Teachers' Institute. The Pottawattamie County Institute opens in this city tomorrow morning at the Bloomer school building and will continue up to Saturday, July 9. In order to afford visiting teachers an opportunity to visit the exposition the daily sessions will begin at 8 a. m. and close at 12:30 p. m. The fact that two such prominent instructors as Dr. Emerson E. White of Columbus, O., and Dr. C. C. Rounds of New York have been secured for the Institute will, it is expected, attract many teachers from all parts of the state and from Nebraska. Dr. White will have "methods and principles of teaching" and Dr. Rounds "language and literature." Evening Trips to the Exposition Are Aylesworth.

Davis, the wholesale and retail paint, drug and glass man, has done a larger business during the year of 1898 than any other year so far since he has been in business. This is due to the fact that he makes it a point to only handle the best goods in the prevalent haste and laxity existing in many offices by which post dating, false cer-tificates, false claims and "stock" witnesses market and to sell them at lower prices than all would-be competitors. THE NEW SCIENCE called Osteopathy, for the cure of disease, was discovered by the now world-famous DR. A. T. STILL of Kirksville, Mo. By this new method, without the use of drugs or medicines of any kind, marvelous cures of all kinds of diseases are readily effected. It's wonderful what the new science will do for mankind. Dr. W. M. Bailey, a graduate of this new school established by Dr. Still, has located permanently in Council Bluffs, Ia., for the practice of this method. Osteopathy having been recognized by the laws of Iowa as a science for the healing of disease. Now, to all who are suffering with Asthma or Rheumatism in any form, see Dr. Bailey at his parlo 8, Rooms 305 and 306 Sapp block, Council Bluffs. All who have that terrible disease, Sciatica, or Paralysis, let Dr. Balley examine you. Locomotor Ataxia can be cured; see Dr. Bailey. Granulated Sore Eyes or Inflamed Eyes yield readily to Osteopathy; see Dr. Bailey. That Nightmare, Nervous Prostration, and Dyspepsia, also fly at the approach of Osteopathy; see Dr. Bailey. One of the most pleasant events of the last week was the entertainment given Friday evening by the Lyceum club of St. Peter's church in honor of the visit of caster, Pa., when the machine broke down Father P. Longinus of Atchison, Kan., the about six miles west of Omaha and on reachformer pastor of the church. The entertainment was held in the school room, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with evergreens, palms and cut flowers in profusion, and the national colors draped in artistic folds on every side. Following a musical program, a pleasing feature of which was the playing of the Cogley-Toller Mandolin quartet, refreshments were served and an enjoyable time spent in social converse. The affair was very largely attended, and was the most successful entertainment in the history of the Lyceum.
