WALLS OF TUNNEL CAVE IN

Party of Workmen Buried by the Sudden Collapse of Earth. EIGHT KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN KILLED.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 23.—Eight men were killed, possibly ten, and five more injured, two fatally, at the Carnegie tunnel, on the Chartiers division of the Panhandle railway, last night. The accident was due to the wall of the tunnel caving in on a number of workmen.

Several Italian laborers were slightly hurt, but their names are not known. Five men were injured. One of these, a negro, name unknown, was taken to the West Pennsylvania hospital in a dying condition. One of the others is also expected to die.

There is a probability that before the end of another week the personnel of the Indian congress will be nearly doubled, as the reports received indicate that many additional Indians are about ready to start for the expedition.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—Adjutant General Corbin has issued an order governing the mustering out of volunteers. It goes into the duties of officers in detail.

Although the Canadian exhibit miles from Omaha, the specimens of the buried mud do not propose to be studied by the states in making the attractive displays at the exposition.

Officers who have not at any time been responsible for public property will be required to furnish organizations with needful supplies until the payment of their discharge. All persons borne on the muster-in and on all other muster rolls and all who have joined or belonged to the organization at any time since its muster-in roll, which is held to be a complete record of all the officers and men who ever belonged to the organization.

At the noon concert on the Grand Plaza today the McCook band will play the following program: March—The Great Captain... Scouting Overture—Foot and Peasant... Supper Fantasy—My Old Kentucky Home... Dainty March—The Old Kentucky Home... Grand Fantasia on Southern Airs... Chatterbox... The War of the Roses... Chatterbox... Waltz—Danube Waves... Ivanoff... Descriptive—Recollections of the War... As soon as the muster-out rolls have been fully and satisfactorily completed, the mustering officer at the place of departure will fill in the date of the muster-out as of a date ten days later, the probable time necessary required to transport the organization to its state rendezvous, the making of the physical examination of officers and men, etc. As soon after the arrival of the organization at its state rendezvous as possible the physical examination of all officers and men, as made by their muster-out and payment, so as to facilitate the settlement of pension claims that may be made on account of disability incurred in the United States service and to protect the rights of persons who may be entitled to the benefits of the pension laws, as well as to guard the interests of the government.

MORE JUBILEE PLANS

castle, the palace gardens and other Cuban views were shown in rapid succession and then the Maine was seen idly swinging at anchor in the harbor. Then a view of the crew of the vessel was thrown on the canvas.

The most important feature of today's program was the big parade, participated in by all the uniform rank and subordinate lodges. Careful estimates place the number of men in line at 18,000, of which 10,000 were members of the uniform rank, led by Major General Carnahan. Governor Mount rode a horse in the parade.

The weather was intensely hot and several hundred, all told, were forced at different times to leave the parade. The great body of men began to move from Camp Colgrove at 2:30, reaching the reviewing stand at the corner of Broadway and Washington street at 3:50. It required two hours for the parade, about twenty men absent to pass a given point.

At the court house the Pythian army was reviewed by Supreme Chancellor Colgrove. Next to the parade, the most important feature of the business session of the supreme lodge in the hour of representatives at 9 o'clock. Welcoming addresses were made by Governor Mount and Mayor Taggart and Supreme Chancellor Colgrove also spoke on behalf of the lodge.

In the executive session, Supreme Keeper B. Records and Seal E. T. White asked for a hearing on the grounds of personal privilege. He said that the officers of the supreme lodge had been attacked and charges made against them which should be investigated. If these charges were true, then the men holding office were not fit for the positions. If the charges were not true, then the man or men who had made them were not fit to be Pythians or members of the supreme lodge.

The following committee was appointed to investigate and pending a report no officers will be elected: Representative Gale of Massachusetts, Bangs of Idaho and Richardson of Virginia. During the business session the reports of the officers were distributed. The Knights of Khorassen held no session today on account of the parade. The supreme tribunal began its sessions and will continue throughout the week. No cases of importance were considered today.

The Rathbone Sisters held their first business session today with a full attendance and the reports of officers were received. This evening a reception was given at Hotel English by Supreme Chief Ida M. Virginia. During the day there was competitive exhibition of ritualistic work. The Pythian Sisterhood will not get down to work until tomorrow. The prize trials will begin tomorrow at Newby oval, near

WELCOME TO THE PYTHIANS

Indianapolis Gives a Cordial Greeting to the Great Gathering. THIRTEEN THOUSAND IN THE PARADE.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 23.—The biennial encampment of the Knight of Pythias in point of attendance is successful beyond expectations. The executive committee on last Friday estimated the attendance at 40,000, but today careful estimates secured from railroad officials show that since Saturday 75,000 people have been brought to the city. The attendance exceeds that at the Great Army of the Republic encampment held here several years ago.

There are not so many members of the uniform rank as were expected, but the members of the subordinate lodges are here in greater numbers than at any meeting before. Officers at the union station have commented on the fact that there are about four women and children to one man.
