WINDY CITY AGGREGATION WINS HANDILY

All-Chicagos Come Out Ahead in a Close, Exciting and Interesting Match-Denver Drops One More Game.

All-Chicago yesterday practically won the Cricket championship of the Northwestern Cricket association by defeating the champions of last year, Manitoba. The Windy City aggregation won handily in a close, exciting and interesting match and is now counted on to go through the tournament without defeat, as Manitoba is easily the strongest eleven it has to meet. The score was 155 to 132 after one innings play.

Denver lost once more, dropping match to the Minnesota team. This, too, was a close match a good part of the time although Minnesota finally won out by four wickets. The winners gained the victory through a time extension, for when 6:30 o'clock arrived they had 11 runs to get and under the rules of the cricket association were given twenty minutes to secure them. They had minutes to spare when the time

These results were not entirely expected. In fact, the winning of the Chicago team came as something of a surprise, for it was very generally believed that Manitoba would walk off with the championship again this year. Yet the surprise was a very agreeable one, for with few exceptions the cricketers wanted to see the championship come over to this side. The Denver-Minnesota finale was not so surprising, for Denver is developing rapidly from an unknown quantity into rather a weak team. Omaha expects to beat that aggregation and get third in the race for the

The day was a perfect one for play. The sun's heat was considerably tempered by a cooling breeze, which made playing more enjoyable than on any day since the tournament began. The usual good supply of good things was on hand.

Manitoba lost its match through overcautiousness. In its inning its heavy batsmen seemed to be afraid of the bowling afraid that if they hit hard they would be caught out. As a consequence they took no chances, and this fact was responsible for the defeat. They were altogether too stubborn in refusing to go after balls which they might have biffed out for many runs, considering their ability. The consequence was that while none of them were put out very speedily, yet their efforts did not rebult to the augmentation of their score sufficiently. Chicago displayed a well-balanced lot of bats, although there were no big individual scores. Christian, Barker and Kelly all made twenty or more, while four others of the eleven got up into the double figures. When Manitoba came to bat Chicago also showed some excellent fielding, in which Dobson, Edmonds and Jeffrey carried off the honors. Edmunds was quick and sure on ground balls. Dobson had three pretty catches to his credit. MacDougal was head and shoulders above every other bat on his team, his 44 being put together with a dash. Poile's 27 was the output of a very, almost too carefully played inning, while Macro got 22 as the reward for some smashing onsiaughts on the bowling. He hit for six twice in succession and was caught out on his third successive drive to bounds. Poile hit for six also and MacDougal got four, three, four and three in succession off four balls. Polle's defense seemed impregnable, till he was clean bowled on what seemed the easiest ball he had. Bannatyne was something of a disappointment, as were Sixth race, one mile and one-half furlongs: Miss Marion won, La Josephine second, Georgie third. Time: 1:09½. Time: 1:22. almost too carefully played inning, while something of a disappointment, as were others who followed, for the heavy hitting of the big three would ordinarily have started the seams in the bowling and made the piling up of runs casy. One thing against the hitters was the length of the grass, which held the ball very success-Chicago's fielding also counted for much in this respect, for it was very sharp and effective.

Chicago ended its innings with 155 runs, and Manitoba started in to do its cautious batting. These tactics kept the heavy batters on the crease for quite a while, but after they were disposed of the remainder were retired quickly. When MacDougal went out the score for Manitoba had reached 120 at the fall of six wickets. Then Beddow bowled Bannatyne out with three runs and Davis followed up this performance by bowling both Holmes and Appleton out with ducks in one over. Finally, just a few minutes before 6:30, Hamilton, the tenth man, was put out by a pretty catch by Jeffrey, giving the match to Chicago by 23

Another brace of bicycle tourists have arrived in the city to take in the exposition.

They are George E. Dodge and George Ladbury, both of Springfield, Mass. The latter is a cricket fiend and came as much to witness the cricket tournament that is now going on as to see the exposition. The two riders left Springfield on June 23 and covered the 1,607 miles that separates that city from Omaha in considerably less riding time, as they have simply logged along. They found the roads in fair shape, the worst being in Iowa. The hills of that state are said by the riders to be worse than those in New England. The two men will stay in this city a month, and then may wheel back home or go on to San Francisco, with Hawaii as their ultimate destination. Both men are riding wood frame wheels and say that the machines have stood up Umpires: Messrs. Lawrie and New, Minnesota's Hot Trundling. The great bowling of Godwin and Edmunds speedily ended Denver's first innings. The bowling analysis shows what excellent work these two bowlers did, for fourteen of Godwin's overs were maidens and half of Edmunds' twenty were the same. Not one of the Denverites got into two figures and the team was retired with but forty runs. Edmunds and Godwin did as good work for the Minnesota team at the bat in their

The annual levy must be made before August 1 or the city will find itself without ent time.

As there seems to be considerable compurposes it is possible that the 41/2 mills thing like seventy-five. allotted to this fund will be omitted. It surely will be if the committee appointed o confer with the railroad managers in elation to viaduct repairs makes a favorable report. In that case the levy will not be over 47 mills. The levy for park purposes will be increased to one-half of 1 mill. which is the minimum allowed by law,

Democratic Fight on Van Dusen. The reorganized Board of Education, which is democratic now by one vote, is tarting in to do what was predicted shortly after election, that is to remove republican mployes. The first resignation asked for s that of J. H. VanDusen, the board's atorney. Up to the present time Mr. Van Dusen has not acceded to the wishes of he majority and the chances are that he will not. Two years ago when Mr. Van ousen was elected attorney for the board he declined the position and refused to make application. He was, however, elected by a unanimous vote and at the urgent request of several members agreed to accept the position. One year ago he was re-elected without being an applicant. This year his contract expired on June 1 and upon being asked to define his position Mr. VanDusen stated in open session that he was not a candidate for the place. As there were no applications for the position mand for his resignation Mr. VanDusen says it takes two to break a contract and he now proposes to stand on his legal right He did not seek the position, he says, but since it has been given to him he will de cline to step down and out to make room for a democrat. One member of the board has made the statement that the democrats want to get rid of VanDusen on account of the opinion he rendered regarding the right of the old board to employ a superintendent and teachers. Acting on this opinion the old board re-elected Superinendent Munro and signed contracts with forty-nine teachers. The new board is seeking for some way of disposing of Munro and some of the teachers, and it is understood that an attorney, who will give a different opinion from that already rendered, is desired. There will be the liveliest kind of a fight on hand if the present attorney is supplanted by a democrat Even the democratic members assert that they have nothing against VanDusen as a lawyer, but they want an attorney who will render the kind of decisions they want and they are afraid that the present incumbent will not suit them in this respect.

Armour is Killing Hogs. Today the Armour people will commenc the slaughtering of cattle and sheep. It was the intention to start these two departments of the big house yesterday, but owing to delays of an unavoidable nature it was deemed advisable not to do so. Yes terday the Armours purchased 1,200 hogs on this market for local slaughter and this department will be kept moving right along. The machinery all over the plant is a little stiff but everything will be in first class working order in a few days. J. Ogden Armour and P. A. Valentine came the place before midnight by threatening over from Chicago to witness the opening of the new plant and were well pleased with the operations. Quite a number of visitors visited the plant yesterday, and all were made welcome by General Superintendent Howe and his assistants,

There are now the wrong way is being pursued at the pres- sixty delgates regularly admitted to the convention. When the Actors' society and other organizations of a like nature are admitted plaint about the proposed levy for viaduct the total number will be swelled to some

The afternoon session was devoted to th remainder of the report of the financia committee, the discussion of admitting the American Actors' association to the alliance and the receiving of charters from variou locals throughout the United States. After much discussion it was decided to adopt the following resolutions regarding the admission of actors: We deem it for the best interests of the actors' society and for our own organization that their application be referred t the American Federation of Labor and that they connect themselves with tha body. An offer on our part through a mu tual understanding to arrange for an ex change of fraternal delegates at our re spective annual conventions and aid then in any way in our power during the the atrical season. This resolution was unanimously carried

The actors are represented by John Jack F. F. Mackay and Charles Lothian. After t was decided to adopt the resolution the question came up of the advisability of turning the alliance from a national alliance of America to an international alli ance. No decision was arrived at and the debate on this question will continue today. No meeting of the scene shifters was held during the evening.
