

CONDITION OF OMAHA'S TRADE

General Business Shows the Effect of Autumn's Return. ALL LINES HAVE GOOD REPORTS

Volume Continually Increases, but the Inquiry for Fall Specialties is the Marked Feature of the Retail Business.

In a retail way trade is steadily improving as the season advances. Due in part to the increased number of visitors in the city, and to the further fact that after the midsummer season, there is always an increased demand for merchandise. It is still rather early to expect much in the way of real fall trade, but the cooler weather last week served as a stimulus to a change in consumer and retailers report a better movement of such goods as are always in demand during the cool season.

While the business situation in the state at large is not bright as it was a month ago, the prospect is still far from discouraging. It appears that the situation continues to be entirely to the liking of all concerned, there is not much that has to be added to what was said in the columns last week.
