the game with Atchison next Saturday. With his assistance Buckerino expects to cop the opening game of the series without a particle of difficulty, inasmuch as his pets are in excellent shape and fit to play for their lives. Waller and Bowman have been playing steadily and are in especial good shape. They will hold down infield positions in the games.

The Atchison aggregation is a very strong one. It includes in its batting list a number of crackajacks. Archie Cole and Harry licwe are probably the best known of the bunch to Omaha fans. The team is determined to win and as the Originals are as determined to wipe out the defeats they sustained down at Kansas the two games on Saturday and Sunday will in all likelihood be hot contests. It was demonstrated that a political meeting could not compete with the kind of attractions Omaha presented to the public last night when the Laboring Men's Republican club came to order in Patterson hall to listen to a speech from E. J. Cornish. As it was, however, there were about fifty members gathered, and Mr. Cornish heard with profit by all the workingmen of the city. Mr. Cornish did not confine himself to the whole question of the relations of labor to the general welfare of the nation and pointed out the beneficent effects of keeping up the wage scales. Organized labor came in for considerable praise in legal steps would then be taken. his handling of the subject, and in connection with the point made by the speaker of the necessity for keeping up the present high standard of American citizenship he made a strong argument against imperialthe equals of the American workingman. The great danger confronting the country now, he said, was the menace presented scope so as to mix the dense ignorance of progressive Anglo-Saxon. It was not blood, he explained, which has made this country

FAMILY

Descendants of an Early Ohio Family Meet Here to Take in the Exposition.

Among the notable arrivals at the hotels pesterday was a party of fifty-five, men, women and children, all relatives and all descended from early settlers in Ohio bearing the name of Howard. This week has been set apart by them for a family reunion. No special program has been arranged for the week, but the family will lose no time in seeing the sights and becoming acquainted with Omaha and the exposition. In the very beginning of the family's his tory, as far back as their chronology has been accurately kept, their ancestors were English. The Howards do not claim that their forefathers came over to the colonies on board the Mayflower, but they did arrive shortly after this historical voyage of the Pilgrim Fathers and took up their abode in South Carolina. In 1799 the Howards changed their home to Ohio, from whence sprung the present stock, now of the third generation. Among those registered at the hotel are several doctors, one minister, a lieutenant in the volunteer army and business men and lawyers in abundance. "Aunt" Viley Gregg of Emporia, Kan., is the oldest living descendant of the race, being now in her 91st year. She is strong, hale and hearty and shows the robust stock from which the Howards took their start. "Aunt" Viley chatted quite pleasantly of her trip here and seems able to enjoy and take care of herself with the rest of them. Following is the personnel of the party

Congressman David H. Mercer and 199 other candidates appeared before the throne of King Ak-Sar-Ben IV and sought admission to his court. It was granted, but not without ordeals that tested the courage of the candidates to the extreme limit. The occasion was beyond all doubt the greatest event that has been recorded in Ak-Sar-Ben annals this season. About 150 visiting dentists were the guests of honor and the remainder of the candidates were citizens of Omaha and immediate vicinity desirous of aiding the king in the preparation of the splendid pageants and other feativities he is planning for the first week in October. The initiatory ceremonies were most successfully conducted. Hosts and guests enjoyed themselves to their hearts' content for over two hours. Rollicking fun came fast and at times it was almost furious. The dentists were given an opportunity to learn what a long suffering public has endured at their hands. In return for the

The woman who has neither strength nor spirits-who Is unable to attend to her ordinary household duties-is to be pitied. Some unthinking folks will say she is lazy; that she is a poor housewife, and does not keep her rooms in a tidy condition. How can a sick woman be expected to keep her house as "neat as wax"? The wonder is that she can do anything. If men were afflicted with any troubles that dragged them down like "female troubles" drag women down, they wouldn't accomplish very much either. Wine of Cardui is the best medicine for the diseases and weaknesses of women. It cures where
