One of the Loud Boasts of the Popocrats

Briefly Explained.

Changes in Management Brought About by This Paper Paraded as a Triumph for the Fusion Forces-Facts in the Case.

LINCOLN, Aug. 14 .- (Special.) - The popocratic state officials are taking great credit to themselves because of reforms in the management of the state penitentiary and the country press is teeming with syndicate letters on this theme, but none of the campaigners have the grace to tell exactly how these reforms were brought about. It is a matter of record that the first protest against the management of the penitentiary under the old regime was made by The Omaha Bee and that the first investigation was brought about by the efforts of this paper. And yet the popocratic legislatures of 1891 and 1893 offered no relief in this direction. It remained for the republican legislature of 1895 to pass a law taking the institution out of the hands of the contractors and placing it directly under state control. At the time this law was passed the present warden of the penitentiary was in office and it is a direct result of this law that the penitentiary has been placed upon a self-sustaining basis. The penitentiary bill was passed by the house on the 2d of April, 1895, and the emergency clause was attached thereto. This was done by republican votes. While no open opposition was offered by the popocratic members it is a matter of record that out of the twentyfour members of that persuasion in the house ten dodged their votes. In the light of these facts it is remarkable that the popocrats have the hardshood to claim all the credit for having "reformed the penitentiary. Reform that Missed Fire.

In the matter of business management little complaint can be made against the present warden of the penitentiary. He has performed his duties as directed by statutes. There is every reason to believe that had not Warden Ledigh been hampered by the popocratic penitentlary board he would have put the institution on a still better basis than it is now. It is well known that in the last eighteen months the warden and the board have clashed on this matter more than once. Ledigh made an investigation of the cooperage business and found that the Welsh Cooperage company was making an immense profit out of the convict labor. He looked up the cost of tools and machinery for the establishment of a cooperage plant to be owned by the state, and when the time for the Welsh contract expired he presented his plans before the board and asked to be allowed to operate the plant for the benefit of the state thereafter. He showed that the profits of the contractor were about $1,000 per menth and that the state could engage in the barrelmaking business without going into competition with free labor, this being the only cooperage in the state. The members of the board, however, were under political obligations to Welsh and his friends and declined to listen to the profitable scheme advanced by Ledigh. They renewed the labor and steam contract at a low figure.

Education as Well as Penitential. While Warden Ledigh has apparently done his duty so far as was possible under the circumstances he has also done all in his power during the last three years to turn the institution into a sort of school where free coinage theories be incubated. A vis- accept the nomination if it were tendered itor to the penitentiary is struck by the them. fact that in the offices the only pictures are those of popocratic statesmen. In the library, to which part of the prisoners have access, and which can be viewed by all the walls in a large one of W. J. Bryan. decorations or mottoes is a large inscription, "16 to 1." over the principal doorway. In no place is a picture of the chief executive of the nation displayed and there is no suggestion to the prisoners that they owe a duty to the existing government when they are again at liberty. The guide who takes the visitors around through the manufacturing plants gives a good explanatory talk about the work the men are perform ing, but reserves his best speech to the last to explain what reforms have been wrought under the present administration. "Do you see that grass plot and them flowers?" he will say. "Well, when w took hold of the pen there was a pile of scrap iron and old machinery there. We have cleaned it all up and made it look pleasant." And so the speech will run on. making comparisons between the old and new managements, until the visitor is finally ushered out through the front door, the guide essaying a last foke about "the stones that were plugged to size." It is said that Ledigh long ago became tired of the political schooling of visitors at the penitentiary, but that it is kept up under the orders of the "reform" state board.

> REPUBLICANS IN FIGHTING TRIM Party in the Big Sixth Going After Bill Greene in Earnest,

KEARNEY, Aug. 14.-(Special)-From present indications there will be only two congressional candidates in the field in "the big Sixth" this year; a republican and populist. The populists have renominated W. L. Greene to succeed himself, and from every ndication the republicans will nominate Norris Brown of Kearney on the first ballot. The populists are trying to whip the democrats into line to help out Mr. Greene, but as he is not very satisfetory with a good many democrats, the democratic vote will be considerably divided if they do not have a candidate of their own in the field. Norris Brown was elected county attorney twice in this couunty when the county went strong populist and is considered the ablest op ponent that could be put up against Mr. Greene in the entire district. This feeling not only exists among Mr. Brown's friends in this county, but seems to be the sentiment throughout the district. Two years ago Mr. Greene's majority over Cady, the republican nominee, was over 4,000 and fight on their hands to elect Mr. Brown or any other candidate, but the reports from various parts of the district are coming in more and more encouraging for republican success this fall, and what at first seemed like a forlorn hope appears now quite hopeful. Mr. Brown is well acquainted with Mr Greene and his tactics.

HASTINGS, Neb., Aug. 14.-Since the republican convention there has been a general interest manifested in politics in this vicinity and the campaign already begins to show signs of life. The republicans are all feeling jubilant over the state ticket put up at Lincoln last Wednesday. The opinions are almost unanimous in regard to the ticket being the strongest ever nominated in Nebraska and all are confident of suc

Considerable dissatisfaction exists in th democratic ranks in the Fifth district. This is caused by the demo-pop leaders giving it out that R. D. Sutherland must be renominated for congress at the district con vention, to be held at Holdrege Tuesday August 23

The Fifth district congressional situation has not changed much during the last month in regard to republican candidates for congress. C. E. Adams of Superior seems to be the popular candidate and his strength is growing daily. W. S. Moreland of Me-Cook, who, it is said, requested that his name be not brought before the convention. has considerable strength down the valley and his friends are urging him to enter the race. Another who seems to have a following is Black from Franklin county. Although he is not often spoken of in connection with the nomination, yet it is un derstood that he has a show and that he intends working for the nomination. If the republicans were to hold their district convention this week there is no doubt but Adams would capture the plum without working for it. There are some who think that a dark horse may turn up, but they are few and far between. The congres sional situation as it stands with the republicans in the Fifth district now is: Adams first, Moreland second, Black third. There are no candidates in Hastings, but at the popocratic ideas could be inculcated and same time there are several who would CULBERTSON, Neb., Aug. 14.-(Special. The populist senatorial convention for th Twenty-ninth district met in this city yesterday. R. Conway was chairman and G the others when they march through to D. Chaddudon secretary. L. M. Graham of attend chapel, the only picture that adorns Frontier county was nominated for state senator on the first ballot. Chase and In the factory rooms the only attempt at Hayes counties were not represented in the convention. Considerable wrangling was indulged in by the parliamentarians present as to the mode of conducting the business to be done. The candidate is pledged to vote for W. V. Allen for United States senator, also is in favor of the 16 to 1 fallacy No mention was made of the war question, "imperialism" or any of the present day issues. An ex-preacher present addressed the convention and said republicans voted that ticket simply to get their hands into the public treasury, it being populist policy to yell "Stop thief" and point away from themselves to avoid suspicion.

> THOMAS JENSEN MURDER CASE 'oroner's Jury Called to Make Thorough Investigation.

STOCKVILLE, Neb., Aug. 14 .- (Special) Late developments in the Thomas Jensen murder case show that the coroner sun moned as a fury A. H. Gregory, L. H. Wymore, James Gammill, John Dunn, William Stevens and Eugene Vernan. Jesse Correll Emory Conklin and Andrew Hawkins and his wife and son are being held as witnesses. "Old Man Jensen," as he was familiarly nown, was very eccentric and though quite vealthy was very miserly, going about the country on foot to collect his rents and increat to save livery hire. He was afraid to leposit his money in banks when he could avoid it and usually carried a large amount of cash about his person. At the time of his death he is said, by those who know some thing of his business affairs, to have had from $1,000 to $3,000 in each in the grip which is missing and about $25,000 worth of otes, mortgages and other securities. The silver watch which he usually were was not ound on the body. Mr. Jensen was a widwer, having one son, mentioned before, and wo orphaned grandchildren in New York. A number of citizens, both at this place nd Indianola, are confident that they have net the old gentleman since December 13, some claiming that he has been in town as late as March. Republican County Convention. NORTON, Kan., Aug. 14 .- (Special.) -The publican county central committee met sere on Thursday and called a county convention for September 10. Republicans expect to carry the county this fall; in fact, epublican sentiment is growing all over northwest Kansas and the election of Reeder, republican, to congress seems certain. Our corn crop is flattering at the present writing. With good crops and good prices the populists are robbed of their most potent thunder. They are hopelessly divided on the issues growing out of the present war and many are reluctant to defend the late legislature and administration of Governor Leedy.

Electrical Storm. TRENTON, Neb., Aug. 14 .- (Special.)ne of the most severe electrical storms ever known in this county passed over here last night. The heavens were one continual flame of fire. TROOPS NEARLY ALL GONE of Shafter's Soldiers Have Alrendy Sailed for the North. Copyright, 1898, by Press Publishing Co.) SANTIAGO, Aug. 14.-(New York World Cablegram-Special Telegram.)-Less than 1,000 troops of Shafter's original corps now remain in the province. By the middle of the week only immunes and the Ninth and Tenth cavalry will be here. The second immune regiment arrived yesterday. General Shafter will probably leave Monday or Tuesday and will go direct to Montauk Point. The news of the president's peace the republicans realize they have a hard proclamation was received with satisfaction by the officers and Americans, Spanish and General Shafter said that peace was the logical result of the taking of Santiago by the Americans. low and Cantain McKittrick, the last named being General Shafter's son-in-law and confidential aide and secretary, arrived at New Orleans last Tuesday on the transport Berlin. The officers say that before the end of the present week the whole of General Shafter's army will have left Cuba The troops are being embarked as rapidly as transports can be secured for them. In the opinion of Major Goodfellow, who is a physician of Los Angeles, Cal., the removal of the enemy from Cuba was absolutely necessary. He says the men could not have recuperated in that climate during the rainy season. In explanation of General Shafter's dispatch in which the statement was made that 75 per cent of the army was incapacitated, Major Goodfellow said while 75 per cent of the men were not ill they were absolutely unable to perform military service. The strain of the Santiago campaign was terrific and when it was over the whole army collapsed. In his opinion i would require several weeks in a good climate and with good, nourishing food, to put the treops again in fettle.

Licutenant Commander Mosier, ecting captain of the Bennington, has received orders to relieve Lieutenant Commander Curtis of the Albatross, which sailed from here on Friday for San Jose de Guatemala.

FRESNO'S MIDNIGHT BLAZE Large Area in Packing House Distriet Burned with Losses Aggregating $450,000,

FRESNO, Cala Aug. 14.- The conflagration that devastated a large area in the packing house district in Fresno at midnight was not gotten under control until break of day this morning. The aggregate loss is now variously estimated from a conservative standpoint at from $300,000 to $450,000. The buildings, together with the entire contents, destroyed were:

The Forsyth Seeded Raisin Paci pany, the Phoenix packing house, the Unio ice works (partly destroyed), the National Ice company's establishment, the Farmers' warehouse, the Einstein warehouse, Hoobs & Parsons (partly destroyed), residence of John Doyle, yardmaster. In addition to the buildings enumerated the Southern Pacific's loss will be considerable. Several strings of freight cars standing along the sides of the packing houses and the warehouses were a mass of flames before the force of railroad men could haul them away. The freight depot of the Southern Pacific was on fire several times, but a large force of railroad men were stationed there and managed to Garten, Laub & Pratt of the Phoenix Packing and Raisin Seeding company stated that their loss would be $70, 000, approximately. This plant was partly covered by insurance and the stock alone was valued at $30,000. Forsyth's loss is placed at $125,000, insured for $90,000. M. W. Miller of the Farmers' warehouse estimates his loss at $25,000. The grain was all insured. The loss of the Einstein warehouse will foot up to about $25,000. It is impossible to estimate the loss to the ice companies, but it will be very heavy. The loss of Hobbs & Parsons will be between $3,000 and $5,000. They succeeded in saving a part of their warehouse The Southern Pacific's loss will be large or thirty cars were burned, some of them being loaded with grain and raisins. and the track was burned in a number were also reduced to ashes.

The loss of the packing houses of the district is a severe blow to Fresno. It will be the means of throwing hundreds of needy men and women out of employment at the only time when they usually find this class of work in abundance.

With him were two first paymasters of the With him were two first paymasters of the Japanese navy, Takeuchi Jujaro, who will go with the admiral to London, and Shimizu Nsuke, who goes to San Francisco to join the Japanese cruiser now building there.

Admiral Oki was greatly surprised that cace was to be made and was very much interested in the terms. When told that the disposition of the Philippines was to be left to a commission, he expressed much sur prise that the United States had not demanded the islands as Porto Rico was demanded. He declined, however, to say anything as to his or, his country's opinion or the question. He said: "Japan has learned many things from the war America has been waging against Spain. The American admiral's fight at Manila has taught us that a fine ironclad and heavy guns alone would not win a battle. We will pay more attention than ever to target practice, and with that the Japanese will be come a powerful naval nation. "We will have a fine navy if the presen policy continues. In this country several are about ready to go into commission and in England we will build three large vessels. I am going to London and will be gone three years. During that time I will superintend the construction of the vessels that are to be built there and at the same time study the navies of the world. "It will not be long until Japan will able to build her own warships."
