MAKE READY FOR THE LEAGUE

Local Committees Rush Work to Entertain Visiting Republicans.

THREE CANDIDATES FOR THE PRESIDENCY

Colonel George G. Stone of San Francisco is Making a Vigorous Canvass and Will Be Supported by Western Delegations.

As the time for the convention of the National Republican league draws near, the local committee having in charge the work of preparing for the reception of the delegates is rushed to complete all arrangements and answer the numerous queries regarding hotel accommodations, etc.

The National league will meet on July 13 at Boyd's theater. The State league convention will be held on the night before, July 12, thus giving the delegates to the state convention a chance to attend the National league convention.

The following committees have been appointed to look after the matters assigned:

Reception—General John C. Cowin, chairman; General Charles F. Manderson, Senator John M. Thurston, John L. Webster, Charles J. Greene, Benjamin F. Baker, Irving F. Baxter, William F. Gurley, Edward J. Cornish, John L. Kennedy, Victor Rosewater, James H. Vandusen, James Walsh, G. M. Lambertson of Lincoln, Ross L. Hammond of Fremont, L. W. Billingsley of Lincoln, M. L. Hayward of Nebraska City, A. E. Cady of St. Paul, George W. Martin of North Bend.

Hall, Decoration and Music—Beecher Higby, chairman; John N. Westberg, C. S. Elgutter, Phil E. Winter, Miles D. Houck.

Welcome, Train and Hotel—William B. Ten Eyck, chairman; C. E. Morgan, E. E. Zimmerman, D. M. Vinsonhaler, K. S. Fisher, Frank Crawford, John W. Parish, C. V. Miles, J. G. Kuhn, J. W. Battin, H. R. Crane, M. F. Singleton, Lysle Abbott, H. A. Meyers.

Finance, Press and General Arrangements—Charles E. Winter, chairman; James B. Meikle, J. J. Boucher.

It is expected that a special rate will be made by all the railroads for the state and national conventions within a radius of 150 miles, independent of the regular rates already made.

Chairman Winter of the committee on arrangements announces that the Cosmopolitan band has been engaged for the 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th to entertain the convention with music. The regular program is not quite complete, but will be soon.

Handsome badges have been made and other details of entertainment are progressing satisfactorily.

Wish to Be the President.

The presidency of the National league is a matter of concern just at the present time. The candidates so far known are Colonel George G. Stone of San Francisco, Hon. A. M. Higgins of Terre Haute, Ind., and Hon. E. N. Dingley of Kalamazoo, Mich. The western states will be found championing the cause of Colonel Stone and working almost solidly in his interest.

Colonel Stone has secured headquarters at the Millard for himself and the California delegation, which will arrive here July 12, in a special car.

Hon. A. M. Higgins is at present president of the Lincoln league of Indiana. At the convention held at Detroit last year he was a formidable candidate for the national presidency. Mr. Higgins has a large personal acquaintance among the league men and will put up a strong fight.

Among other prominent leaguers who will come to the national convention at the head of personal delegations, and for whom hotel accommodations are reserved, are: Isaac Miller Hamilton of Cissna Park, Ill., president of the Illinois State League; Fred H. Fleitz of Pennsylvania, who was prominent at the Detroit convention; M. J. Dowling of Minnesota, Fred J. Bryant of St. Paul, R. J. Wood, president of the South Dakota state league, and E. E. Meyers of Newark, president of the New Jersey state league.

Ohio, Pennsylvania, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Wisconsin, Vermont, Utah, Tennessee, Maryland and other states are taking unusual interest in this convention and will all be represented by large delegations.

The committee appointed by the national executive committee to act in conjunction with the local committee to make arrangements for the convention consists of President L. J. Crawford, Secretary D. H. Stine, H. L. Remmel of Arkansas, F. R. Conoway of Iowa and Charles E. Winter of Nebraska.

Up to this time there has been no candidate announced for the Nebraska state league presidency. While he has not announced himself as a candidate for reelection, the present president, Charles E. Winter of Omaha, it is believed, would be willing to serve a second term. Mr. Winter's friends believe that the hard and effective work performed by him in securing the national league convention for Omaha and Nebraska, his present efforts in making arrangements for the convention and the general activity he has exhibited in his administration entitle him to another term if he desires it.

THE ELEPHANTS ARE HERE.

Omaha Invaded by the Great Forepaugh-Sells Bros. Combination.

Peter Sells, general manager of the combined Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' circuses, arrived in the city last night and is quartered at the Millard. Mr. Sells reports that no serious damage was sustained by the show by reason of its collision with the storm at Sioux City Friday night. The main tent was considerably "ripped up the back," and some center and side poles splintered, but there was no other loss of any consequence. As the management always carries an extra tent for just such emergencies there has been no interruption to the regular performances. The show exhibited as usual at Manning, Ia., yesterday.

The three huge trains bearing the circus property will reach the city early this morning and the animals, chariots and other paraphernalia will be moved at once to the grounds at Twentieth and Paul streets. The opening event tomorrow will be the remarkable and romantic pageant, which will start from the exhibition grounds at 8:30 a. m. and traverse the principal thoroughfares of the city. The route in full will be found in another column.

The Forepaugh-Sells show is easily one of the leading institutions of the country. The number of employes in various capacities is legion. The list is as follows: Twenty-five agents, eighty billposters, 150 canvas men, 125 grooms, forty property men, twenty wardrobe men, twelve chandelier men, forty "razerbacks" or train men, thirty-five cook house men, fifty animal men, fifteen dining car men, twelve sleeping car porters, 300 equestrians, acrobats, vaulters, gymnasts and other arenic performers, and Merrick's Military band of forty musicians. Then there are the jockeys and charioteers of the hippodrome, and Alexander McGregor's big contingent of Scotch athletes. The executive staff accompanying the show is unusually complete. It includes a manager, with eight assistants; a treasurer, with four assistants; a boss canvasman, with eight assistants; a boss hostler, with six assistants, a superintendent of transportation, a superintendent of menagerie, a museum superintendent and a Pinkerton detective. The side show and concert people number eighty-five. This big dual show is said to be bigger in every way than anything ever exploited by Barnum in his palmy days. The actual daily expenses, rain or shine, are $7,200.

The Forepaugh-Sells federation is the only important circus aggregation that will visit the middle western states this season. Its only possible rival, the Barnum-Bailey show, is now in England and will not return to America until next spring. The route of Buffalo Bill's Wild West will be confined principally to the eastern states this summer.

EATS OFF A TIN PLATTER

Bryan Takes His Rations the Same as Any of the Enlisted Men.

Colonel Bryan, the leading spirit of the Third regiment, has taken up his permanent quarters at Fort Omaha and now lines up with the common soldiers of the companies at the fort and has his meals served to him on a tin plate and drinks coffee from a tin cup like the other soldiers, washing his own dishes when he has finished eating.

Three companies, company L of Indianola, company G of Wakefield and company C of Omaha are now quartered at Fort Omaha. Company A of Lincoln will probably arrive on Monday, company C of Omaha will go to the fort on Tuesday, company B of Plattsmouth will arrive on Wednesday, company D of Omaha will go to the fort on Thursday, company I of Alma will arrive on Friday and the remainder of the companies will arrive some time during the week.

All the supplies for the regiment have arrived and the work of mustering in the men will be begun as soon as medical examinations are completed. The work of examining the men will be commenced on Monday and some of the companies will be mustered in not later than Wednesday.

MINOR POLICE MATTERS.

Bertha Lewis confidenced J. B. Boran of Chicago out of $11 last night after inveigling him into a low resort on Ninth street. She was arrested.

Two members of the city chain gang succeeded in making good their escape yesterday. This makes three who have escaped from the gang this week, one being the clever sneak thief Sam Yea, the Chinaman.

Bertha Tinsley told her husband, Frank Denman, to take his clothes and go, that she would not longer support him in idleness and the ungrateful fellow turned on her and emptied his revolver at her. An officer who heard the shots placed the ungrateful husband under arrest. Denman will aid others in beautifying the streets for the next thirty days.

Edward Farnam and Edward Smith became involved in a quarrel in the cigar store of J. Goldzarker, 1515 Farnam street, Friday night, and the quarrel terminated in a collar and elbow fight. During the melee the men fell against the well filled cigar cases, overturning them, breaking the glasses and allowing their contents to scatter about the floor. A policeman was called and the two men were arrested, charged with malicious mischief.

R. H. Johnson until recently was a tenant of Mrs. J. M. Johnson. Through some misunderstanding Johnson was evicted from the house and his furniture set out upon the sidewalk. The furniture remained there until yesterday when his father, J. F. Johnson, 1110 Izard street, attempted to remove it. Mrs. Johnson either thought the elder Johnson was a thief or she had some grievance against him, as she rushed out at him, so he alleges, with a piece of lead pipe and with several well directed blows knocked him out. Johnson said as he was averse to striking a woman he would allow the courts to adjust matters, so he swore out a warrant for the belligerent Mrs. Johnson and she was arrested and the matter will be aired in police court Monday. Mrs. Johnson is a Swede while Johnson is an Irishman.

HELD UP AT THEIR OWN DOOR

Henry Miller and A. Jordan Attacked by Highwaymen.

BOTH MEN ARE SEVERELY WOUNDED

Assailants Fail in Their Attempt to Rob, but Cut and Maim Their Victims—Passersby Render Assistance.

An attempt was made last night to hold up Henry Miller and A. Jordan. The highwaymen were two men who had assumed for the moment the guise of peddlers. Miller and Jordan resisted and received several severe wounds on the head and hands, although they succeeded in saving their money. The encounter occurred at Twenty-fourth and Martha streets, when the men assaulted were within twenty feet of their own doors.

Miller is employed at Cornier's brickyard, Twentieth street and the B. & M. tracks, and had received his week's wages, amounting to $12. Jordan had also just been paid $15, which represented his week's work for the Westinghouse Electrical company at the exposition grounds. The men are brothers-in-law and live at 2408 Martha street, in front of which number they met the highwaymen. The latter accosted Jordan and requested him to pay $4 for a ring which he said he had obtained on the sly and was willing to part with cheap. Jordan replied that he had no wish to make such a purchase and was then asked for a small donation. He responded that he had a large family and that he would be unable to help the man out.

Close in on Them.

The highwayman then made a thrust at Jordan with an open knife, and as the latter raised his arm to ward the blow the blade feached his little finger, almost severing it. Jordan managed to get out of the way and the second blow fell to Miller, who was badly cut across the skull. Miller was armed with a scythe which he had just purchased and he endeavored to bring this into action, but the weapon was too cumbrous and he received another scalp wound, which felled him to the sidewalk. His assailant bent over him and was going through his pockets when Jordan engaged him and a number of passersby being attracted by that time, the highwaymen fled. Miller and Jordan were given the attention of a police surgeon.

From the description given of the men the police believe that the work was done by members of a tough crowd which frequents the south part of the city. Earlier in the evening Patrolman Dargawynski arrested a man named James Davis, who offered cheap jewelry for sale at his house, and he is thought to be a member of the gang.

Can Accommodate All.

Editor Bee: A false rumor seems to have been scattered broadcast that Omaha cannot accommodate the visitors who attend the exposition. This seems ridiculous to me, and from what I can learn is without foundation—no truth in it, whatever. So far, not even the hotels have been crowded, and in addition to them there are over 6,000 rooms for rent in the city, and at reasonable rates, too. I am a guest at the Central hotel, corner Fifteenth and Dodge streets, where I get an elegant furnished room and the very best of attention at the most reasonable prices. No one should fail to attend the exposition because of the expense—as it is an opportunity that will not soon be furnished again—and I am sure those who stop at the Central hotel will not regret their coming to the exposition. FRANK TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

Former Meat Inspector of Omaha Commits Suicide in Riverview Park.

Israel Frank, formerly meat inspector of this city and well known in political circles, was found in Riverview park yesterday afternoon in a dying condition. His death occurred at 10 o'clock last night at St. Joseph's hospital and was caused from a mixture of chloroform and morphine taken evidently with suicidal intent. Mr. Frank had been unemployed for some time and his action is attributed to despondency regarding money matters.

Shortly before noon yesterday Frank entered the drug store of B. Robinson, 1102 South Thirteenth street, and asked for half an ounce of the best quality of chloroform. The druggist who knew him personally inquired what it was for and Frank replied that he had a recipe for a liniment composed of chloroform and morphine. Robinson said that for this use a cheaper quality of chloroform would do equally well and as Frank acquiesced the morphine and chloroform were weighed out.

Frank was next seen by Harry Richalieu and E. J. Upgraff, young men who had been bathing in the river east of Riverview park. As they entered the park from the railroad track they heard groans and found Frank lying in the weeds. They supposed that he was ill until Upgraff found the half-emptied bottles at one side. A physician who happened to be passing was summoned and found Frank beyond relief. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital and his relatives notified. Efforts were made to revive Frank, but he did not regain consciousness.

The dead man leaves a wife and two children at 2103 South Eighteenth street. He has resided in Omaha for about ten years excepting a short time spent in Chicago.

Reduction in Postal Charges.

A radical reduction in the rates charged for postoffice money orders on foreign countries has been instituted by the department and will go into effect July 1. Formerly there has been much complaint about the high rates charged and it is thought that the lower rates will greatly increase the department's business with foreign countries. The changes are as follows:

Germany—For $1, 4 mark and 12 pfennig could formerly be had in exchange, but under the new rates 4 mark and 17 pfennig can be bought.

Algeria, Belgium, France, Luxemburg, Switzerland—$1 bought 5 franc, 5 centimes under the old rates and will buy 5 franc, 15 centimes under the new rates.

Italy—$1 formerly bought 5 lire, 5 centimes, and will now buy 5 lire, 15 centimes.

Austria and Hungary—$1 formerly bought 5 franc, 5 centimes, and will now buy 5 franc, 15 centimes.

Armour & Co. have announced the opening of their new up-town establishment at Thirteenth and Jones streets for Monday, June 27th. Invitation is extended to the trade in general.
