

SOCIETY DURING LAST WEEK

Lawn Fete Adds a Bit of Brilliance to an Otherwise Lively Season.

DELIGHTFUL EVENING SPENT FOR CHARITY

Many Guests Entertained by Charming Dances and Misses During the Early Part of a Typical Indian Summer Night.

Society turned out very well last evening at the beautiful lawn fete given for the joint benefit of the Creche and of the Visiting Nurses' association.

The artistic success of the affair was noteworthy. The spacious grounds surrounding the residence of G. M. Hitchcock, at Twenty-ninth and Dodge streets, were prettily illuminated with hundreds of lanterns of various sizes and between these were myriads of small incandescent lamps of variegated colors.

The most prominent part in the decorations was formed by the lanterns themselves. They were attractively constructed and artistically arranged. The presence of a half hundred fair young society women, appeared in gowns becoming to the occasion.

friends conoling with them over their recent disappointment. They left Dubuque about a week ago ostensibly for the east. The story is going to be that they left that night for Chicago, and the other declared he had to go directly to Boston.

A few days a young woman from Dubuque was thoroughly surprised to meet them both in Omaha. The joke of the whole matter is that the couple have a decided penchant for one of our leading society girls.

Some of the guests, anticipating a frozen atmosphere within, provided themselves with fur garments. These they found to be very superfluous amid the cheer and warmth of their reception.

On the center of the heavily laden table was a massive block of ice, which had been hollowed out to contain the salad. Frosted ferns surrounded this and the frosted table mirror, which ran the length of the table.

MRS. DAVIES, 1511 Douglas. of the reactionary organs for repressive measures against anarchism. Statements have appeared in several of the newspapers to the effect that the German government intended to take the initiative in proposing international action. Official circles deny any such intention, but they declare that any proposals on the subject will be well received by the German government, which will do all possible to cooperate with united action. In spite of this there is no chance of any sweeping repressive action in the Reichstag.
