MAULS THE KEITH OUTFIT

Omaha's Western League Team Looks After Manager Buck's Originals.

CHANGE MADE IN THE BATTING ORDER

Fleming, Enstace and Roat to Lead Off in the Future-Some Statisties Concerning the Contest Yesterday.

An off day for Omaha in the Western league schedule offered the excuse for a fracas between the league team and Buck Keith's Originals out at the new ball park yesterday afternoon. The Babes did not try awfully hard, but the Keithites did and Buckerino danced little jigs all around himself when his pets saved a shutout by making a fat little tally in the sixth. The score was 12 to 1.

There were two features in the game. One was a new wrinkle in the batting list, which will probably stand for awhile. It looks good and worked well on the Originals. The second picturesque bit of the contest was the presence of Dolan at short for the Bucks, He did not burn up the earth exactly. Buck Keith's umpiring was another feature, by the way.

The Originals put up a good fight for a lot of amateurs under the circumstances and were more than satisfied in saving a skunk. The run came in the sixth, Dolan, the first man up, made a two-bagger on the first ball pitched and was brought home by Scully's The only three other hits were banged out by Bradford. The score:

Mail Service and the Press. Hon. E. Rosewater spoke of the relation NEVER IN A MORE PROSPEROUS CONDITION of the mail service to the press and paid high compliments to the present effective postal system, which has made great papers possible. Mr. Rosewater spoke of the political rule which formerly dominated the service and lessened its effectiveness and told of the unequal struggle the newspapers kept up for many years to get civil service established upon a firm basis. At present a man in the service is certain of a position during good behavior and our postal system is the peer of that of any other nation. The restraining hand of law has been placed upon all the postal officials from the highest official to the youngest clerk and the result is a perfect system. Mr. Rosewater spoke of the probable extension of our postal system to Honolulu and the Philippines and expressed the opinion that it would ultimately be extended entirely around the earth. I. C. Finch read an original poem, which he wrote on the Omaha meeting. In the poem Mr. Finch treated all the amusing glowing tribute to the hospitality the delegates have received at the hands of the Omaha people.

George A. Wood, national secretary of the National Association of Railway Postal Clerks, was the last speaker on the program and treated the influence the railway mail service has had upon civilization.

Fruit Raising in South Dakota CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., June 15 .- (Spe ial.)-That great quantities of fruit are beginning to be annually raised in South Dakota is difficult of belief, yet, strange to say, is a fact unknown even to many residents of the state. The fruit region is of course, confined chiefly to the older set tled portion in the southern part of the state. D. B. Gurney of Yankton county estimates his strawberry crop this year at 15,000 quarts. He already has contracted for over 10,000 boxes, and expects to increase the order. George Ray will have nearly as many more, while other parties in the vicinity will have enough to swell the total to be put upon the market in that section to probably 40,000 or 50,000 quarts. Jury Fails to Agree PIERRE, S.
