Gathering at Lincoln Proves a Full Success Financially.

BETTER THAN THE KLONDIKE THIS YEAR

Balance Sheet Shows a Nice Sum of Cash to Be Carried Over to the Profit Side of the Ledger.

LINCOLN, Aug. 5 .- (Special.) -- The ses- | Majors. sion of the Epworth assembly has progressed so far that a fairly safe estimate can be privileges, $400; profits on tents, $400; received from street car company, $200; total provements in park, $800; expended for program, $1,500; employes, $200; rent of "jumbo" tent for tabernacle, including freight and labor, $200; park company (15 per cent of gate receipts), $975; total, $3,675. There will be a number of small items of expense in addition to these enumerated, including printing, postage, etc., but there are also some extra profits from the rent of chairs and cots, the sale of badges and other Items which will probably even up the incidental account, so that it is safe to say that the amount cleared by the assembly will reach $2,500. When it is taken into consideration that the item of $800 for improvements will not have to be repeated next year and that the league started in with $1,500, being the net profit from the assembly of last year, it is apparent that the Epworth people struck a bonanza when they went into the assembly business.

The patriotic enthusiasm of the Epworth campers can scarcely be placed second to their religious zeal. The national colors can be seen on every side and not an opportunity is lost to cheer the flag and its brave defenders now at the front. Last night Rev. Robert McIntyre was fortunate in taking for his subject "Soldiering in Dixie." No topic could have suited the audience better nor gained more hearty ap-

This afternoon the lecture hour was given over to a concert by the Tennesseeans. The program consisted of solos, selections by the male quartet and by the entire chorus. Miss Hawkins, soprano, won merited applause in a beautiful flag song picturing the present union of north and south. Miss Stone also struck a responsive chord in every heart in her contralto solo, "A Sailor on the Maine."

People staying on the grounds have the best possible chance for rest at night, one of the assembly regulations being that all loud talking, even in tents, shall cease when the bell is rung at 11 o'clock.

Each tent, with its number and the names and home address of its occupants, is registered at headquarters, making it a comparatively easy matter to find friends and ex-

On Wednesday, just after the close of the three-ring convention, a man who gave his name as Charles Cutler worked eight or ten Lincoln merchants on the check racket, the amounts secured from each running from $3 to $7. His method of procedure was to enter a grocery store, buy some groceries, and order them delivered at a number in the south part of the city. would then offer in payment a check for $8, purporting to have been signed by C. S. Rainbolt. In each case the check was stamped across the face as having been certified by the cashier of the Columbia National bank. The checks were all exactly alike, were properly decorated with revenue stamps, but proved to have no redeemable value. They were all forgeries, and the man got out of town before the merchants found out that they had been worked. The goods bought by the forger were recovered, as the number given at which the delivery was to be made was a fictitious one.

Rev. Peter Manss has been called to the pastorate of the First Congregational church to succeed Rev. Lewis Gregory, who recently resigned after having held the charge for twenty-five years. Veterans' Reunion. FREMONT, Neb., Aug. 5 .- (Special.)-The Dodge County Veterans' association is holding a successful reunion here at the city park. #### GAFFIN WILL TAKE THE JOB

Newly Chosen Chairman of the Populist State Committee Announces His Intention to Serve.

LINCOLN, Aug. 5 .- (Special.) -- Today J. N. Gaffin gave notice that he had decided to accept the chairmanship of the populist state committee, and that he will at once enter on the work of the campaign. This announcement will be sorry news to the faction of the popocrats who are working to pull Mr. Gaffin down, and who were confident last night that they had succeeded. It is not yet known whether Gaffin will adopt the schemes inaugurated by Edmisten to subsidize the German, Bohemian and Swedish papers, or whether he will retain in the employ of the committee the man who used to sign his name "T. H. Tibbles, Editor of a Nebraska Farm." Tibbles is the man who was employed last year at $10 per week to write editorials and political articles for the populist country papers, and who achieved some notoriety by bringing before the State Board of Transportation a political suit for the reduction of freight rates. He has been nominated for the senate by Lancaster county popocrats, and a few days ago brought himself into further prominence by writing a letter to a Chicago paper (the Chronicle) in which he referred to himself as "an eloquent and flery populist orator" and a man of great influence. It is said that one of the troubles of Edmisten this summer was from a case of "too much Tibbles," and that one of the first acts of the new chairman will be to discharge the "eloquent and flery populist orator."

J. M. Gilchrist of Nebraska City has been appointed examiner of county treasurers to succeed Fred Archard, who has resigned to take a job with an insurance company. The new examiner is a democrat in politics, and it is reported that he received the promise of the appointment some weeks ago when Auditor Cornell was fretting about the chances for a renomination and was anxious to gain the help of certain Otoc county politicians. Gilchrist was a candidate for the same appointment when the present state officers commenced to parcel out the spoils, but was turned down to make room for Archard, and his friends have been sore about the matter ever since. It is now presumed that the new deal has gages filed, amounting to $5,659.44, and fifhealed the soreness, and that the "allied forces of reform" in Otoe county will hereafter be solid for Cornell if Gilchrist has five chattel mortgages filed, $34,428.50, and

Boycott Story a Fake. OAKLAND, Neb., Aug. 5 .- An item has been going the rounds to the effect that the Renauds, who own the mill, had been boycotted on account of pro-Spanish sentiments. The article which caused all the trouble first appeared in a Tekamah paper and did the Renauds great injustice. So far as your correspondent can learn the facts in the case are as follows: The old gentleman and Andrew Renaud did say, which they do not deny, that the Cubaus, as far as they were concerned, were not worth fighting for and the United States would find in the end (as far as the Cubans are concerned) that the Spaniards treated them

May Have Been Murdered. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Aug. 5 .- (Special Telegram.)-Some new facts concerning the probable manner in which Canoy Hanks, the wealthy German farmer who disappeared from his home near here three weeks ago and whose body was found on a sandbar in the river last Tuesday, met his death came to light today. The fact that a small leather wallet containing about $75, which he is known to have carried in his trousers pocket on the day of his disappearance, was not found on the body, gives color to the theory that he may have been robbed and murdered, as he was known to carry large sums of money about with him. The case is being horoughly investigated.
