

BRYAN'S COMMAND TOGETHER

Impression that Mobilization Will Begin on Monday of Next Week.

COLONEL JOHN G. MAHER IN TROUBLE

Went to War with a Typewriter and Is Now Awaiting Trial by Court-Martial for Insubordination.

LINCOLN, June 16.—(Special).—

The expectation now is that the Third regiment will begin to mobilize at Fort Omaha next Monday. In the matter of equipment for the regiment it is learned that the state owns 400 rifles, which will be used until better ones can be supplied. These guns are of the old pattern, inferior to those with which the other regiments are armed, but much superior to the muskets in general use in the army.

Colonel Maher's Typewriter.

The dispatches from Chickamauga report that John G. Maher of company H, Second regiment, is to be court-martialed for insubordination. The officers just up from the southern camp report the facts as follows: Maher has at the headquarters of the regiment a typewriter, which is also used by the officers. A few days ago Adjutant Wilson ordered Maher to make a copy of a report on the typewriter. Maher did not like the tone of the officer and declined to do the work on the machine. He said he would do the work with pen and ink if ordered, but the typewriter being his own personal property he would use it only when he pleased. Maher was thereupon placed under arrest and the court-martial will decide whether he has disobeyed a legitimate order. Those who have had experience in general use by typewriters came in armed to see regard the question at issue as an interesting one. Some hold that Maher having had the machine transported to the camp by the government and allowed its general use for official work was in a position to refuse to use it himself when ordered.

The Commissioners appointed by the supreme court to examine applicants for admission to the bar reported today that the following had passed the examination and were qualified for admission:

Charles H. Ballew, James J. Purcell, Charles G. DeFrance, Henry P. Leary, William B. King, Ernest C. Lando Swain, Lester B. Stiner, Ernest C. Hodder, Harry Fisher, Frank L. Diney, John D. Willard, W. B. Cowin, William M. Ely, William P. Cowan, F. C. Hamer, Ernest M. Slattery, Mitchell M. McInch, A. D. Curtis, Neil Sinclair and George D. Kellogg. The senate of the university has also passed the names of the following: Ernest J. Brown has successfully passed the examination and is qualified in every way except that he is not yet 21 years of age. The recommendation is made that Brown be admitted to the bar as soon as he becomes of age. A. P. T. Wilson, Jr., John J. Roach, W. H. Sleser and A. Yeom presented certificates from other states and were recommended for admission to the bar of this state. The commissioners in charge of the examination were: A. D. McCandless, C. P. Morley, B. F. Good and Roscoe Pound.

The regulation of the governor of Missouri for the return of R. Richardson and Jennie Fern to Kansas City was honored today.

The parties named are charged with having committed grand larceny. They stole and carried away a lot of dentists' material valued at $240 and are now under arrest at Fremont.

The farmers in the vicinity of Lincoln are not seriously worried by the locusts that are eating the crops.

Corn is looking well and while it is a little weedy a week's hard work will put it in good shape. There is little or no rust on the wheat and oats is yet too small to fall down, so that there is every reason to expect a large crop of small grain of all kinds. The ground is now so thoroughly saturated that no further rain will be needed until after July 1.

Hastings College Commencement.

The graduating exercises of Hastings college were held last night. The exercises were opened by a selection from Prof. Rees' oration. Rev. Cook followed with the invocation. The first oration was by William A. Chapman upon the subject "The World." He outlined their history from the time of Abraham up to the present day and showed the powerful influence which these new much-accused people have exercised upon the world's history.

Benjamin L. Britton spoke upon "Battles of Today."

He argued that every American citizen should be a soldier, although perhaps not uniformed or under military discipline he should wage ceaseless war against the evils in society, in the church and in politics. He said in fighting these battles there was as much need of patriotism and bravery as there is upon the battlefield. The diplomas were then presented to Mr. Chapman and Mr. Britton.

The Schaff prize of $25 for the best essay on the Juniors was awarded to Edward Bushnell.

The annual annual banquet of Hastings college was held immediately after the closing of the graduating exercises. The large dining room of the Bostwick hotel was judiciously decorated for the occasion, the American and Cuban ensigns, hunting, oil flowers and vines were '92, was tonat-master. The following toasts were responded to: "Innocents Abroad," B. L. Britton, '95; "The Other Sex," Mrs. George W. Tibbets; "The New and the Old," Rev. Power; "What We Do Not Need," Miss Margaret Lynn; "Hastings College in the Twentieth Century," Rev. E. Van Dyke Wicht; "Our Early Days," James B. Heartwell of Riverside; "The Prudential returned," Ira McConoughy, '90. The banquet

ROAT'S LONG HIT DOES IT

Terrific Smash to Wind Up a Red Hot Game of Ball.

BABES GIVE A GREAT DRIVING FINISH

Connie Mack's Brewers Get a Taste of Omaha's Hospitality that Doesn't Seem Just Right to Them.

It was alone worth several times the price of admission to see Freddie Roach smash the ball right in the first inning.

Yesterday's game with the Brewers and sent it out into the limitless chaos, while Fleming came racing in like a young colt with the Babes by a score of 5 to 4.

It was a cuckoo of the first water.

It was the longest drive ever made on the home grounds. It would have been a home run as sure as you're a foot high, and maybe Mr. Roat might have made twice the circuit on it—you can't always tell.

That was the nice Garrison finish for a decidedly interesting and exciting contest.

It started out in a sort of interesting way when we had the score 1 to 0 in our favor. It kind of lost interest when the cohorts of Mr. Cornelius Maguire made it 2 to 1 in their favor, and the interest began to ooze out of our finger tips more when it got to be 3 to 1. It got more interesting when we crept up on them a bit and the score was 4 to 2.

But none of this was a marker to the interest that arose when we tied the score in the eighth.

At that stage of the game the interest nearly split some of the rafters in the grand stand and the roof actually floated off into the air. The ninth came, there was so much interest.

All of which will make several hundred more fans kick themselves today for missing the game.

The game started off in a cautious sort of way, both sides being disposed in an even, two-three order in the first inning. The Maguire caddies were given the same in their end of the second, but not us.

Pickering could not reach first on his grounder, but Lyons did on a nice single.

He got to second on Preston's out from Daly to Stafford. Then little Dicky Holly swung his good willow club into the field, hitting a rattling single into the field, and Lyons scored. McCauley went out to first.

Brewers in the Lead.

The Brewers got a little frisky in the third and got a couple after two men were out. Leevee died at first and Speer flew out to Preston. Retzger smashed out a single and was brought home by a beautiful three-bagger way off in right field by Nicol. Nicol came home, too, on Shock's bingle, but Daly sent an easy grounder to Lyons.

We got a man on first in our end of the inning, Fleming making a hit, but it was of no avail, and the same fate met Stafford's single in the fourth.

It was likewise for them in a fifth, but in our half McCauley got clear around to third on his hit, a stolen base and an infield play.

In the sixth the scored again. Daly was the first man up and he swiped the first ball manager Fisher handed to him for a tri-socker.

He was brought home on Weaver's single. Stafford sent up a bunt fly, which Pickering caught in time to catch Weaver off first. Leevee flew out to Pickering.

It looked as if we would score in our end of the sixth. Eustace died in Leevee's paws, but Roat made a two-bagger. He got to third on Pickering's single. He started to steal second and was caught by the home on Kid Speer's throw to Daly. He ought to have taken another think, for he was nipped at the plate. Lyons got a base on balls and Preston singled. Holly ended things by forcing Pres out at second.

Three hits, a home run, a stolen base on bases and yet not a single tally did we get. Those exercises on the body social of Omaha, the home knockers, got their little hammers out and were telling all about it, but we only laughed in our sleeves.

After they went out in an even two and three order in the seventh we made a little start. McCauley died at first, but Chauncey found Mr. Retzger for a safe one. Then Fleming lammed a corker into right field. Waldron fielded it in to Daly, who threw to catch Fisher at third, but it went wide of the mark.

Before the ball was returned to the diamond Fisher was in place of Retzger. Leevee was on third. Eustace died at first and Roat tried so hard to find the leather that he did not find it at all and was declared struck out.

Here's Where We Won It.

Just to let them have a little harder fall the Brewers were awarded one in the eighth. Lyons fumbled Shock's easy grounder. The hotly brewed was sent to second on Daly's sacrifice and to third on Weaver's single. He came home on Preston's throw in of Stafford's long foul. Waldron fielded out.

What's In a Name?

The tailor's name on the back of a garment is not always the best evidence that you've got your money's worth. Perhaps you paid a fancy price for the tailor's name!

Imagination plays the leading part—when it comes to paying $45 to $60 for a suit and $12 to $18 for trousers, you imagine they're better—simply because you're paying more.

It's rather an expense, vanity this! Cost you about 25 per cent more than you ought to pay. The garments we offer you at $25 and $30 will stand the same close critical inspection—as the production of the high priced tailors.

Do You Really Want a Fruit Land Home

That will give you $1,500 a year? If you do now is the time to get it. We have them fully prepared ready for delivery, with the crop on the trees.

A FREE TRIP TO LOOK AT THE LAND before you select it. (This free trip applies for old customers as well as new.)

These lands are all located within sight of the city of Portland, the New York of the Pacific coast.

The bridge across the Columbia between Portland and Vancouver will be finished within a year, when all land on the north side of that river will promptly double in value.

If you really want to get a home and an income in a country where there are no killing frosts, no grasshoppers, no lightning, no hail, no high winds, no really hot weather, no cold weather, no failures of crops—none of the ills of which you complain—this is your chance.

If you don't want a fruit farm we can offer you a wheat farm, ready to harvest 10,000 bushels of wheat, and a dozen smaller places to choose from.

Two Ten Thousand Dollar Stakes Are Contested at Gravesend.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Although there were two $10,000 stakes to be run off at Gravesend, the attendance was surprisingly small. The first of the pair, and John Beraud was at the good odds of 2 to 5, owing to the heavy betting on Frohman, Kingdon made the run at the start, Frohman being up to the turf, when Beraud shot forward. At the last they came with a rush on Frohman, and when had to drive Jean Beraud hard to win by a neck.

The second race, the Brooklyn derby, with Previosus as the favorite at 2 to 5, and the Huguenot at 1 to 1. The other three were run off in the usual order, with the Huguenot, going up the back stretch and kept him there until they were headed for the wire, when the Huguenot went by like a shot and won, pulled up, by three lengths. Previous being ten lengths in front.

First race, five furlongs, selling: Mr. C. J. Fox, Lehigh second, Cormorant third. Time, 1:17. Second race, mile and a furlong: Sempor B. Howard, second, Mann second, Isador third. Time, 1:53. Third race, two miles, six furlongs: Jack Leonard won, Trotman second, Isador third. Time, 1:13. Fourth race, Brooklyn derby, mile and a furlong: Previosus won, Huguenot second, Laitson third. Time, 2:07. Fifth race, six furlongs, selling: Bona Dra won, Handspan second, Lydia third. Time, 1:19. Sixth race, hurdle, handicap, two miles: Forget won, Baby Bill second, Valorous third. Time, 3:35.

CHICAGO, June 16.—The Harold stakes, for 2-year-olds, at Linton, turned up a big surprise for the talent. The race was won by Star (9) with the favorite, a hot favorite at 4 to 5, failed to get inside of the money in a dead of four. The Harriet stakes, for the best in a class, Judge Tarvin, the second choice, cut out all the running, but stopped to nothing off into the lead, and was followed by Billy House to pass him, and the best he could do was to get third place. Riley Gramson, the noted plunger, got out at the track today for the first time in years, and quit a big loser on the day. Weather fine, track fast. Results: First race, six furlongs, selling: Covington won, Frank second, Braxton third. Time, 1:27. Second race, five furlongs: Beana won, A. C. second, Salsar third. Time, 1:24. Third race, one mile, selling: Komura won, W. C. second, Remy third. Time, 1:49. Fourth race, the Harold stakes, $150, five furlongs, selling: Bona Dra second, Judge Tarvin third. Time, 1:33. Fifth race, seven furlongs, selling: Associate won, Altha third, Lillian Bell third. Time, 1:54. Sixth race, selling, six and a half furlongs: Boardmaster won, The Star of Bethlehem second, Brightie third. Time, 1:57. CHICAGO, June 16.—Harlem results: First race, six furlongs: Little Singer won, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth,
