

ANOTHER TRAIN TO CHICAGO

Northwestern Increases Its Service East of Omaha Considerably.

WILL ACCOMMODATE IOWA PATRONS

New Train Leaves Here in the Evening and Arrives in the Morning and is Intended for the Use of the Exposition.

On account of the heavy increase in travel to the exposition from Iowa and Illinois the Chicago & Northwestern has been forced to add to its train service between this city and Chicago. On Sunday, September 11, the Northwestern will place in service another train to and from Chicago.

ANNOUNCED MORE REDUCED RATES.

Lines in the Western Passenger Association Make Some Concessions.

A number of reduced rates have just been announced by the lines in the Western Passenger Association. For Modern Woodmen day at the exposition the round trip rate to Omaha will be 50 per cent of the one way fare from points where the regular fare is $5 or less.

The rate for Wisconsin day at the exposition, September 12, will be 50 per cent of the regular one way fare for the round trip to Omaha from all points in Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan to Omaha and return.

The Wahash has given notice that it will meet the cut of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas road of one fare for the round trip to San Antonio, with special rates from there to the City of Mexico, Monterey and Saltillo, for the Mexican national holidays, September 15 and 16.

HOO-HOOS LEAD THE PROCESSION.

Worshippers of the Black Cat Head a Long Stride of Friday Arrive.

Travel into Omaha about 9 o'clock on the night of the ninth month, the time regarded as sacred by all lumbermen registering within the Ho-Hoo region, was decidedly numerous. The steady downpour of rain did not prevent the arrival of heavy trains on all railroads. They were met by visitors from the west to help celebrate a moist Colorado day, with Woodmen of the World from all four points of the compass, and with lumbermen who registered from the west.

PICK UP THE BODY IN SECTIONS.

Union Pacific Operatives Unearth a Mangled Remains of a Man.

The mangled remains of a man were found on the Union Pacific track near Dorsey spur, on the first Nebraska division, on Thursday afternoon. About the same time the arm of a man was discovered in the truck of a car on a Union Pacific train from the west which had just pulled into Council Bluffs. The arm and the body are supposed to have belonged to the same man.

Looking for Her Tract.

The postoffice has received a letter of inquiry from parties in Pennsylvania concerning the whereabouts of Kratus C. Lamson, who was employed in this city as a stationary engineer in 1887. The inquirer is a niece of Lamson, who has been bereft of all other relatives, and she is anxious to learn if he is still among the living.

Excursion to Hot Springs, S. D.

September 10th the Elkhorn road will run a cheap excursion to Hot Springs, S. D. This is the pleasant season of the year to visit this charming resort and the surrounding places of interest, notably the Great Wind Cave.

Both Reports Reached the Union Pacific

headquarters in this city about the same time, and an investigation was immediately commenced, with the hope of connecting the apparent parts of the same accident.

Hats Helms Fall Pasture.

"This rain is very good for fall pasturage, but it won't make another kernel of corn; it's too late," remarked Assistant General Freight Agent Lane of the Union Pacific as he gazed through his window at the hard shower yesterday morning.

WILL LET THE WEEDS STAND

City Council Takes Action Too Late in the Season to Do Good.

MAYOR MOORES WILL VETO APPROPRIATION

Says the Five Hundred Dollars Set Aside Will Be Thrown Away Under Existing Circumstances and Weather Conditions.

The article of weather that is now being offered to Omahans by the weather bureau will likely result in the mayor's vetoing the $500 appropriation made at the last council meeting for cutting weeds. Mayor Moore indicated that this would be his action in the following words: "The season is too far advanced to commence cutting weeds, as winter seems to be very nearly upon us. Some six weeks ago I recommended that a sum of money should be set aside for weed cutting, and at that time one man could do as much in a day as he could do now in a week. Under the circumstances, $500 will not go far. Therefore it seems to me that the $500 will simply be thrown away."

SOME CRACK FIRE HORSES

Kansas City Shows What Its Eminent Team Can Do—Lincoln's Running Team.

Among the features Thursday at the tournament of the Lincoln was a quick hitching exhibition from the ground by the Kansas City company. The apparatus was hauled out into the middle of the track, where the horses were unhitched. The harness was laid on the ground and the horses were stationed beside the hind wheels of the wagon. At a word and without a gong signal, the horses jumped to their places under the harness, which had been lifted up by the driver. The wagon dashed to a hydrant fifty yards away, 150 feet of hose was attached and water was turned on. Two twenty-three seconds elapsed between the time that the word was given to the horses and the instant that water issued from the hydrant. This is claimed to be not only a world's record, but it is believed that it cannot be duplicated. It is made possible only because of the great intelligence of the horses. A simple word started the animals from their places and with almost human intelligence they bended their necks and slipped into the harness. The team is said to be the crack firemen's trick team of the world.

Doesn't Sell President Bell.

The labor resolution passed by the Board of Education at its last meeting may or may not put an end to the strike that has been on among the school employees during the last few weeks. A resident Bell of the union doubts that the resolution is satisfactory, and it all depends upon how the unions look at it. It is believed, however, that the unions will not support Bell.

FELL OUT WITH LANDLADIES

Electrician Klug and His Sick Wife Have a Decidedly Unpleasant Experience with Two Women.

William M. Klug, 1811 North Twenty-first street, came to his death through misunderstanding with his landladies yesterday that he called upon the city prosecutor to see him righted. Klug says that he has had lodging at the house of Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Gladden for several months, during which time he has been employed on the exposition grounds as an electrician. A few weeks ago, however, he lost his job, and his wife was taken sick simultaneously he found considerable difficulty in getting along. His rent amounted to $10 monthly, he says, and at present he has fallen behind in the sum of $7. Yesterday V. E. Robinson and Mrs. Gladden demanded the amount due and followed him to his home, moving the furniture from the room. Klug arranged a pallet for his wife, who is still sick and left the house to be absent several hours. On his return Klug found that the door of his room had been securely nailed and he was unable to get in. Windows were also fastened and Klug had no means either of getting in himself or of getting his wife out. He finally obtained entrance with an ax and later obtained a warrant against his landladies for trespass.

Another Forger Gets Away

Dignified Stranger Works a Feat Dealer with a Check that Proves Worthless.

P. D. Lane, hay and feed merchant at 2512 Leavenworth street, was made the victim of a forger Thursday afternoon and lost $20 in an endeavor to accommodate a supposed purchaser. The latter, who gave the name of John Faller and wore a dignified air, made an explanation regarding a horse which he had just arranged to quarter in the neighborhood and ordered a considerable quantity of provender. The bill came to $10 and Faller presented a check made out to his name, N. L. Judd of South Omaha for $30. In his haste to close the purchase Lane returned $2 in change which he had in the drawer and arranged the difference with his personal check for $18. The stranger gave directions regarding the delivery of the feed and went on to a passing street car. Lane delivered the goods to the address given, but could find no barn within a block of the number given, and upon the report of his driver he was seized with a tardy suspicion. Judd, signer of the check, was communicated with and replied that he had issued no such paper to Faller. A description of the forger is in the hands of detectives.

Watkins Wants a Contract

Sees Out an Alternative Writ of Mandamus Against South Omaha's Mayor and Council.

An alternative writ of mandamus was sued out by J. B. Watkins & Company of South Omaha yesterday against the mayor and council of that city to compel them to award the city contract for lumber for the year ending August 10, 1898, to the Bradford-Hunter company, as it is alleged. Judge Fawcett issued the alternative writ asked for, making it returnable October 8.

Mike Lee in a Wreck.

Mike Lee of the Seventh ward had a very unpleasant experience with an unaccountable street car yesterday morning. Mr. Lee turned off William street onto Sixteenth about a block ahead of the car. Before he could clear the track the car, which was coming at a terrific speed, struck him, crushing him like a bug. Buggy, horse and man were dragged fully a block before the car was stopped. Mr. Lee received a severe head injury and a leg was totally wrecked and the horse was badly skinned up.

THIEVES WORK UNMOLESTED

Quiet and Unobtrusive Burglars and Sneaks Believe Citizens of Their Property During the Night.

Burglars and thieves operated in their usual unobtrusive manner during Thursday night, and secured very fair results. While the family of Ferdinand Lehman, 1618 Martha street, was absent for the evening burglars broke into the house and made a thorough search of the premises. Entrance was obtained through a rear window, which showed the marks of a jimmy. The latch had been torn loose and the sash splintered. Going first to the sleeping apartments upstairs the burglars looked in every possible receptacle for money. They secured $2.00 from a jewelry case and also emptied it of a quantity of valuable ornaments. Among the missing articles are a bracelet, a gold-dollar stick pin, a ring set with a good stone and several pieces of children's jewelry. Continuing their search the robbers emptied drawers and closets and piled their contents on the floor, but could locate nothing further, except a silver watch in a dressing case drawer. The intruders escaped unobserved and left no clew of their identity.

CATCHES DISHONEST CLERKS

Manager of the Boston Store Detects Three Girls Stealing Money in Small Sums.

Manager McKnight and Detective Grier of the Boston store did a little private detective work yesterday that resulted in catching a system of stealing that has probably been in operation for over a year. It was reported by one of the clerks that in his opinion there was a partnership between Dora Fisher and Nellie Burrows, clerks, and Bridget Slick, bundle wrapper, and a stop was put on the results of their conviction. The system used by the girls was to enter an insufficient amount on the credit slip, which was ignored by the wrapper in consideration of a later share in the profits. The trap was sprung by a detective purchase, which was traced to the wrapper's counter and found to have shrunk to 6 cents. The girls, who are all very young, were confronted with the proof and confessed at once. Dora Fisher received a suspended sentence of twenty days in police court and the others were not prosecuted.
