FUSION HAS ITS OPPONENTS

Hard Working Free Silver Democrats Object to Taking Up with Populists.

NICE LITTLE POPOCRATIC SCHISM OPENS

Machine Thinks It Has Things All Nicely Fixed, but Below the Surface There is a Hot Fight Raging.

There are evident signs that however harmonious it may appear on the surface, there is considerable latent disaffection among the rank and file of the democratic party in Council Bluffs. This disaffection, it is said, will manifest itself at the county convention of the party to be held in this city some time next month. In the first place, it is said that there are a large number of free silver democrats in this city who are not at all pleased with the action of the congressional convention in fusing with the populists. This wing of the local democracy threatens that, if the county convention assumes the same tactics and attempts to fuse on the nominations for the county offices, there will be trouble right there and then and lots of it. The democratic party, the opponents of fusion say, is quite able to take care of itself without having to travel hand in hand with the populists. This wing is determined, at least so far as it is concerned, that none but avowed die-in-the-ditch free silverites shall be nominated for any of the county offices this fall.
