

MANY REPUBLICANS COMING

Attendance at National League Meeting Promises to be Large.

MEM OF GREAT PROMINENCE IN THE LIST

Far East as Well as Central Section and Pacific Slope to be Represented at the Great Gathering.

Secretary D. H. Stine of the Republican National League, who has gone to Chicago in the interests of the convention to be held in this city, has secured a special concession from the Western Passenger Association, by which the special rates will go into effect from all points east of Colorado and Wyoming on July 11, instead of the 12th. This was announced yesterday and it means that it will not only make it possible for delegates to the National League to arrive a day earlier, but will be of special benefit to the delegates to the state league conventions of Iowa and Nebraska, which meet at Council Bluffs and Omaha on July 12. This and other facts denote that the gathering of Republican leaders in Omaha will be one of the largest ever held.

Big Attendance Promised.

Secretary Stine is much encouraged over the prospects for a large attendance at the national gathering. Correspondence is pouring in from all quarters.

Hon. Daniel G. O'Connell, prominent league member of Wisconsin, called at headquarters and stated that a large delegation was coming from his home. The Minnesota delegation meets at St. Paul on July 12 and will come to the exposition city in a body.

Hon. Grant Fellows, president of the Michigan League, serves notice that his delegation is coming to Omaha to capture the national presidency for Hon. E. N. Dingley.

Senator Isaac Miller Hamilton, president of the Illinois League, has ordered accommodations be reserved here for a large delegation. He has spent the past week in Chicago in the interest of a large delegation and if energy and determination will accomplish it, Illinois will bring to Omaha at least 100 people. Senator Hamilton is one of the most prominent league men. His name has been mentioned in connection with the national presidency.

Candidates for Place.

Kansas will send a large delegation, headed by J. F. Culver of Emporia. President Israel Sobel of the Pennsylvanians is making a special effort to have a full representation.

W. E. Bundy, president of the Ohio League, who was recently appointed district attorney for the southern district of Ohio, will come with a carload of Buckeyes.

Oklahoma has just held its league convention, at which every county in the state was represented and a full delegation will come to Omaha.

South Dakota will send a large crowd by "Dixie" Wood.

Indiana always sends a good delegation to the national conventions and this year will be no exception. It is proposed to present Hon. A. M. Higdon for national presidency. This delegation will also be at the Millard.

Hon. L. J. Crawford, president of the National Republican League, this week attended the state league convention of Arkansas. President Crawford has broken all previous records by attending thirteen state conventions during his term.

Trolley Car Jumps the Track.

A curious accident happened about 8 o'clock last night to a southbound Sherman avenue train at the intersection of Sherman avenue and Clark street. The train consisted of an open motor and trailer and both were crowded. As the motor struck the curve it jumped the track and continued in a southerly direction until it reached the curb at the southwest corner of the intersection. Here it struck a trolley pole and cut out a section of the heavy pole about eight feet in length as neatly as the pole could have been cut with an axe. The pole was broken squarely off at the ground and also about eight feet above the ground. The top of the pole drooping down on the old base while the top was supported by the trolley guy wire.

When the car jumped the track the passengers clambered out as fast as possible and no one was seriously injured. Mrs. H. M. Engelman, living at 608 North Twenty-third street, had a narrow escape from being struck by this street car but was not injured.

Spontaneous Exhibition of Patriotism.

Last night at the Trocadero a wonderful burst of patriotic enthusiasm was nature not down on the evening bill, but it was just as effective as though it had been advertised and especially worked up. The young woman who plays the cornet finished "America" and had a good start on "The Star Spangled Banner" when the audience went into a rhapsody of cheering, in which Mayor Moore, who with his wife, was in a box joined. When the enthusiasm had somewhat subsided the mayor was called on for a speech. He responded in an intensely patriotic vein, referring to the battle at Santiago and his utterance was again drowned in the cheers of the audience. For ten minutes the uproar was prolonged, the crowd calling for "Moore's," "Moore's," while the mayor stood in his box and bowed, and the old flag was applauded again and again.

Had Too Many Hams.

E. G. Long and Charles Brown were arrested yesterday morning for possessing four hams for which they could not account. The goods were identified last night by Hamilton Brothers, butchers at 1517 Dodge street, as belonging to their stock. One of the men had been employed by the firm and knew a route by which he could reach the interior of the store through a dumb waiter from the second floor.

Burned by Gasoline.

Miss Emma Lorenzen, 622 South Seventeenth street, was seriously burned yesterday by the explosion of a small quantity of gasoline which had been used for cleaning purposes. A lighted match was accidentally dropped into the gas and the blaze almost enveloped Miss Lorenzen before it was extinguished. The burns, which are on her arm and shoulder, are not serious.

SOLD THEM BOGUS TICKETS

Local Scalpers Taken in by a Man Who Had Plenty of Tens—Attempt to Dispose Of.

George Davis, an alleged "shaver" of bogus railroad tickets, was arrested last evening at Munson's ticket office, 1200 Farnam street, after he had made a tour of the ticket broker's offices of the city, where he managed to dispose of eighteen tickets at an average price of $7 each. The tickets are of the kind known as "shippers' tickets" and are supposed to be good between Council Bluffs and Chicago over the Northwest-ern railway. Davis confederate, whose name he said was Wilson, escaped.

Wilson is being eagerly sought for by the police, as he is believed to be the head of a gang which is not only operating here but elsewhere. Just prior to Davis' arrest he and Wilson were together, and as Davis had none of the tickets or money in his possession when captured it is supposed that he delivered the proceeds of his sales and the tickets to Wilson.

Davis had disposed of three tickets to A. J. Park, manager of Munson's office, for $22.50 just before his arrest and had returned to negotiate three more when he was arrested at the instigation of Mr. Park, who had discovered that the tickets were bogus. Davis asserts that he did not know that the tickets were bogus and that he had only met Wilson a short time before his arrest and had agreed to sell them for him. Davis sold all his tickets in blocks of three.

Those who were victimized were: People's ticket office, 1515 1/2 Farnam; Gould's, Fourteenth and Douglas streets; Sisson's, 1311 Farnam street; Munson's, 1209 Farnam, and a broker whose offices are near the Grand Opera house, 1317 Farnam street. Davis escaped loss because he was suspicious of the genuineness of the tickets and refused to buy.

Shoplifters Arrested.

Three professional shoplifters were detected in the act of stealing goods at the Boston store yesterday afternoon. The women, who said they were from Peoria, Ill., but who were really from Chicago, were elegantly dressed and wore a profusion of diamonds. Two of them carried handbags, into which they placed stolen goods. Home Detective Orter captured the women and took them to the offices of the store, where they were searched. From the regular shoplifters' backs in the folds of their dresses a quantity of goods were recovered besides what they had in their satchels. On their promise to never again visit the store the women were released.

GAIETY THEATER IS READY

Harry Clifford's New Place of Amusement Opens Its Doors to the Public Tonight.

Clifford's Gaiety Theater at the corner of Fifteenth and Capitol avenue will open for the summer season tonight.

"Little Miss Chicago," a burlesque extravaganza, is the bill. Its cast numbers fifty people, headed by Dolly Mestayer and J. P. Kelly.

While the theater is a temporary affair, it is fitted up as elaborately as a permanent building would be in the way of decorations, and the orchestra pit, and the coloring effect is buff, maroon and gold, which makes a most pleasing effect. The floor plan is a series of raised platforms leading down to the orchestra, which is fitted with the regular orchestra chairs. On the platform tables and wire chairs take the place of opera chairs. The formation of the auditorium is circular and an excellent view of the stage can be had from any point.

The seating capacity of the building is 2,100. Music hall privileges will be allowed in any part of the house except in the orchestra pit. The dome of the building is open to the sky. Popular prices will prevail and only evening performances will be given. On July 3, however, a special matinee will be given.
