All Over a Landlord's Claim. Thomas G. Harrison, who had aspirations to become city engineer last fall but failed to secure the nomination, has brought suit against George H. Brown of Mynster street claiming damages of $1000. Harrison rented a couple of rooms from Brown for light housekeeping but, as Brown alleges, was irregular in paying his rent. Brown finally gave him notice to quit, but Harrison proved a "stay-er" and Brown removed the bed clothes, the wash, the pitcher and the gasoline stove from the rooms, hoping thereby Harrison would take the hint and get out. Harrison replenished the furniture, but finally packed up and moved a couple of days ago. He then brought suit in Justice Perrier's court against Brown alleging he had been damaged to the extent of $500 by Brown removing the articles necessary for "light housekeeping." Brown has a counterclaim against Harrison for $15 rent and for a change of venue to Justice Burke's court, where the case is set for hearing Thursday.

Constable Baird of Justice Burke's court has a board bill against Harrison and the latter has signified his intention of taking another change of venue to Justice Vien's court.

Tom Fields Makes His Spouse Take a Run for Security.

OFFICERS HAVE A HARD TUSSEL, TOO

Old Man, Though Dismembered, Proves an Ugly Customer in a Fight and Nearly Wears Out Three Policemen.

Tom Fields, the old crippled negro who for many years has been one of the best known characters around town, was arrested about 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning charged with shooting at his wife. Fields who had been drinking heavily, quarreled with his wife and threatened to shoot her. He finally drew his revolver and Mrs. Fields grappled with him and attempted to wrench the weapon from him but failed. She then started to run from the house and as she did Fields fired at her but fortunately his aim was unsteady and the bullet lodged in the door of the door a few inches above Mrs. Fields' head.

Three officers were soon on the ground, but Fields had locked the door and refused their admission. The officers lost no time in forcing an entrance, but it was another thing to arrest the old negro. Despite the fact that his left arm and leg are both gone, he fought like a madman and made several attempts to shoot the officers before he was finally choked into submission and placed in the patrol wagon.

Mrs. Fields filed an information in Justice Burke's court charging Fields with shooting with intent to kill and his hearing was set for this morning. In the meantime Fields was committed to the county jail.

NEW THROUGH LINE TO OMAHA

Chicago Great Western Planning to Enter Gate City.

BID FOR MISSOURI RIVER BUSINESS

President Stickey Surveys a New Line and Proposes to Be Right in Line to Get More Western Carrying.

DES MOINES, July 18.—(Special Telegram)—Passenger Agent Tuttle of the Union Pacific, who is in this city today, reports having met two gangs of surveyors belonging to the Chicago Great Western at Hampton on Sunday. They were surveying a new route to Omaha. They had been in the field for some time and said they would reach Omaha in the course of ten weeks. The plan is to construct a line from Hampton to Story City and there form a connection with the Iowa Central. From Story City the road will make a bee line for Omaha. The purpose of going to Story City is to form a connection so as to make it possible to run a line from Des Moines and be able to handle the Marshalltown business as well. This will give the latter named place another direct connection with Omaha. Heretofore the Great Western has been unable to secure any Omaha business, other than free of charge, and the contract could not be made with the through Iowa lines. When the new line is completed, President Stickey will be in a position to command a great deal more respect and consideration from the through lines which cross the state of Iowa than at present.

In speaking with regard to the new connection, it was said by one of the engineers that when the line is completed the Great Western will no doubt run its passenger cars from this point to Marshalltown and from there to Story City over the Iowa Central and from there to Omaha over the new line. In the matter of freight it would be considerable figure, and in Chicago the Great Western would be in a position to carry a large amount of freight to and from the carrying of freight to Missouri river points. It also proves the proposition which President Stickey enunciated upon his return from Europe, that "Iowa trunk lines will be looking for the Great Western officials to buy up the moon, instead of trying to hold them."

With this line completed the Great Western will have through lines from Chicago to Kansas City, St. Joseph and Omaha, touching the Missouri river in three places and giving them an opportunity to demand their share of the western business. All that will be required at that event is to make a transcontinental connection with the southern roads which cross the mountains and the Great Western will be in the same shape as the Great Western is practically shut out of the northern Missouri river points and so far as Colorado business is concerned has very little of it. With Omaha on their staff they are apt to make all kinds of trouble.

DES MOINES, July 18.—(Special)—Commander Thrill of the department of Iowa, Grand Army of the Republic, has appointed O'Donnell of Dubuque judge advocate of the department, in place of E. B. Democrats Are at Odds. LEMARS, Ia., July 18.—(Special)—The democrats of the Eleventh congressional district are not getting along as happily as they would like. They have two congressional conventions called to meet in this city but on different dates. The first was called by T. B. Stringfield of O'Brien county, who is a member of the congressional committee, and will be held here August 4. The difference is not over the financial question but represents factional disagreements within the party, which have been in the past but silverites. The first convention is supposed to be in the interest of C. L. Soyler of O'Brien county, a traveling man who wants to be a candidate for congress, and the second is called by friends of Van Wagenen, who has the democratic nomination two years ago. Others who are supposed to be candidates for the nomination are T. M. Zink of this city, Will Wells, editor of a democratic paper at Alton, and John B. Allison, a banker of Sioux City. It is reported in the district that the smaller Iowa counties for many years a republican, would like the fusionist nomination.

Experiments in Saving Swine. CLARINDA, Ia., July 18.—(Special). S. E. McBurney, V. S., and Captain Way, the two gentlemen who spent so much time during 1897 in this (page county) section experimenting among herds of swine afflicted with cholera or swine plague, are with us again and will continue their course or mode of operations here during the remainder of this year. Their mode of treatment is more of a preventative than a cure. When the first herd afflicted they at once inoculate those of the herd as well as showing no signs of the infection. So far as the test was used last year the remedy proved worthy of further trial.

Will Build Water Works. OGDEN, Ia., July 18.—(Special)—The city council of Ogden, at a special meeting decided to accept the bids of Fairbanks, Morse & Co. of Chicago, put in a system of water works for the city. This includes all expenses for mains, tank and gasoline engine, all complete and fully guaranteed to the city, at a cost not to exceed $4,367, work to be begun at once and completed as fast as possible.
