WHY GOLDGRABER IS SORE
North Twenty-Fourth Street Grocer Accuses the Police of Helping a Farmer Swindle Him.

B. S. Goldgraber, a grocer at Twenty-fourth and Grace streets, has a grievance against Captain Sigwart for refusing to allow him to know out a warrant for the arrest of an unknown farmer, whom he alleges defrauded him out of $2. Goldgraber says he contracted with the farmer to sell him a bushel of apples of him at 75 cents a bushel. One of the bushels was delivered to him, and he paid the farmer for the three on his delivery. On the delivery of the other two bushels some time later, Goldgraber alleges that they were each one peck short in measure and that the farmer refused to make good on his money back. When the farmer refused to do this, Goldgraber called an officer and had the farmer arrested. At the police station he asserts Captain Sigwart refused to allow him to swear out a warrant for the farmer's arrest, and allowed the latter to drive away.

NOT DANGEROUS WHEN PROPERLY TREATED.
Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth. All the doctors we consulted did not seem to give him any permanent relief, until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give this testimonial as an evidence of its efficacy, not that you need it to certify you, but that you may be benefited by its use. M. L. Keokuk, Iowa. For sale by all druggists.

AMUSEMENTS.
This week's bill at the Trocadero is another strong one and is drawing large houses nightly. The bill includes the Watson sisters, assisted by Juan De Zamara, who do very catchy and sensational aerial act; Irma Orbanay, with her trained cockatoos; Keating and Winchester appear in a very neat juvenile sketch; the three Tapaldos, grotesque acrobats; Chris and Maude Lane in a novel sketch; Willis in character changes, besides the Trocadero challenge orchestra.

Coming This Week.
The noted Don Carlos sisters will arrive in Omaha August 2. They are waiting for their palms read will now have the opportunity. The fee for a complete life reading is $1 and written readings may be had for $2. For further mention see this paper.

HARD COT. $7.50.
For immediate orders and delivery. Nebraska Fuel Co., 1414 Farnam street.

The Vast Possibilities of Money on $15.40.
Just picture it to yourself. A swift, luxurious train through the "Granary of Nebraska" (most beautiful now at harvest time), next the wide sweeping prairie, next the mountains and then the Springs (higher in the air above Omaha than twenty New York Life buildings piled one on top of the other, but the ascent has been tendered to railroads in eastern and southern states).

The Vast Possibilities of Money on $15.40.
Just picture it to yourself. A swift, luxurious train through the "Granary of Nebraska" (most beautiful now at harvest time), next the wide sweeping prairie, next the mountains and then the Springs (higher in the air above Omaha than twenty New York Life buildings piled one on top of the other, but the ascent has been tendered to railroads in eastern and southern states).

For Missouri day, August 30, there will be a rate of one cent for the round trip from all points in Missouri to Omaha and return, tickets to be sold for trains arriving in Omaha on August 30, good to return until and including September 5.

In addition to the above rates, which are already authorized, special day and convention rates have been recommended, tickets to be placed on sale on dates for the following indicated occasions: Iowa Pythian day, August 8 and 9; Red Men's day, August 10 and 11; St. Joseph day, August 12; Wheelmen's day, August 13; Congress of White and Colored Americans, and Colored National Personal Liberty League, August 17, 18 and 19; Modern Woodmen's day, August 18; Nebraska Saengerbund and Saengerfest, and Colored People's day, August 19; World Herald day, August 24; Sioux City day, August 25; Sioux City day, August 25; Greek Letter society day, August 30 and 31.

The regular exposition rates that prevail during the month of August, in addition to the rates in effect on special days, will be one and one-third regular fare for the round trip, tickets good for thirty days, and for bands and militia companies in uniform, 1 cent per mile traveled, from the following territory: North Dakota (eastern half), South Dakota, Utah, Wyoming, Colorado (except Denver, Pueblo and Colorado Springs), Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Indiana Territory, Missouri (except St. Louis), Iowa, Minnesota (except St. Paul and Minneapolis), Wisconsin, Illinois (except Chicago and Peoria gateways), northern peninsula of Michigan.

There will also be one and one-third fare, thirty days' limit, individual tickets sold by railroads outside of the Western Passenger association operating in the following named states: Arkansas, Louisiana, Montana, New Mexico and Texas.

The regular exposition rates of 80 per cent of double first class rate from territory beyond the Western Passenger association—tickets on sale daily from June 1 to October 30, good until November 15—will apply from the following states: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Georgia, Indiana, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia and Canada (Grand Trunk railway).

WHY GOLDGRABER IS SORE
North Twenty-Fourth Street Grocer Accuses the Police of Helping a Farmer Swindle Him.

B. S. Goldgraber, a grocer at Twenty-fourth and Grace streets, has a grievance against Captain Sigwart for refusing to allow him to know out a warrant for the arrest of an unknown farmer, whom he alleges defrauded him out of $2. Goldgraber says he contracted with the farmer to sell him a bushel of apples of him at 75 cents a bushel. One of the bushels was delivered to him, and he paid the farmer for the three on his delivery. On the delivery of the other two bushels some time later, Goldgraber alleges that they were each one peck short in measure and that the farmer refused to make good on his money back. When the farmer refused to do this, Goldgraber called an officer and had the farmer arrested. At the police station he asserts Captain Sigwart refused to allow him to swear out a warrant for the farmer's arrest, and allowed the latter to drive away.

NOT DANGEROUS WHEN PROPERLY TREATED.
Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth. All the doctors we consulted did not seem to give him any permanent relief, until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give this testimonial as an evidence of its efficacy, not that you need it to certify you, but that you may be benefited by its use. M. L. Keokuk, Iowa. For sale by all druggists.

AMUSEMENTS.
This week's bill at the Trocadero is another strong one and is drawing large houses nightly. The bill includes the Watson sisters, assisted by Juan De Zamara, who do very catchy and sensational aerial act; Irma Orbanay, with her trained cockatoos; Keating and Winchester appear in a very neat juvenile sketch; the three Tapaldos, grotesque acrobats; Chris and Maude Lane in a novel sketch; Willis in character changes, besides the Trocadero challenge orchestra.
