

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

Published by E. ROSEWATER, Editor. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily (Without Sunday), One Year, $10.00; Six Months, $6.00; Three Months, $3.50; Single Copies, 10 Cents.

Business Letters: All business letters and remittances should be addressed to The Bee Publishing Company, Omaha, Nebraska.

Statement of Circulation: State of Nebraska, Douglas County, 1897. George B. Tschick, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, deposes that the actual number of copies of the Omaha Daily Bee, printed during the month of August, 1898, was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Number of copies and Total. Rows include Total, Less returned and unsold copies, Net total sales, and Net Daily Average.

Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 1st day of September, 1898. N. P. FEHL, Notary Public.

WELCOME TO THE BEE BUILDING. No visitor to Omaha and the exposition should go away without inspecting The Bee Building, the largest newspaper building in America.

If the signs are read aright, the most sensational features of the Dreyfus case are yet to come.

Well! Well! Why not turn the whole War department over to the yellow journals?

It's an ill wind that blows nobody good. Had there been no war, there could have been no peace jubilee.

The fire ladders are going to burn several buildings to make sure that Omaha is a hot enough town for them during their stay at the fire tournament.

The weather man stationed at Omaha should place his order early for jubilee week weather that will convince all guests and visitors that Omaha has the most salubrious climate in the world.

Everyone is glad to know that Omaha is to have a new union depot. It can't come any too soon and it will be doubly appreciated if begun at once and quickly carried through to completion.

Every time one of the Chicago state officials shows his annual pass to the conductor he blazes the demagogic of the anti-pass plank of the popocratic state platform on which he is running for election.

While the medicine makers are in town the popocratic political medicine makers should try to get a few tips on compounding mixtures that will go down easily without leaving a bad taste in the mouth.

Iowa popocrats pretend that Iowa is still waiting for the wave of prosperity to roll over their state. They ought to take a tour of observation over Iowa's fertile farms and keep their eyes open while doing so.

The Colorado silverites who have turned their political convention into a bear garden seem to be laboring under the impression that the seat of war has been transferred from the harbor of Santiago to the shadow of Pike's Peak.

What has become of that $10,000 legislative anti-trust committee that the popocrats were going to project into the campaign with sensational glee? That $10,000 graft on the state treasury seems to have been one of the most expensive luxuries forced on the taxpayers by the popocratic regime.

Imperialism is diametrically opposed to the republican form of government guaranteed all citizens of the United States by the federal constitution. To take up imperialism means a wrench to republican institutions such as they have never experienced before since the foundation of the present government.

Chicago has been favored with the acceptance of its invitation to President McKinley to stop on his return trip from Omaha and lend the prestige of his presence to its peace demonstration. The Chicago peace festival will unquestionably be a great event, but the Omaha peace jubilee will hold first place, not only in point of time, but also in scope and grandeur.

Republicans throughout Nebraska should bear in mind that in filling out their local and legislative tickets they have the opportunity to help or hinder the success of the state ticket. Strong men as candidates for county and legislative offices will add momentum to the general trend to republicanism, while deadwood will block it and jeopardize the result. None but the best and strongest republicans should be put to the front this year.

THE ANTI-FUSION POPULISTS.

These populists who are still faithful to the principles of their party and who earnestly desire to promote the policies for which the party stands, met in convention at Cincinnati and nominated a presidential ticket for 1900, subject to the approval of a referendum vote.

The middle-of-the-road populists stand for well-defined principles. Their aim is to restore the party to its original purpose and in order that this may be done they firmly oppose all fusion. Organized to fight both of the old parties, the people's party two years ago departed from this purpose and united with the democratic party.

These populists are very much in earnest and they have the advantage of being the honest representatives of the principles of their party. They conscientiously believe that the doctrines and policies they advocate are essential to the welfare of the people and in that belief they desire to make a straightforward and independent fight for their principles.

WILL RESPECT THE LAW.

The Canadian Pacific railway announces that it will restore rates in accordance with the interstate commerce law. This is the result of the decision recently rendered by the Interstate Commerce commission.

FILIPINOS WANT ANNEXATION.

A portion of the people of the Philippines desire annexation to the United States. How numerous this element is cannot be stated, but perhaps it comprises most of the better class of natives.

RESULTS OVERSHADOW THE GLOOM OF CRITICS AND PARTISANS.

The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

FACTS ABOUT THE WAR.

The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

RESULTS OVERSHADOW THE GLOOM OF CRITICS AND PARTISANS.

The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

FACTS ABOUT THE WAR.

The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

PROSPERITY AT HAND.

The war has not reached the highest point of national credit known since the beginning of our civil war. The gold reserve is over $200,000,000, being the largest accumulation of gold in the treasury ever known since the reserve was established in 1879.

SOME CUTTING HINTS.

Before he is let out of prison Dreyfus is likely to receive several cases of nice new razors for his shaving.

LIBERTY A NECESSITY.

The discharge of the Third Nebraska regiment, known as the "Silver Battalion," seems to be demanded, not so much by the increase of sickness in the regiment as by the necessity of liberating Colonel Bryan, so that he may take part in the congressional campaign.

PROSECUTE BY THE CAMERA.

Bryan's friends say that he ought to resign, as he is needed in the Nebraska campaign. This ought to be conclusive.

ABOARD CHINA'S EXPANSIONISTS.

The falsehood of the claim that we have conquered the Philippine islands appears in a late dispatch which states that the insurgents are operating in the southern Philippines, and that General Rios, the Spanish commander, has a fleet of gunboats, is opposing them.

FORGET NOT THE ARMY MULE.

While we are carrying on about the heroism of our soldiers, let us not forget the army mule. He may not be as brave as our soldiers, but he is just as much needed.

THE PORTO RICO PHOENIX.

Relations between the armies lately in hostility in Porto Rico are steadily growing more friendly. A few days ago, General Rios had to send a flag of truce to Captain General Macia, to get his consent to enter San Juan.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

Somebody should tell Aguinaldo that the Americans knew all about bulldozing long before he started in business.

FALL OF KHARTOUM.

Globe-Democrat: Gordon was killed and Khartoum captured by the native forces January 26, 1898. The British were compelled to fall back to make a desperate advance.

CHICAGO RECORD.

Chicago Record: It is not likely that Great Britain will permit the Sudan, of vast importance not only to Egypt, but also to British interests in central and southern Africa, to be again placed in jeopardy.

BALTIMORE AMERICAN.

Baltimore American: The real object of England is to open a road from Egypt to the case. So far as the powers are concerned, this has probably been accomplished.

CHICAGO TIMES-HERALD.

Chicago Times-Herald: Since the battle of Plassey, when Clive won the empire of India in 1757, no other battle has been fought in the East which has had so great an effect on the world's history.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC GIVES PUBLIC NOTICE.

The Canadian Pacific gives public notice that, although a foreign corporation, it will abide by the decision of the Interstate Commerce commission ordering it to restore certain rates it had raised.

ADMIRAL CERVENA RETURNS THANKS FOR THE KINDLY TREATMENT ACCORDED HIM WHILE A WAR PRISONER OF THE UNITED STATES.

Admiral Cervena returns thanks for the kindly treatment accorded him while a war prisoner of the United States. Some people will contend with good show of reason that the thanks are due from the other side in recognition of the admiral's graciousness in falling into the trap set by the American fleet at Santiago.

THE RAILROADS ARE ALREADY FIGHTING FOR THE PRIVILEGE OF CARRYING PRESIDENT McKinley OVER THEIR RESPECTIVE LINES TO THE PEACE JUBILEE AT OMAHA.

The railroads are already fighting for the privilege of carrying President McKinley over their respective lines to the peace jubilee at Omaha. Perhaps the president will have to preserve peace by eschewing railroad travel and going back to the prairie schooner.

LIBERTY A NECESSITY.

The discharge of the Third Nebraska regiment, known as the "Silver Battalion," seems to be demanded, not so much by the increase of sickness in the regiment as by the necessity of liberating Colonel Bryan, so that he may take part in the congressional campaign.

PROSECUTE BY THE CAMERA.

Bryan's friends say that he ought to resign, as he is needed in the Nebraska campaign. This ought to be conclusive.

ABOARD CHINA'S EXPANSIONISTS.

The falsehood of the claim that we have conquered the Philippine islands appears in a late dispatch which states that the insurgents are operating in the southern Philippines, and that General Rios, the Spanish commander, has a fleet of gunboats, is opposing them.

FORGET NOT THE ARMY MULE.

While we are carrying on about the heroism of our soldiers, let us not forget the army mule. He may not be as brave as our soldiers, but he is just as much needed.

THE PORTO RICO PHOENIX.

Relations between the armies lately in hostility in Porto Rico are steadily growing more friendly. A few days ago, General Rios had to send a flag of truce to Captain General Macia, to get his consent to enter San Juan.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

Somebody should tell Aguinaldo that the Americans knew all about bulldozing long before he started in business.

FALL OF KHARTOUM.

Globe-Democrat: Gordon was killed and Khartoum captured by the native forces January 26, 1898. The British were compelled to fall back to make a desperate advance.

CHICAGO RECORD.

Chicago Record: It is not likely that Great Britain will permit the Sudan, of vast importance not only to Egypt, but also to British interests in central and southern Africa, to be again placed in jeopardy.

BALTIMORE AMERICAN.

Baltimore American: The real object of England is to open a road from Egypt to the case. So far as the powers are concerned, this has probably been accomplished.

CHICAGO TIMES-HERALD.

Chicago Times-Herald: Since the battle of Plassey, when Clive won the empire of India in 1757, no other battle has been fought in the East which has had so great an effect on the world's history.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

PROMPT AND AGGRESSIVE CO-OPERATION DEMANDED OF BUSINESS MEN.

The war has not reached the highest point of national credit known since the beginning of our civil war. The gold reserve is over $200,000,000, being the largest accumulation of gold in the treasury ever known since the reserve was established in 1879.

SOME CUTTING HINTS.

Before he is let out of prison Dreyfus is likely to receive several cases of nice new razors for his shaving.

LIBERTY A NECESSITY.

The discharge of the Third Nebraska regiment, known as the "Silver Battalion," seems to be demanded, not so much by the increase of sickness in the regiment as by the necessity of liberating Colonel Bryan, so that he may take part in the congressional campaign.

PROSECUTE BY THE CAMERA.

Bryan's friends say that he ought to resign, as he is needed in the Nebraska campaign. This ought to be conclusive.

ABOARD CHINA'S EXPANSIONISTS.

The falsehood of the claim that we have conquered the Philippine islands appears in a late dispatch which states that the insurgents are operating in the southern Philippines, and that General Rios, the Spanish commander, has a fleet of gunboats, is opposing them.

FORGET NOT THE ARMY MULE.

While we are carrying on about the heroism of our soldiers, let us not forget the army mule. He may not be as brave as our soldiers, but he is just as much needed.

THE PORTO RICO PHOENIX.

Relations between the armies lately in hostility in Porto Rico are steadily growing more friendly. A few days ago, General Rios had to send a flag of truce to Captain General Macia, to get his consent to enter San Juan.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

Somebody should tell Aguinaldo that the Americans knew all about bulldozing long before he started in business.

FALL OF KHARTOUM.

Globe-Democrat: Gordon was killed and Khartoum captured by the native forces January 26, 1898. The British were compelled to fall back to make a desperate advance.

CHICAGO RECORD.

Chicago Record: It is not likely that Great Britain will permit the Sudan, of vast importance not only to Egypt, but also to British interests in central and southern Africa, to be again placed in jeopardy.

BALTIMORE AMERICAN.

Baltimore American: The real object of England is to open a road from Egypt to the case. So far as the powers are concerned, this has probably been accomplished.

CHICAGO TIMES-HERALD.

Chicago Times-Herald: Since the battle of Plassey, when Clive won the empire of India in 1757, no other battle has been fought in the East which has had so great an effect on the world's history.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

NEW YORK SUN.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

SUCCESS OF THE EXPOSITION.

New York Tribune: The Omaha exposition has been a thorough success financially and otherwise, a result upon which congratulating city is to be cordially congratulated.

FLLOATING MIRTH.

Puck: The man who waits the earth probably never stopped to think what the taxes would be.

SOMERVILLE JOURNAL.

Somerville Journal: A five-foot man has to have courage to walk down the street with a woman whose height is five feet eight.

DETROIT JOURNAL.

Detroit Journal: "You notice the stage is set with a marine scene?" "Oh, that's to make it less embarrassing for the actresses who have to appear in tight-fitting costumes."

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

New York Tribune: "I sat at the table next to yours at the banquet yesterday and don't see how you could laugh at the jokes that you were telling."

PITTSBURGH CHRONICLE.

Pittsburgh Chronicle: "What sort of a nation is Holland?" asked the snake editor. "At present it is a coronation," replied the horse editor.

CHICAGO POST.

Chicago Post: "There are times when it seems as if the world were standing on its head," said a man who was talking to a friend. "I should be glad to see it," replied the other. "I should be glad to see it," replied the other. "I should be glad to see it," replied the other.

WASHINGTON STAR.

Washington Star: "I can't blame the young women for falling in love with the soldiers," remarked the neighbor who had dropped in for a few minutes. "I can't blame the young women for falling in love with the soldiers," remarked the neighbor who had dropped in for a few minutes.

ELZY-WUZZY.

Among British soldiers the name for the Derivish of the Sudan is "Elzy-Wuzzy," and Tommy Atkins has a favorite story about the followers of the Mahdi.

PROVIDENCE (R. I.) NEWS.

Providence (R. I.) News: The managers of the Omaha exposition must be a highly talented lot of fellows in a business way. Here in the east the exposition has not yet attracted anything like the attention it deserves, for, according to all accounts, it is a tremendous show that demands inspection by every American.

CHICAGO INTER OCEAN.

Chicago Inter Ocean: The Omaha exposition has been the most successful American enterprise of the kind since the World's fair in Toledo in 1893, should not be a success in every particular, and it is hoped that every person interested in the welfare of our exposition will go and see what an exposition, properly managed, will do for a community.

CHICAGO INTER OCEAN.

Chicago Inter Ocean: The Omaha exposition has been the most successful American enterprise of the kind since the World's fair in Toledo in 1893, should not be a success in every particular, and it is hoped that every person interested in the welfare of our exposition will go and see what an exposition, properly managed, will do for a community.

CHICAGO INTER OCEAN.

Chicago Inter Ocean: The Omaha exposition has been the most successful American enterprise of the kind since the World's fair in Toledo in 1893, should not be a success in every particular, and it is hoped that every person interested in the welfare of our exposition will go and see what an exposition, properly managed, will do for a community.

CHICAGO INTER OCEAN.

Chicago Inter Ocean: The Omaha exposition has been the most successful American enterprise of the kind since the World's fair in Toledo in 1893, should not be a success in every particular, and it is hoped that every person interested in the welfare of our exposition will go and see what an exposition, properly managed, will do for a community.

CHICAGO INTER OCEAN.

Chicago Inter Ocean: The Omaha exposition has been the most successful American enterprise of the kind since the World's fair in Toledo in 1893, should not be a success in every particular, and it is hoped that every person interested in the welfare of our exposition will go and see what an exposition, properly managed, will do for a community.

CHICAGO INTER OCEAN.

Chicago Inter Ocean: The Omaha exposition has been the most successful American enterprise of the kind since the World's fair in Toledo in 1893, should not be a success in every particular, and it is hoped that every person interested in the welfare of our exposition will go and see what an exposition, properly managed, will do for a community.

CHICAGO INTER OCEAN.

Chicago Inter Ocean: The Omaha exposition has been the most successful American enterprise of the kind since the World's fair in Toledo in 1893, should not be a success in every particular, and it is hoped that every person interested in the welfare of our exposition will go and see what an exposition, properly managed, will do for a community.

The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

OUR DAILY BULLETIN.

THURSDAY SEPT. 8

LONDON, Eng., Sept. 8, 1898.—Ambassador John Hay sails today for New York. He returns to America to enter upon the duties of Secretary of State in President McKinley's cabinet, which he enters as the successor of Judge Day of Ohio.

Chicago Record: It is not likely that Great Britain will permit the Sudan, of vast importance not only to Egypt, but also to British interests in central and southern Africa, to be again placed in jeopardy.

Baltimore American: The real object of England is to open a road from Egypt to the case. So far as the powers are concerned, this has probably been accomplished.

Chicago Times-Herald: Since the battle of Plassey, when Clive won the empire of India in 1757, no other battle has been fought in the East which has had so great an effect on the world's history.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow at the war's accidents or resentment at the defects of its administration.

New York Sun: The main facts of the war are too important and too helpful and too creditable to the country for them to be buried beneath sorrow