

CERTIFICATES WITH A FAULT

Poporate Evidence of Nomination Lacking in One Essential Respect.

FAIL TO SHOW PARTY VOTING STRENGTH

Question Which May Make Trouble for the Managers in Case a Protest is Made Against Receiving the Certificates.

LINCOLN, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—The certificates of nomination from all of the wings of the poporate party are now on file with the secretary of state, the one from the democrats having been filed today. These certificates are similar in form and none of them show that the party represented is having held a state convention at the last general election "polled at least 1 per cent of the entire vote in this state," which is the wording of the statute authorizing political parties to be represented on the ballot. This is a matter upon which there is much disagreement. While it is admitted that the democrats and populists cast more than the required per cent of the total number of votes, there is nothing of record to prove this and the secretary of state, in the absence of some showing of the number of votes cast by any party, is not bound to doubt as to his duty in the premises should a protest be filed. So far as the official record is concerned it is possible for all of the democrats to have voted the populist ticket, or vice versa, without affecting the general result, and the secretary has nothing to show what proportion of the vote each party cast. The matter is in dispute between the populists and democrats, each party claiming to have furnished the larger number of votes, but neither being able to produce any figures. Up to this point one has had the temerity to claim that the "silver republican" ticket received over 2,000 votes at the last general election, and the required per cent would be above that figure. Yet the silver republicans have certified their candidates and expect to occupy a place on the ticket.

Another question that is brought forward along this line is just what the law contemplated about the size of state conventions. It specifies that in the organization of a new party there must be at least 200 electors participating in the state convention. Nothing is said about the number required at future conventions. The secretary of the silver republican convention of 1897 were able to certify that there were over 200 delegates present at the state convention, although the actual delegates had always been doubted. This year the largest number of delegates the silver republicans were able to muster at their state convention was 116 and most of the time the number fell far below that figure. One sole congressional district was unrepresented, and of those present at the convention fully 25 per cent were from Lancaster county. Yet the party claims a legal status and by its certificate to the secretary of state asks for a place on the official ballot.

The state superintendent is quite sure that there is something wrong with the post-office department at Denver. Today he received from there a letter that had been written by State Superintendent George B. Lane on September 2, 1897, and which was addressed to "El Frio, Colo." The postmarks showed that the letter was mailed at the Lincoln office the same day it was written and that it was received by the Denver office on the following day. The postmark is dated August 9, 1898, when the Denver office returned the letter to the writer as "unclaimed." This shows that it was held in the Denver office for eight years, which is regarded as an unusually long time for a letter to await a claimant.

Question in Insurance Practice. The state insurance department is still working away at the eastern insurance companies to put a stop to the practice of writing "overhead" insurance. Where a large block of insurance is to be written some of the companies send men from the east to write the risk and the authorized agents in the state are deprived of the business and the profits therefrom. A notice has been sent to each of the offending companies calling for the stoppage of this "overhead" writing, but some of them disregard the notice. The insurance commissioner believes that the intent of the state law is that such an action on the part of the companies justifies the cancellation of their permits to do business in the state, but he hesitates to make such a case of the matter of any specific law covering the matter.

Hall county has brought suit against the Fidelity and Deposit company of Baltimore, calling for $21,845.11, being the amount due on the bond of William Thomassen, a former treasurer of the county, and the summons is sent to the state auditor with request that he serve notice on the bond company.

The Strable Generator company of Stanton has filed articles of incorporation, with a capital stock of $600. The stockholders are August Strable, August Puchs, Gustav Kratz and John Schneider.

State Superintendent Jackson started today on a trip to York, Nebraska and Fairbury, where he will take part in teachers' institutes.

Kate O'Connor of Topeka has telegraphed the governor asking for information regarding P. O'Connor, who enlisted in Company F, First regiment. She fears that he has been killed in the recent battle near Manila.

Epworth League Assembly. The session of Epworth assembly, which closed at Lincoln park last night, was a great success in every respect. The last lecture, "Our Black Regimentals," by Rev. J. W. S. Bowen of Atlanta, Ga., was as well attended and as enthusiastically received as was the first lecture by Rev. Robert McIntyre. But few campers left the grounds until after the services were over to get the full benefit of every day's program.

Yesterday forenoon the assembly business was held and the following officers elected for the coming year: President, L. O. Jones, Lincoln; vice president, C. E. Sanderson, Lincoln; corresponding secretary, E. E. Lesh, York; recording secretary, Miss Charlotte Meade, York; treasurer, Miss Iva M. Howard, Edgar; junior league superintendent, Mrs. G. W. Isham, Hastings; secretary, Christian Citizenship league, Rev. R. A. Barnes, Cedar Bluffs; secretary, missionary work, Miss Beatrice, University Place. The usual resolution of thanks to officers was passed, as was also one endorsing the action of Colonel Bliss in launching the whisky canteen from the Second Nebraska regiment, and praying that the colonels of the other two Nebraska regiments follow his example. The matter of selling tickets on Sunday next year was brought up and discussed at some length, but no action was taken, it being left for the management to decide.

Lincoln Local Notes. Rev. D. E. Smith was formally installed as pastor of the United Presbyterian church last night by Rev. F. P. Gilfen, moderator of the Fairview presbytery.

The Lincoln Gun club has entered into a five-year lease for the land it now occupies. The grounds will be moved to white clover and otherwise improved.

SHEEP IN COLORADO FORESTS

Government Forestry Inspectors Will Drive Out the Flocks.

NEW SYSTEM WILL SOON BE TRIED

Preservation of the Forests and Close Watch on the Sheep Herds—Camping Parties Will Be Warned About Fires.

DENVER, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—The appointment of Colonel W. T. S. May as city superintendent of forestry in this United States means a new deal in the matter of preserving forests in this part of the country. With a staff of 100 men, a system of forestry police will be in operation, with every reservation in this state and Utah closely guarded by the employees of Uncle Sam, who will permit no violation whatever of the act of February 24, 1897, in which provisions are made for the protection and preservation of the forest that has not already been damaged or wiped out by fire.

The sheep raising industry will be most affected by this new method of procedure. The grazing lands now made for the protection and preservation of the forest that has not already been damaged or wiped out by fire. The sheep raising industry will be most affected by this new method of procedure. The grazing lands now made for the protection and preservation of the forest that has not already been damaged or wiped out by fire.

Forests Must Be Saved. Realizing that the west has also suffered untold losses from forest fires during the past few years, and the urgent need for some remedy, the interior department has a plan by which further catastrophes and forest depredations will be prevented to a great extent. An order has been made to remove the dangers altogether.

Watch the Camping Parties. No campfires will be allowed close to inflammable material and with the new system the government will know almost every party in the state, its location, place of entering the forests and all other details likely to be of service.

Doings of Garment Workers. CINCINNATI, Aug. 11.—The United Garment Workers of America devoted the day to the consideration of the new constitution. All the amendments of the last ten years have recently been codified. Most of the discussion was on the provision which gives five of the members of the general assembly to the city where the headquarters are located. It was maintained that this vested the power practically in the hands of the members of the city. No change was made. Resolutions were offered for both decreasing and increasing the per capita dues. The tailors are less than those of the cutters. The proposition to extend jurisdiction of the union to those working on female clothing was defeated.

In a Hurry to Get Married. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 11.—A sensation in upper society circles of St. Louis was caused today by the elopement and marriage of Charles R. Drummond, youngest son of the late James T. Drummond, the millionaire tobacco manufacturer, and Miss Maud Ringgold, well known as an accomplished horsewoman and daughter of R. Ringgold, the wealthy stove and hardware man of this city. The couple left here on an early train for Alton, Ill., and were there married by Squire Quetton. The young people were engaged and the wedding day had been set for an early date in September. Preparations were being made for the double wedding, but the couple hastened the day by eloping. They returned home after the ceremony.

JEALOUSY AT THE BOTTOM OF THE AFFAIR

One of the Victims Was Playing the Role of Peacemaker When He Was Fataally Shot—All Old-Timers in the Hills.

DEADWOOD, S. D., Aug. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Three men lie dead and one woman is not expected to live, as a result of a shooting affair at 6:30 this morning at Central City, two miles northwest of Deadwood. Ed Shannon, Judge J. R. Giddings and Jack Wear were the victims. Ed Shannon is the woman. Shannon ran a boarding house at Terry, also a hotel at Central City. He stayed nights at Terry, leaving his wife alone in the hotel at Central City. Judge Giddings roomed at the hotel. Central current report is that there was undue intimacy between the judge and Mrs. Shannon. Shannon came down from Terry early this morning. Just what occurred in the hotel office is not known. Shannon and Judge Giddings rushed out of the hotel door at a death struggle. Shannon, having a revolver, killed Jack Wear, standing by, attempted to separate them, and was accidentally shot in the abdomen, and killed almost instantly. Shannon and Judge Giddings went back into the office, where Shannon succeeded in shooting the judge through the breast and cheek, killing him instantly. Shannon then went to his wife's bedroom, and finding her in bed, brutally beat her on the head and arms. She is still living. Shannon next went to the hotel office, and securing a fresh revolver, shot himself twice in the breast, when in thirty minutes all three men are dead and respected residents of the Hills. Judge Giddings has held important county offices and was county assessor. Mr. and Mrs. Shannon were pioneers of the country and have lived together peacefully. Jack Wear was a retired miner and well-to-do.

Organizing a New College. Preparing for the First Term of the College at Huron. HURON, S. D., Aug. 11.—(Special.)—The work of putting in complete order the Huron college building is progressing, and it will be completed in ample time for the opening of the school in September. September 20. Chairs in the various departments will be filled and the faculty completed in a short time. Five departments have been established, viz.: Collegiate, academic, normal, musical and commercial. The faculty so far as arranged, is Calvin H. French, M. A., president, professor of Greek and philosophy; William H. Blackburn, D. D., LL. D., president emeritus, moral science, economics and geology; L. J. Robinson, B. S., science and mathematics; Richard A. Vander Luse, B. A., biblical history and German; Mary C. Taggart, B. A., preceptor, English and German; Edwin Dukes, principal normal department, professor psychology and pedagogy. It is expected that Prof. Clarence Rexford, a recent graduate of Williams college, will have the chair of Greek. Prof. G. N. Lynch, until recently at the head of the commercial college at Oil City, Pa., will very likely have the chair of the commercial department, which will be made one of the best in the country. An offer has been tendered Prof. Martin Shoemaker, late of Parsons college, at Fairfield, Ia., to take charge of the musical department.

Assumed Murdered Man's Name. WATERTOWN, S. D., Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Henry Walker and P. E. Gallagher, charged with the murder of a man found in a car, had their heads and the evidence was sufficient to hold them for trial at the next term of court. Some of the evidence was very sensational, and clearly demonstrated that the murdered man's name was P. E. Gallagher, whose home is at Gibson, O., while one of the men under arrest gave his name as that of the murdered man. The alleged motive of murder was robbery, as a draft for $70 was paid by one of the banks in this city to the said P. E. Gallagher, which is believed to have been the property of the murdered man. This is a government prisoner, having been held to appear before the next federal grand jury to answer to the charge of selling liquor to the Crow Creek Sioux.

Half-Breed Recaptured. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Aug. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Harry Roue, a half-breed Sioux, belonging to Yankton agency, who escaped from jail here a week or ten days ago, has been recaptured and returned after suffering unusual privations. After making his escape he headed overland for the Yankton reservation. To elude his pursuers he was compelled to travel entirely at night and he hid in ravines and brush wood along the Missouri river in the daytime. He did not dare stop at ranch houses for food and was forced to subsist during the entire 100-mile journey solely on berries and Missouri river water. Roue is a government prisoner, having been held to appear before the next federal grand jury to answer to the charge of selling liquor to the Crow Creek Sioux.

New Telephone Company Organized. ABERDEEN, S. D., Aug. 11.—(Special.)—A new telephone company has been organized here under the name of the Central Dakota Telephone company. It will build and operate a telephone line from Brookings to Pierre, with side lines branching out to all towns of any importance on either side. When completed the new line will fill in the gap between the lines of the Dakota Central Telephone company on the north and the Western Electric company on the south. This will give Aberdeen telephone connections with Clear Lake, Yankton, Sioux Falls, Mitchell, Pierre, Brookings, Huron, Watertown, in fact, all the principal towns in South Dakota, Iowa and Minnesota. Work on the line will be pushed as rapidly as possible.
