

COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL

Favorable Crop Prospect Increases the Weakness in Wheat.

JULY AND SEPTEMBER EACH CLOSE LOWER
Corn Shows Strength and Closes Higher. Oats Decline and All Lines in Provisions Record an Advance.

OMAHA GENERAL MARKETS.

Condition of Trade and Quotations
Stocks, Bonds, and Securities.

Eggs—Good stock, $8.

BUTTER—Common to fair, 96¢/lb.; separator, 10¢; gathered creamery, 15¢/lb.

VEAL—Choice fat, 50 to 120 lbs., quoted at $2.50.

CHEESE—Steady; fancy New York, large, 85¢/lb.; fancy New York, medium, 65¢/lb.; fancy New York, small, 55¢/lb.

WHEAT—Easy; spot, 8¢; the month,

$2.75; asked: August, 74¢/40c; steamer, No. red, 78¢; asked. Receipts, 212 bu.; exports, none. Southern wheat by sample, 85¢/bu.; southern wheat, on grade, 78¢/bu.

CORN—Steady; spot and the month, 34¢/bu.; asked: No. 1, 35¢/bu.; mixed, 34¢/bu.; 78¢; Receipts, 550 bu.; exports, none; stock, 1,800 bu. Southern wheat, 78¢; yellow, 78¢; white, 78¢.

GATES—Firm. No. 1, 78¢/80c; No. 2, 72¢/75¢; Receipts, 7,100 bu.; exports, none.

PEAS—Steady; fancy creamery, 12¢/lb.; fancy imitation, 10¢; fancy India, 12¢/lb.; good India, 12¢; store packed, 10¢/lb.

OATS—Steady; common, 12¢/lb.; choice, 14¢/lb.; bran, 10¢/lb.

CHEESE—Steady; fancy New York, large, 85¢/lb.; fancy New York, medium, 65¢/lb.; fancy New York, small, 55¢/lb.

WHEAT—Easy; spot, 8¢; the month,

CHICAGO, July 12—Fine crop prospects weakened wheat today. July closed 14¢ lower and September lost 1¢-8¢. Corn left off 1¢ higher and oats 1¢-2¢ lower. Pork gained 2¢ and lard 1¢-2¢ lower. Beef, 1¢-2¢ higher, was steady everywhere, with its prospect of permitting thrashing operations and increasing the movement of the new crop, caused a bearish feeling in wheat. At the start, September opened at 63¢-down to 67¢-8¢, but it quickly developed that there were plenty of sellers at lower prices when the first quotations could not longer be realized and a rapid decline to 64¢-5¢ followed. The market then dropped from 64¢ to 74¢. Later, now wired that exporters had taken over 600,000 bu. there for export and prices made a short rally. Bradstreet's statement, which was expected to be bullish, proved a foreign markets, started some general selling and the price for September dropped to 61¢-8¢. The market had a sudden recovery in the afternoon and was up 1¢-2¢. The millers at Minneapolis and Duluth had bought 600,000 bu. of wheat held in stores at 65¢-66¢ per bu. The arrival of new wheat are incoming and promises to be large next week. Chicago receipts were 40,000 cars, 31 of which were new. Minneapolis receipts were 100,000 cars, 100,000 more than the year before. Atlantic port receipts were 330,000 bu. wheat and flour. The Bradstreet's statement showed a slight increase in the market for this side and 100,000 bu. in adopt for Europe, or 2,785,000 bu. decrease in all amounts, whereas over 6,000,000 bu. were to be held in stores at 65¢-66¢ per bu. The market was 74¢-8¢, weakened to 74¢, then rose to 75¢ at the close. September began 1-8¢ lower to 8¢ higher at 74¢-75¢, fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Fluctuations in wheat and corn, influenced by September, were 1-8¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, sold off 1¢-8¢, then rose to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Provisions were firm, especially in advance of the market for September, and in advance of 5¢ in prices. The closing prices were the best of the day. September opened 1-8¢ higher, 2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much bearishness, but the market was still on the close, was more than recovered later on shorts' buying to secure profits on weak spots.

September opened 1¢-2¢ lower at 74¢-75¢, then fell to 74¢-75¢, then rallied to 76¢-78¢, the closing figure.

Estimated crop reports and lower cable came, illustrating by longs at the start in corn. The showing of the government crop reports was productive of much