Music for Kausas City Day.

The preliminary plans for the celebraon of Kansas City day at the exposition on Saturday next, August 6, and the thor-oughness with which they are being executed indicate that the occasion will be a success. Two well known Omaha musicians left here last evening for Kansas City to fert here last evening for Kansas City to accompany the excursion of Kansas City folk up here on Friday. Prof. Adolf Ed-grea and Colonel C. A. Jacobson will help to enliven the trip northward for the vis-itors and before the excursion leaves Kan-sas City will distribute a considerable amount of exposition literature.

Bailey, who had just reached the city, was walking past the building when he was accosted by the men, who invited him to come in and join them in consuming the can of beer they exhibited. Not suspecting anything. Bailey walked into the building. Hardly had he crossed its threshold than one of the men leveled a revolver at his head and told him to throw up his hands. He did so and while a pistol was pressed against his face by one man the other made a thorough search of his person, partially disrobing him to do so. After securing his money the men drove Bailey out of the building and ran among a number of freight cars in the yards and got away.
