Pirates and Birds Divide.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 3.—Pittsburg blanked Baltimore by excellent work in the first game, but lost the second because Hastings had poor control and Schriver was so slow that nine bases were stolen, four of them in the fifth inning. The run in the first game was made by O'Brien's three-bagger, followed by McCarthy's single. Attendance, 4,200. Score, first game:

"Ducky" Holmes Again in Trouble.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 3.—"Ducky" Holmes, the Baltimore left fielder who has just been reinstated by the league after his trouble with Freedman of the New York club, is again in trouble. President Pulliam of the Louisville club threatens to have Holmes before the league board of discipline to answer to the charge of having applied a vile epithet to Major Hughes, chief of the Louisville fire department, during the last game of the Baltimore series. Affidavits supporting the charge have been filed.

ORIGINALS LOSE THE FIRST ONE.

Atchison Proves Too Foxy for Buck Keith's Little Boys.

For the first time this season on the home grounds Buckerino Keith and his Originals were skinned yesterday afternoon. This was accomplished by the Atchison team by a score of 7 to 2 and they did it simply for the reason that they outplayed Buck's pets all around.

It was a nice sort of a game, however, particularly on the part of the Kansans. The Atchison lads went after the local aggregation as if they knew every point of Yankee Doodle's game from alpha to omega. Although they made a few mechanical errors, they played base ball all the time. They had a bunch of tricks up their sleeves that the Originals were not on to and this enabled them to pull out of bad holes so often that it appeared very likely that the locals would be shut out.

The Originals, too, put up a nice mechanical game, but errors of judgment marred their work. Hendy Clarke twirled and probably a third of the hits accredited against him would not be there if there was a column in which dumb plays could be recorded. He was on hand with a single that scored the first run the Originals made and the other tally was batted in by Waller with the longest hit of the game—a beaut of a three-bagger. The fielding honors were carried off by Lawler and Waller. Score:

TROTTERS KEEP SPORTS GUESSING.

Close of Readville Meeting with Exciting Contests.

READVILLE, Mass., Sept. 3.—The grand circuit meet closed tonight with two full races, five heats in a race that came over from yesterday and three heats in a race that was declared finished on account of darkness. With the exception of the 2:15 trot, which Aloes won with ease, and the race that was called, extra heats were necessary to decide the winners, while it took seven heats in the unfinished trot.

This latter race kept every one guessing for nearly half the afternoon. Jasper Ayres, after winning two heats yesterday in easy style, slipped up in the first heat today and Cut Chase came in a winner. In the next one Ayres went further behind and Georgiana led the field under the wire. Much Ado took the fifth heat and after winning the next one was looked upon as the probable winner of the race, but in the deciding heat he acted badly and Jasper Ayres, although breaking almost at the finish, recovered himself and took the necessary third heat and the race.

Courier Journal was the favorite in the 2:08 pace, but Giles Noyes proved too fast for the black stallion, although losing the second and third heats through breaks. Courier Journal almost nailed Noyes at the wire in the fourth heat and lost the fifth heat and race by a short neck.

The 2:15 trot was won in straight heats by Aloes, Serpol alone coming anywhere near the son of Allerton. Indiana took two heats in the 2:11 pace in easy style, but made a bad break in the third. Then the gathering darkness put an end to the sport and the judges took advantage of the rule and declared the race finished. Summaries:

FLYING DUTCHMAN'S GREAT PACE.

Waller Breaks Several Records and Defeats Henry Smith.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 3.—Frank Waller, the champion long distance bicycle rider, commonly known as the "Flying Dutchman," defeated Henry Smith, champion of Maryland, today in a twenty-four-hour paced bicycle race, in which he conceded twenty-four miles to the local man.

At the finish tonight Waller had reeled off 494 2-3 miles, thus beating the American record of 486 miles, held by Grimm. The fifty-mile record went in one hour and fifty minutes, seventeen seconds better than the previous one made by Waller himself. Then the two-hour record went over. Miller, the six-day champion, held this record, fifty-one miles and 1,670 yards. Waller's record was fifty-five and one-sixth miles. All American records from thirty-five miles up were beaten. Waller kept on making records and establishing a new one for six hours behind human pace. Cordang holds the mark, with 165 miles and 1,590 yards behind motorcycle pace. Waller's distance was 161 1-6 miles, three and five-sixths behind the Cordang performance. Waller rode 175 miles in 6:29:16 1-5. After this the sun came out so hot that human nature could not stand the strain and the pace dropped off durnig the balance of the day.
