MUTINY AMONG THE GIANTS

Junet Meekin and Cy Seymour Refuse to Obey Manager Joyce's Orders.

INSUBORDINATION AMONG THE PITCHERS

Rusie's Sudden Illness Results in a Situation Which Doherty Voluntarily Relieves, Although the Game is Lost by the Move.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 2.—New York dropped another game to Pittsburgh, principally because of what looked like mutiny. Rusie pitched one inning, but was too sick to continue. Meekin for some reason would not take his place and Joyce went out to Seymour in the right field and tried to get him to go to the box. Cy also refused and while the argument was going on Doherty volunteered. Although he pitched yesterday and went without warming up he did good work, but was given miserable support. Attendance 1,200. Score:

Table with 2 columns: Pittsburgh (P) and New York (N). Rows show runs, hits, errors, and pitchers.

BOSTON, Sept. 2.—A very close decision at the home plate against Cleveland in the ninth saved the Champions from a third defeat. The game was dull up to the sixth, when the sides changed pitchers, and the balance of the contest was exciting. Both Young and Nichols used great judgment. Attendance, 2,600. Score:

Table with 2 columns: Boston (B) and Cleveland (C). Rows show runs, hits, errors, and pitchers.

Table with 2 columns: Indianapolis (I) and Columbus (C). Rows show runs, hits, errors, and pitchers.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 2.—Barnes lashed one inning today, the locals taking to his delivery as they have done since he came to the city. But for Buelow's errors the Brewers would have been shut out, two of their hits being batted through. Score:

Table with 2 columns: Detroit (D) and St. Paul (S). Rows show runs, hits, errors, and pitchers.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 2.—St. Paul and St. Joseph broken even on a double-header today. Both teams batted hard and held poorly. Score, first game:
