

RAILROAD DAY A FAILURE

Celebration Suggested for the Exposition Fails to Materialize.

ALL SORTS OF EXCUSES ARE OFFERED

Local Interest Not Lacking, but the Railroaders Are Too Busy to Take Any Part in the Preliminaries.

There was no celebration of Railroad day at the exposition yesterday because none of the Omaha railroad men would work up a program for the day and invite representatives of the railroad fraternity from outside points to be present.

Save for the party of distinguished operating officials of eastern lines brought in here on a special train Friday evening by the Northwestern road there are very few visiting railroaders here for the day.

In honor of Railroad day at the exposition General Manager Bidwell of the Elkhorn road ordered the general headquarters closed at noon and the remainder of the day was given to the employees to spend at the exposition grounds.

Home Seekers' Excursion. Next excursion to the south in Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas, etc., leaves Omaha via the Missouri Pacific, Tuesday, September 20.

Was with the Naval Reserves. E. W. Redman, son of G. A. Redman of this city, who volunteered with the Chicago naval reserve for the war, is visiting his parents, Mr. Redman, who is a stalwart old 17, was assigned to the Indiana and took part in the operations before Antwerp. It will be remembered that the Indiana was the first ship that engaged the Spanish fleet when it emerged from the harbor, and began the work that was completed by the American vessels, Mr. Redman, with the other members of the naval reserve, has been mustered out, but is under orders to hold himself in readiness to be called out again in case they are wanted for further service.

The Blind Chaplain Here. The Rev. W. H. Milburn, D. D., the blind chaplain of the United States senate, who preaches at the Hanson Park Methodist church this morning, will give one of his characteristic lectures Tuesday evening at the same church. "What a Blind Man Saw in London." Mr. Milburn is known throughout the United States and Europe as the Blind Man Eloquent and makes this trip in the interest of the Hanson Park church. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged for the lecture.

Bank Against Coder Agent. The Portsmouth Savings bank case against Mrs. Mary B. Coder will not down. The women's attorneys have taken an appeal and now the attorney for the plaintiff, V. O. Strickler, has made a complaint in the county court against one of the woman's sureties on her appeal bond, accusing him of perjury and specifying that he swore that he is worth $500 when qualifying as surety, whereas Mr. Strickler alleges he is not worth that amount.

TRYING TO EVADE SENTENCE

Prisoners in County Jail on Vagrancy Charge Talk of Suing Out Habeas Corpus for Release.

A conflict of authority has arisen between Police Judge Gordon and Sheriff McDonald over the commitment for ninety days to the county jail by the judge of George Harlow and George Harris, a day or two ago, for vagrancy. The men had been induced to plead guilty with the assurance that they would get a suspended sentence and be permitted to leave town.
