2:17 pace, purse, $2,000: memorial post cards with portraits of the deceased prince and pictures of the castle Many of the people were in mourning and hundreds came on bicycles. Under trees the members of the Thirty-first infantry from Alton and the sergeants of Prince Bismarck's regiment from Magdeburg had arranged their messes. The sergeants in their white uniforms, with yellow facings and burnished belmets, furnished a guard which was on duty on the terrace facing the garden behind the castle. The latter remains strictly closed. A little wide gate was opened occasionally to admit messengers with telegrams and wreaths, who were constantly arriving.

The crowds on each side of the road were composed of Hamburgers, who had been ar-riving on every train, foresters from all foreign countries. Venders of cards, photographs and medals swarmed about the outskirts of the crowds and waiters from the neighboring beer gardens bearing trays of empty or filled glasses circulated on all sides and did a big business among the thirsty. There were only a few gendarmes present, but they were perfectly able to maintain order.

When the imperial train arrived here the crowds were so anxious to see the emperor that they swarmed over the fences and upor the platform. The troops, however, wer able to keep a space clear around the emperor's saloon carriage. The presentations at the railroad crossing not known, though an official statement on the subject may be forthcoming. The religious service was conducted by Pastor Westphal of Brunstoff, according to the rites of the Reformed church. The text, in compliance with Prince Bismarck's desire, was from the first epistle of Paul, the apostle, to the Corinthians, chapter 15, verses 53 to 57, as follows:

For this corruption must put on incor ruption and this mortal must put on im mortality So when this corruption shall have put or incorruption and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brough to pass the saying that is written, death is swallowed up in victory.

O. Death, where is thy sting? O. Grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ The mourners present, including the im perial party, numbered from thirty to forty persons. Immediately after the service the em peror and empress and those who accompanied them started for Berlin. The former Empress Frederick sent a large laure wreath with palms, lilies and white roses intertwined and tied with black. President Kruger of the Transvanl re public telegraphed to Emperor William and to Prince Herbert Bismarck his condolence and announced that the government flagat Pretoria, the capital, were half-masted in honor of the deceased statesman. to Paint His Father's Portrait. BERLIN, Aug. 2.-It seems doubtful whether Emperor William will go to Friedichsruhe, owing to the attitude of Prince Herbert Bismarck, who not only has not heeded his majesty's desire to have the remains of his father buried in Berlin, but who seems to have refused Prof. Lenbach permission to paint a portrait of the deceased, as the emperor desired. Besides this, the coffin containing the remains of Prince Bismarck has been closed somewhat hurriedly.

General Shafter's health report today states that he is now caring for over 6,000 sick people, including Spanish soldiers, many of whom were found to be very ill. The task is a formidable one and the attempt to care for all hands probably explains in a measure the lack of adequate preparation of the transports employed in bringing home some of the wounded and sick. It is understood to be the present intention of the administration to assume liability for all the indebted claims presented by the American citizens against Spain on account of injury to personal property in Cuba. Men Will Meet Sunday.

The Lambert-McIntyre boxing contest, which was postponed last Sunday, is to be the feature of the first entertainment of the Omaha Athletic association to be held at McDonald on next Sunday afternoon. This bout is scheduled to be twenty-five rounds long, although a finish may be on the card. Both men have been training for several weeks for the contest.

In addition to this main event there is to be a six-round go between Fred O'Nell of this city and Splice Ross of Buffalo for points and a contest between Cisrence Jennings and "Splder Weir" for a medal. The program is also to contain events in wreatling, foot racing, heavy weight lifting, shot putting and jumping.

The attendance of the affair will be transported to McDonald on a special Burlington train that leaves the depot at 1:20 in the afternoon. The return will be made in the evening.

Sir Thomas Lipton's challenge will be dispatched in a few days. Charles Russell is york. Southampton—Arrived—Hollinge to New York in order to hand the challenge to the New York Yacht club.

Colonel Buck Keith and his colts will go over to Avoca, Ia., today for the purpose of playing two games with Colonel Beymen's corn-fed boys. Mr. Keith has the notion that Mr. Beymen's boys will know more after the game. Alabama Legislative Democrats. MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 2.—Returns received here up to 11 o'clock tonight indicate the democrats have carried thirty-three counties and the populists twelve. In three counties and the populists tweive. In four counties carried by the democrats, populist probate judges were elected. There is no question except as to the size of the majority of the democratic candidate for governor. Several of the remaining nineteen counties are close and the official vote will decide.
