come from Chicago and also from some of the local church people. He wanted to satisfy himself, and did so, finding that there was no truth in the reports.
