STYLES AND COLORS AT THE DANCES

Instructional Details of the Great Social Function-Courtesies in Public and Private-Simplicity of Samoan Life.

APLA, Samoa, July 31, 1909.—Correspondence of The Bee. Mr. (last) July 29, The Bee was written on Thanksgiving day 1907. As you may have seen, I was very much interested in the Samoa news. I have been very busy since then, but I have had time to write you from time to time. I have been very busy since then, but I have had time to write you from time to time.

Last year was rather a prosperous one to Samoa, the crops were unusually good. The people here are very busy with their work. I have been very busy since then, but I have had time to write you from time to time.

We have news up to the 10th inst. which came by the Alameda from San Francisco on the 10th but we had full reports via Auckland up to the 9th, which were received here on the 11th.

I suppose that every one who has heard of the black boys, or "black birds" as they are sometimes called, are quite an interesting race here. The name was given to them by the American missionaries.

I notice that the missionary has not quite ended at which I am somewhat surprised, as some weeks ago I went to one of my home papers that the Kingdom of Tonga and the Kingdom of Samoa would remain American territories.

The inhabitants of Samoa, and especially of Apla, seem to be devoted to Terapiachon. On the anniversary of the coronation of the Emperor of Germany and on the Fourth of July—these being the days that must be observed—a grand ball with refreshments both solid and liquid, must be held.

The Glorious Fourth. On the forenoon of July 4 a reception was held at the United States consulate general and about all Apla was "received" and lauded and rumbled.

Styles and Colors at Dances. These gatherings are somewhat cosmopolitan in character. Not only is the ball decorated with the flag of every nation, but people of many nationalities are represented on the floor.

The Samoans. There is nothing especially new with the Samoans, as I probably never will be. They are the most happy-go-lucky people on earth.

Laid by Chas. Carroll of Carrolltown.

Pomp and Ceremony at an Historic Event Seventy Years Ago—Inception of Railroads in the United States.

HEALTH

MY ADVICE TO WEAK MEN.

Dr. T. A. Sanden, 826 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

To those suffering from the results of youthful errors or later excesses, such as Drains, Impotency, Nervous Debility, Lame Back, Varicocele, etc., I would offer the following advice, based on an experience of thirty years as a specialist in such troubles.

Avoid improper thoughts. Seek proper companions. Good company and good conversation are the very signs of virtue.

To yourself be true. When you retire to bed go to sleep, and do not allow your imagination to play havoc with your better judgment.

Keep yourself innocent if you would be happy. Avoid the medicine quack. Lastly, get my famous ELECTRIC BELT.

and temporary and assist nature by using her own natural resources. Follow these suggestions faithfully, and I promise you such health, strength, vigor and happiness as you have never known.

I cannot do better than describe the action of my Belt in the language of a patient who was cured. He says: "Almost from the first hour's use of your wonderful Electric Belt I felt a change. I seemed to realize that a great force was working for my good, and felt comfortable in the knowledge that there were no more nasty drugs to be taken."

The above testimonial is only one of many thousands. Last year we received an average of nearly twenty testimonials a day. Write for book, "Three Classes of Men," which explains all and is sent in plain sealed envelope.
