Payne was placed under arrest Monday afternoon by Albion Adams, marshal of the town, with whom the Sloux City police force had had all its dealings in connection with the case. Payne had just returned to the place after an absence of about a month, during which time he was supposed to be in Chicago. The arrest caused quite a flurry in Pleasant Hill. Acting under the instructions of the Sloux City police, Marshal Adams at once took his prisoner to Harrisonville, the county seat of Cass county, where he was placed in the county jail. Payne got legal assistance at once and habeas corpus proceedings were begun. The judge reserved his decision in the matter until Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, so that Sergeant

A New Discovery, But Not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting ac count of what he considers a remarkable cure of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. He says: The patient was a man who had suffered to my knowledge for years with dyspepsia. Everything he are seemed to and create acid and gases in the stomach; he had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at

I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an exper-iment I finally bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediately relief was given and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured. There was no more ascidity or sour watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained
