over, that a peace armistice and cessation of hostilities, does not become binding upon commanding officers until they receive actual notice of it. This rule is expressed in the United States regulations governing armies in the field, as follows:

Article 139. An armistice is binding upon the belligerents from the day of the agreed but the officers of the arm; are responsible from the day only when they receive official notice of its existence

Under this rule Admiral Dewey and General Merritt would be bound by the armistice only from the time the notice of it reached them at Manila. This could not have occurred on Friday prior to the bombardment, as the cable was not working and no dispatch boat could have gotten through with the notice before Monday or Tuesday In short it is agreed in all official quarters that the forcible taking of Manila was entirely regular and that the city and bay is now held on the basis of this military enforced taking rather than on the basis of the mutual arrangement between the two governments. This may become material when the question arises as to the future of the Philippines, for it is likely to proceed from the American standpoint that Manila was taken by force of arms and is so occu-

Surrender to Americans. (Copyright, 1898, by Associated Press.) SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Aug. 17.-This morning Major Miley, with a party consisting of Captain E. Ferrer of General Lawton's staff, Major Luis Toolis, chief of staff of the Spanish General Toral, and General J. N. Hubbel of the Red Cross society, re turned from Baracoa and Sagua de Tanamo. on the north coast of the province of Santiago de Cuba, whither they went last Friday to receive the final surrender of the Spanish forces at those points.

At Baracoa, 625 Spanish soldiers and officers surrendered with 1,200 rifles and 200,-000 cartridges, and at Sagua de Tanamo 872 soldiers and 208,000 rounds of ammuni

Major Miley carried thirty tons of rations for the Spanish troops and Dr. Hubbell took sixty tons on behalf of the Red Cross society, all of which had been divided between Baracoa and Sagua de Tanamo Major Miley found little sickness at either place and no yellow fever; but the Spanlards were in ignorance as to the end of the war. They had not heard of Admiral Cervera's defeat. On the contrary they had been told that the American transports which they had seen off the coast were Spanish ships bringing reinforcements and they were amazed to hear the news of the American victory, the capitulation of Santiago and the signing of the protocol. But without exception they expressed the greatest delight at the prospect of returning to

FORTY-FOUR THOUSAND SOLDIERS IN LINE

Requires Five Hours for the Line to Pass the Reviewing Stand-Fully Sixty Thousand People See Turnout.

CHICKAMAUGA PARK, Aug. 17.-Rarely in the history of a great nation whose whose tendencies are toward peace rather than war there is an opportunity for such a display of military splendor as that witnessed at Camp Thomas today. The occasion was that of the review of cluding cavalry, artillery and infantry, togreat an event. The throng of spectators out to the camp. variously estimated at from 30,000 to 60,000, lined the crest of Snodgrass hill from one end to the other of the far-reaching Dyer and waited, anticipating the pageantry that was approaching. The wonder of all minds that had given the matter any thought from been on a visit to the Third Nebraska regia military standpoint was that such a well rained and desciplined army could have been made from raw men within three months' time. Experienced military men thought it wenderful, and yet marvelled not at the possibilities of American young man hood. The formation was affected by divislous, each brigade and each regiment keeping its assigned place in the division.

Officials on Reviewing Stand. All of the commands formed in line of egiments, in column of masses. The first formation of the infantry was to the west of the Lafayette road, the right resting on the Mullins road. Brigadier General Frank's division, the First of the Third corps, formed to the left of the Mullins road, after which General Frank assumed command of the army for the review. The Second division, Third corps, commanded by Brigadier General Compton, formed on the left of General Frank's division. The Third division, First corps, commanded by Brigadier General Sanger, formed on the left of the Third corps. The Second division, First corps, commanded by General McKee, formed on the left of General Sanger's division. To the left of this division was the signal corps.

On the reviewing stand with General Breckenridge were his brother, General W. P. Breckinridge of Kentucky, Governor Atkinson of Georgia, Major Wester, military representative of Sweden, and Captain Abigaard, representing the Norwegian government.

The following organizations participated in the review: First Illinois cavalry, Third United States volunteers, cavalry; four Ohio batteries, A and B. Georgia batteries, Twenty-eighth Indiana, cavalry. Infantry: Third Tennessee, Eighth New

HAS A GOOD OPINION OF CUBANS

General Wheeler Anticipates No Trouble in Dealing with Them. WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.-General Joseph Wheeler had a three-quarters of an hour conference with the president today. The president wanted to talk over the conditions in Cuba with General Wheeler and this was the object of a telegraphic summons that brought the general here.

The president put numerous questions to him and received not only an account of his general experience in that campaign, but also his views on various issues incident to the adjustment of affairs on the island. One of the points that was uppermost was the possibility of a rupture with the Cuban insurgents. General Wheeler's statements were very reassuring.

"All the friction," he said, "between the Americans and Cubans will soon pass away and there will be harmony and the best of feeling among them." He said there was class of men in Cuba who had never been friendly to the Cubans, but on the contrary had been favorable to Spain, who likely would do all they could to keep up this misunderstanding, though he did not apprehend any dangerous results. General Wheeler suggested that the charges against the insurgents of taking articles in the field had extenuating circumstances, especially in view of the starving condition of many of them. General Wheeler believed the Cubans in time, when freed from oppression and given a stable and humane government, would become a law-abiding and useful people. The president is very solicitous about the health of the Montauk camp and gave explicit instructions verbally to General Wheeler as to the conduct of the camp. He wanted everything possible and reasonable done for the interests of the men at the

the situation of the island. Their meetings have given rise to a renewal of reports that the island republic administration is chaffing under the present system of control. President McKinley and the members of this administration have paid no attention to these reports and a member of the cabinet asserts that there was no expectation of any official profest against the system of administration put in force pending the establishment of a "stable" government in Cuba. "No representations for the Cubans on this subject," he said, "have been made to this government, nor is anything of the sort looked for. WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 .- General Wade, president of the Cuban military commission, has been in consultation with Secretary Alger and Adjutant General Corbin regarding his new assignment. It will be some time before instructions will be prepared for the Cuban and Porto Rican commissions, but they are subject for discussion by the administration. The instructions will cover all the main points, but many of the details will be left for the commission. There is some anxiety among the staff officers and aides of the officers whether they will be sent along. It is known that the president does not desire arge staffs to accompany these officers, or anything like a show of force accompanying the committee. Bowling Tournament Unfinished. The bowling tournament, which is a feature of the annual convention of the Society of American Florists, was commenced on the alleys at Krug park and is still in progress. It began promptly at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and at midnight last night it was still unfinished. It developed into a hard contest, in which two or thre teams were possible winners. The trophy for which the teams are competing is the Evans cup, an elaborate bowl a couple of feet tall and made of silver. The bowl proper consists of a hollow silver ball. supported upon three pins. It was offered for competition by J. R. Evans of Richmond, Ind. Its value is $500. The teams that are competing for it represent Chicago, Philadelphia, Buffalo, St. Louis, Cleveland, New York and Omaha. Philadelphia has held the cup for two years, but is likely to lose it as result of the present tourney. The play in the tournament was witnessed by a couple of hundred spectators yesterday afternoon and evening. They, as well as the players, were royally treated at the park. H. Schrank, the manager, provided everything possible in the way of refreshments and saw to it that every one was properly looked after. Jacob Hess was the local man who looked after the comfort of the delegates and visitors and gave his personal attention to their wants. A pleasing feature of the day was a visit by the wives and women friends of the players and delegates to the convention late in the afternoon. The women had been taken about the city during the afternoon in carriages, visiting Riverview and Hanseom parks and the best residence portions of the city. After this trip they made for Krug park, where they arrived about 5:30 o'clock some fifty in number. Play was discontinued while a luncheon was served in honor of

SCOFIELD FOR GOVERNOR

Contest for Republican Gubernatorial Nomination in Wisconsin a Lively One.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 17.-Governor Scofield was renominated by the republican state convention in this city tonight. It required but one ballot to settle one of the hottest political fights ever waged in this state. Governor Scofield received 6201/2 votes, against 4361/2 for his opponent, Robert M. LaFollete, with 533 votes necessary to a choice.

The platform adopted endorses the course of the national administration and reaffirms the St. Louis declaration of principles. No mention is made of the annexation question. Two reports were presented at the evening session by the resolutions committee. The minority report by the La-Follete supporters failed to endorse the state administration, and it falled of adoption on the first ballot. This test showed the voting power of the Scofield delegates and they immediately forced the nominations for governor, after adopting the majority report of the resolutions committee.

Texas Republicans' Proceedings. FORT WORTH, Tex., Aug. 17.-The state epublican convention convened tonight amid the wildest scenes and adopted the report of the credentials committee, which had been in session since midnight.

Since yesterday the probability of putting out a state ticket is growing and Hon. F. H. McGregor of Houston is mentioned to head the ticket if one is decided upon The attempt of the populists to secure the endorsement of the republicans of Barnett Gibbs, the populist nominee for governor, has virtually been agreed upon. The movement has been on the decline since yesterday and it is safe to conjecture no endorsement will be made. Tonight's session was consumed in the appointment of committees on organization, resolutions and platform and a lengthy speech by Congressman R. B. Hawley.

Democrats Compliment McKinley. SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 17.-When the emocratic state convention was called to order by Governor Budd today, a resolution was adopted by a rising vote and amid cheers, instructing the chairman of the convention to transmit a telegram to President McKinley, congratulating him on the successful conclusion of the war.

He had been at the poor farm three weeks. It is said his wife drove him from his home in Loup county.

Lively Time with an Alligator. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 17.—The train crew of an Iron Mountain train which arrived today from Memphis, Tenn., had an exciting bat-tle with a four-foot alligator during the journey. The alligator had been enclosed in a box addressed to Salt Lake City. It managed to break out, and Conductor William Egan discovered it crawling about the car. It took five men to capture the reptile, and not until the battle etxended into the mail car adjoining and Conductor Egan's clothes were badly torn by the alligator's teeth was this accomplished. By the time the train had reached St. Louis the alligator had been reboxed and later was started for Utah

Launch and Several People Are Thrown Into the Water.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17 .- A sad accident occurred on the bay this morning. A government transport steamer Scandia was having a trial on the bay with a number of invited guests on board, including Mrs. Charles Paxton, Mrs. Cone of Red Bluff, Miss Peters of Red Bluff and Nat Messer, besides Captain Hart of the Scandia, an engineer and his assistant and two sailors. The government steamer General McDowell came up from behind and in some manner yet to be explained crashed into the launch, throwing three occupants save the drowning people, all but Mrs. Paxton being rescued. Mrs. Paxton is the wife of a local stock broker.

DEATH RECORD.

Russian Conqueror. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 17.-General Tschersnaieff, the conqueror of Tashkend, died suddenly today.

Michael Gregorovitch Tschernaleff entered the Russian military service in 1847, distinguished himself greatly in the Crimean war and attained the rank of general of infantry. He was placed in command of an expeditionary service consisting of 1,000 men, with instructions to march to Orenburg, through the passes of the mountains bounding Siberia on the south and across the steppes of Turkestan and to effect a function with another attachment under Colonel Veryekin, which had set out from Emipalatinsk, in Siberia. The junction occurred in the vicinity of the town of Tschemkend, then occupied by the Kheanians. This town Tschernaieff took by assault and immediately afterward unsuccessfully attacked (October, 1864) the important city of Tashkend, about eighty miles south of Tschemkend, and also in possession of Khoahnians. Having wintered at Tschemkend, he renewed successfully the attempt on Tashkend (June 27, 1865). It is said that he had received specific instructions to content himself with the position obtained and refrain from any further efforts to extend the Russian domination further southward. Tschernaieff disobeyed his orders, took Tashkend and was afterward welcomed enthusiastically at St. Petersburg and received a saber of honor from the emperor in recognition of his military
