

FUTURE FESTIVITIES

Coming Days of the Exposition to Be Made Most Brilliant.

FLOWER DAY OPENS A GAY SEASON

Gorgeous Spectacle to Introduce a Month Containing Many Special Events.

OTHER OCCASIONS OF THE WEEK

Indian Day and Kansas City Day the Celebrations Next on List.

PLEASANT SUNDAY AT THE GROUNDS

Many People Pass the Afternoon and Evening Amid the Scenes of Beauty, Listening to Much Sweet Music.

The midsummer quietude that has characterized the exposition during the past two weeks will now give place to a series of brilliant spectacles and celebrations that will continue almost without intermission until the gates close for the last time and the White City is deserted.

The program this week is punctuated with three big days, aside from the special musical attractions of the evenings. Very low railroad rates have been secured on each occasion and a largely increased out of town attendance is expected.

Indian Day will bring another novel spectacle in which over thirty tribes of men will illustrate their native dress, customs and sports.

Kansas City Day will be a magnificent display of fireworks. Saturday Kansas City will transport itself to the grounds and several thousands of its people will cheer the crowd and celebrate its participation in the Transmississippi enterprise.

No suggestion of subsequent bustle and activity was apparent on the grounds yesterday when a good sized crowd passed the afternoon and evening in quiet enjoyment of the pretty scenery and delightful music.

ISSUING THE PASSES.

President Wattles and Other Exposition Officers Leave the White House.

Since Friday afternoon, when Manager Rosewater of the Department of Publicity declined to longer perform the thankless task of the issuance of passes subject to the interference of the directors, certain other executive officials have been acquiring some practical experience of the difficulties of the position.

While President Wattles was sweating under the pressure of these personal applications, the Bureau of Admissions was literally overwhelmed with letters from every part of the United States containing urgent requests for passes.

BISMARCK DIES IN AGONY

Prince Passes Away While Surrounded by His Family.

SPEAKS A FEW WORDS JUST BEFORE END

Emperor William Deeply Affected on Learning of Death of the Great Statesman—No Funeral Arrangements.

(Copyright, 1898, by Press Publishing Co.) BERLIN, July 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Bismarck died in the utmost agony, his groans being so terrible that women left the death chamber.

There is still considerable uncertainty as to where the prince will be buried. It is generally understood that his own preference was for Friedrichsruhe on the slight hill opposite the castle under an oak tree.

Whether Bismarck is interred in Friedrichsruhe or Varzin it is understood that the nation will be given an opportunity of showing its admiration and expressing its sorrow for the deceased statesman by a popular manifestation in Berlin in the form of a solemn funeral procession or church service in one of the Berlin churches.

The Kaiser, as soon as he heard the news on board his yacht in Bergen, gave orders for immediate return. He will arrive in Kiel tomorrow night and it will then be finally arranged whether or not there will be a public funeral.

FAVORS THE CHEAP ADMISSION.

New Orleans Man Offers a Pertinent Suggestion to the Directors.

"I've been to every big exposition since the Centennial at Philadelphia held in this country and saw the last one at Paris and I want to say to you that in the Transmississippi Exposition you have a wonderful opportunity, only by asking for the World's Fair at Chicago."

"The buildings are stately, and yet they are attractive. The landscape work is beautiful. The grounds are well planned and the buildings about it, so brilliantly illuminated at night, are such to make one want to stay there forever."

"It may be presumption for me to give you advice, but I want to suggest that your directors cannot do a wiser thing than extend the 25-cent admissions for the evenings. I was out there for the first time on Thursday night and I enjoyed the beautiful scenery being admired by so many thousand people."

Mr. Hearn is one of the most prominent members of the Crescent City. He is one of the leaders on the committees that share the work of arranging the famous Mardi Gras festivals.

KANSAS EDITORS ON THE GROUNDS.

Some sixty editors of the North Central Editorial Association of Kansas are in the city for the purpose of attending the session of the association.

BRUTE STIONS GIVE A PARADE.

Captain Mercer's Brigade of Sioux Indians made a hit last night. Starting the early morning parade they were in the city at 10 o'clock and marched from the camp to Twentieth street and down that thoroughfare to the Administration building.

ESTIMATES OF THE DEAD MAN.

Prominent Europeans Give Their Views of His Character.

LONDON, July 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—London sears scarcely stirred by Bismarck's death, as the political and diplomatic clubs are depressed.

There is a feeling here that Bismarck's death will settle the approachment between England and Germany which Chamberlain desires, as the anti-English policy of Germany was believed to be largely due to the strength of Bismarck's traditions in the Berlin foreign office.

Sir Charles Dilke, speaking of Bismarck's death, said: "The unification of the German empire Bismarck accomplished a work which stands an imperishable monument to his genius."

BRUSSELS, July 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—I obtained today the following estimates of Bismarck from two leading Belgian politicians of opposite views.

"One feature which dominated the character and moulded the entire course of his life was his iron will. If you ask me who made Germany I reply Bismarck. Without him the empire would not exist."

BERLIN, July 31.—A special dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Friedrichsruhe says: "The death chamber is on the ground floor of the castle. The prince died at an oak bedstead made specially for him of wood from Sachsenwald."

Associated Press Story.

BERLIN, July 31.—A special dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Friedrichsruhe says: "The death chamber is on the ground floor of the castle. The prince died at an oak bedstead made specially for him of wood from Sachsenwald."

"The city looks hardly different from its wont, except that flags are at half mast. The first to go to that position this morning was the flag over the chancellery, which was lowered by the American member of the Reichstag."

PARIS, July 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—F. M. Deloncle, brother of the ill-fated captain of La Bourgoise, formerly minister of foreign affairs, which will probably be delayed until the emperor's return.

Directs His Interment.

It is significant that Prince Bismarck directed an interment near the colossal bronze monument presented by the loyal vassal representatives—a noble stag triumphant over a pack of yelping dogs.

PARIS, July 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—F. M. Deloncle, brother of the ill-fated captain of La Bourgoise, formerly minister of foreign affairs, which will probably be delayed until the emperor's return.

ROME, July 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—F. M. Deloncle, brother of the ill-fated captain of La Bourgoise, formerly minister of foreign affairs, which will probably be delayed until the emperor's return.

AMERICAN SYMPATHY.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—By direction of the president the following dispatch was sent tonight to Hon. Andrew D. White, United States ambassador to Germany.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 31, 1898.—White, ambassador, Berlin: The president charges you to express in the proper official quarter to the bereaved German nation and

EMPEROR DEEPLY AFFECTED.

BERGEN, Norway, July 31.—The news of the alarming change in the condition of Prince Bismarck reached Emperor William late yesterday evening.

PARIS, July 31.—The French papers express the belief that the death of Prince Bismarck will have no influence upon European policy, as the deceased retired from public life eight years ago.

LION BITES HIS TAMER'S HEAD.

One of the animal tamers up at Hagenback's put his head into the mouth of a lion, but he will not do so again for a time at least.

M'KINLEY STEALS A MARCH

Gets the Better of Outsiders in Settlement of Philippine Question.

WILL NOT PERMIT ANY INTERFERENCE

Does Not Propose to Have the Powers Play the Same Role that They Did After Japan's Victory.

ESTIMATES OF THE DEAD MAN.

Prominent Europeans Give Their Views of His Character. LONDON, July 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—London sears scarcely stirred by Bismarck's death, as the political and diplomatic clubs are depressed.

There is a feeling here that Bismarck's death will settle the approachment between England and Germany which Chamberlain desires, as the anti-English policy of Germany was believed to be largely due to the strength of Bismarck's traditions in the Berlin foreign office.

Sir Charles Dilke, speaking of Bismarck's death, said: "The unification of the German empire Bismarck accomplished a work which stands an imperishable monument to his genius."

BRUSSELS, July 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—I obtained today the following estimates of Bismarck from two leading Belgian politicians of opposite views.

"One feature which dominated the character and moulded the entire course of his life was his iron will. If you ask me who made Germany I reply Bismarck. Without him the empire would not exist."

BERLIN, July 31.—A special dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Friedrichsruhe says: "The death chamber is on the ground floor of the castle. The prince died at an oak bedstead made specially for him of wood from Sachsenwald."

"The city looks hardly different from its wont, except that flags are at half mast. The first to go to that position this morning was the flag over the chancellery, which was lowered by the American member of the Reichstag."

PARIS, July 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—F. M. Deloncle, brother of the ill-fated captain of La Bourgoise, formerly minister of foreign affairs, which will probably be delayed until the emperor's return.

ROME, July 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—F. M. Deloncle, brother of the ill-fated captain of La Bourgoise, formerly minister of foreign affairs, which will probably be delayed until the emperor's return.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—By direction of the president the following dispatch was sent tonight to Hon. Andrew D. White, United States ambassador to Germany.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 31, 1898.—White, ambassador, Berlin: The president charges you to express in the proper official quarter to the bereaved German nation and EMPEROR DEEPLY AFFECTED. BERGEN, Norway, July 31.—The news of the alarming change in the condition of Prince Bismarck reached Emperor William late yesterday evening.

PARIS, July 31.—The French papers express the belief that the death of Prince Bismarck will have no influence upon European policy, as the deceased retired from public life eight years ago.

LION BITES HIS TAMER'S HEAD. One of the animal tamers up at Hagenback's put his head into the mouth of a lion, but he will not do so again for a time at least.

TEMPERATURE AT OMAHA

Table with columns for Hour, Deg., and Wind. Shows temperature fluctuations throughout the day.

OUTLOOK FOR PEACE

No Reply from Spain Has Been Received at Washington.

ANSWER NOT EXPECTED BEFORE TUESDAY

No Doubt as to M. Cambon's Authority to Conduct Negotiations.

SPAIN GOING DIRECT TO THE POINT

Little Probability of Any Exasperating Diplomatic Delay.

MEANTIME WAR GOES ON IN PORTO RICO

Reinforcements to Be Sent at Once to the Assistance of General Miles

Shatter's Boys to Come Home.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The personal best informed as to the probabilities declare that the answer of the Spanish government to the terms of peace outlined by our government is not expected before Tuesday.

It is not meant by this statement to question in any manner the full plenipotentiary powers of M. Cambon, the French ambassador, in dealing with the subject.

Life on the American feet is full of action. Under Dewey there are no drones. While no one fears any hostile demonstration constant vigilance is maintained.

There has been no hostilities since the Spanish flag was pulled down May 1. The notice sent by Admiral Dewey to the governor general in Manila that any act of hostility would be followed by the destruction of the city has borne good fruit.

WADE GOES TO WASHINGTON

Starts from Chickamauga with His Staff Under Orders from the War Department.

CHICKAMAUGA, Ga., July 31.—Major General James F. Wade, commanding the army at Camp Thomas, was today ordered to report forthwith to the War Department at Washington.

PARIS, July 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Henri Brisson, prime minister, interviewed today.

LONDON, July 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Henry James, ambassador to Spain, was interviewed today.

ROME, July 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The Italian government has announced that it will not attempt to dictate the demands of the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—General Miles, in command of the Porto Rican expedition, sent the following dispatch to Secretary Alger, which was made public at the War Department at 10 o'clock tonight.

HONOLULU, Porto Rico, July 21.—3:35 p. m. Secretary of War, Washington, D. C.: Four telegrams received and answered by letter.

REPORTED BOMBARDMENT. KEY WEST, Fla., July 31.—5:30 p. m.—Reports have reached here that Nuevitas, on the north coast of the province of Puerto Principe, Cuba, has been bombarded by the Spanish and subsequently burned.

More Troops for Porto Rico. Meanwhile, an earnest that our government has not interrupted the execution of its campaign, an order was issued from the War Department today for the dispatch of an entire infantry regiment and a rifle company to Porto Rico.

BRUTALITY OF NIARDS

Helpless Women and Children Placed Before the Trenches to Keep the Insurgents Back.

Insurgents are reported to have committed the most heinous crimes.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.

At the beginning of the insurrection all military camps were sent to Manila and shot as rebels. There is less of that sort of shooting now, because General Aguinaldo, who has 2,000 Spanish prisoners, sent this message to the commander of the Spanish forces.