

CHILI AND THE UNITED STATES

Relations of the Two Countries as Viewed by the President of the Former.

NOTABLE TALK WITH PRESIDENT ERRAZURIZ

The Monroe Doctrine, Nicaragua Canal and Intercontinental Railroad Discussed by the Head of a Progressive Republic.

(Copyright, 1898, by Frank G. Carpenter.) Santiago, Chile, Aug. 2, 1898.—(Special Correspondence of The Bee.)—It was by appointment that I called upon the president of Chile yesterday afternoon to have a chat with him concerning matters of mutual interest to our respective countries.

The president is one of the progressive people. He is a very rich man and his personal interests in the advancement of Chile are great. He is now in the second year of his presidential term, and he has three years more to serve. His father having been one of the most popular presidents of the past.

continental railway. I think the advantages of this proposed international line will be of great importance to all interests.

Railroad Over the Andes.

After this the interview continues as follows: Correspondent—How about the Transandean railway which is to connect the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, running from Valparaiso to Buenos Ayres? I understand that Chile will complete it?

The President—The Transandean railway is a work which has been carefully studied in Chile and it has been steadily protected. As you know, less than fifty miles of road are yet needed to complete it and part of this is on Chilean and part on Argentine soil.

At present, on account of the extraordinary demands of the companies desiring to finish the work, the road is being more carefully considered. There are some difficulties in the way of its extension along the lines proposed, but it will be without doubt continued as soon as these difficulties are removed.

Correspondent—How about the railways that Chile is building in the south? I understand they will open up much new country which will be available to immigrants.

The President—The southern railways are destined to be of great advantage to Chile. They will give access to the richest agricultural regions of the country. They will give a great impulse to the establishment of agricultural colonies and will stimulate immigration.

Correspondent—Will the pending questions between Chile and the Argentine be amicably adjusted or is there likely to be a conflict of arms?

The President—I am confident that the matters now pending between the Argentine and Chile will be peacefully arranged and I believe that both governments are anxious that they should be. This closes the interview.

How Chile is Governed. Chile is a republic, but there are a number of differences between its constitution and that of the United States.

The Chilean Congress. Chiliana cannot vote until they are 25 years of age if they are unmarried, but married men can vote at the age of 21.

Exposition Souvenir Postal Cards, Without Any Address, Are Accumulating Rapidly at the Branch Post-Office on the Grounds.

An exhibit possessing as much dramatic interest as any in the Government building is the collection of photographs sent by soldiers of the civil war to friends at home, and which by reason of incomplete address never reached their destination.

Although the collection has been exhibited at all the recent expositions, identifications of the pictures have been of rare occurrence, and the department has given up hope of locating the greater part of those remaining.
