President Jordan's Report.

President Jordan submitted his annual report. In reviewing the work of the last year he stated the actual increase in the school attendance over the year preceding was 1,103, requiring an additional expenditure of $35,000 for teaching facilities. Other extra expenses consisted of $12,000 spent for improving the Kellom school and of $14,623 for the purchase of additional ground for the Walnut Hill, Dupont and Cass schools The total expenditure for the year was $424,678.03 against $361,694.59 for the preceding year, but it was asserted that, de ducting the $61,625 of extras mentioned and the expenditure of $14,000 more for necessary repairs, the expenditure has been practically It was stated that it will be absolutely necessary to have a larger tax levy for school purposes the coming year in order to prevent a very serious backward step in the maintenance of the public schools. The Board of Education has not only the embarrassment of a large floating debt constantly in sight, but an urgent demand for new and enlarged quarters in several parts of the city.

The purchase of sites for new Pacific, Cass and Davenport school buildings was commenced and the question of a new High school building was dwelt upon.

The report recommended the recognition of union labor in the employment of mechanics by giving members of labor unions the preference. The teachers were commended for their work and were praised for their loyal and financial support of the exposition and the educational convention. The kindergartens, the departments music, drawing, manual training and the military science were spoken of in a favorable way. In conclusion the president praised the establishment of the insurance fund, which has brought about a saving of Charges were further heard against Officer Fred C. Moore made by George A. Dolan, who alleged that Moore had participated in a dance at the house of Mrs. Carlon, Seventh and Pierce streets, while he was supposed o be on duty. He said further that Moor was in the habit of drinking beer with the young men of the neighborhood and loitering with women on gateposts. He also offered the testimony of R. R. Bowles, who said that he had been in company with Moore and two women under a bridge near Seventh and Pierce streets and had made everal trips for beer for their entertainment. Moore brought a quantity of proo to show that he had been at no dance, had partaken of no beer and had loitered with no women. The charges against him were dismissed.

HAD A GOOD TIME ON SUNDAY Officer McGuckin of the Reform Force Enjoys Himself at a Picnic in the South End.

Another star of the galaxy of the reform police force is in danger of extinguishment. Sunday was a gala day at Turner park. picnic was on the boards and, as is the usual custom, an officer was detailed to do the bonors of the police department and keep order. For this work Officer McGuckin was commissioned, and he felt equal to any emergency that might arise. McGuckin is something of a social lion. When the picnic was in full blast McGuckin resolved to join in the "hot" time with the rest. After swinging about the grounds, drinking here and there and becoming hilarious, he fell in with a companion of the other sex. The hended. two took a seat on a rustic bench and gave an exhibition of love making. The woman wore the officer's helmet, belt and club and had her arm about his neck.

The spectacle of an officer in full uniform and on duty making such a show of himself so disgusted many of the picnickers that they left the grounds. They were loud in their denunciation of the officer. This is Loan and Trust the same officer who figured so conspicuously in the disgraceful affair at the exposition grounds a few weeks ago and for which he was never called to account. He is a Wis., which charged Mr. Devries with hav recent appointee to the force.

Edward Brixts took William Wade's place as cook at the White Front restaurant, 197 North Ninth street, yesterday and thereby aroused Wade to such a pitch of anger that he went after Brixis' scalp with a meat axe and a butcher knife. Vice President Earling remarked that the road is found to be in splendid condition and that business appears to be good. He said: "We have just come down from Milwaukee. We are simply inspecting the lines and will stop here a day or so to take in the exposition. and then move on to look over the other

MET WITH FRIENDLY WOMEN isitors to the City Tell the Cus-

W. M. Black of Glenwood, In., carrying $10 for sightseeing purposes was robbed last night in an alley on Fourteenth between Douglas and Farnam streets. He was passing along Fourteenth street taking in the shop windows when he met two young women who showed a disposition to be friendly. He stood at the entrance of the alley chatting with them for some time and finally started with one of them toward the rear entrance of a saloon further up the alley. Within a short distance he missed his purse and at once seized the woman by the arm. He pulled her toward the street and had nearly reached the side walk when the second woman seized the other arm and pulled in the contrary di rection. Black was dragged back into the alley and was obliged to relinguish his hold. The women were later arrested for larceny from the person Fred Ebeling, another exposition visitor rom Washington county, spent $35 in viewing the sights under the pilotage of George Brown, hotel runner, who is now held al the police station on suspicion of being connected with Ebeling's loss. Two confidence men worked John Carlson of Melbourne, Neb., to the tune of $8 yesterday afternoon on the counterfeit money racket. Carlson is a stranger and was meandering along taking in the sights presented in this thriving city when he was accosted by twe men who represented themselves as detectives. They told Carlson that he was suspected of having counterfeit money in his possession. This Carlson indignantly denied and in order to prove his sincerity he pulled out a $5 bill to show the supposed detectives. The bill was declared bogus and was confiscated by the pretended detectives. The stranger was then asked if he had any more money and response to this inquiry he promptly fished up three silver dollars. These, too, were declared spurious and the confidence men were about to depart when Thomas J.

In I. Fenimore Cooper's Leather Stocking Tales, we read stories of the wonderful agility, physical endurance and the unerring accuracy of the eye of the American Indian when he reigned su-preme over this conti-nent. Before he was debauched by modern civilization, he was a magnificent specimen of physical manhood. He lived entirely in the open and air. knew no medicine, save the simple herbs gathered by his squaws.

Civilized man leads an unnatural and an unhealthy life. Unlike the Indian if he would maintain his physical and mental health, he must take reasonable precau-tions to combat disease. Nearly all dis-eases have their inception in disorders of the digestion, torpidity of the liver and impurity of the blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made of simple herbs. It restores the lost appetite, makes diges-tion and assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver, purifies the blood and promotes the natural processes of excretion and se-cretion. It sends the rich, red, life giving blood bounding through the arteries and corrects all circulatory disturbances. It dispels headaches, nervousness, drowsi-ness, lassitude, and drives out all impurities and disease germs. It cures 95 per cent, of all cases of consumption, bron-chitis, asthma and diseases of the air-passages. It gives sound and refreshing sleep, drives away all bodily and mental fatigue and imparts vigor and health to every or-gan of the body. Medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing else, "just as good."

"A few of my symptoms," writes Charles Book, of Climax, Kalamazoo Co., Mich., "were beart burn, fullress after cating, pain in my bowels, bad taste in my mouth, and occasional fever and hot flushes. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cured all these and I am perfectly well."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are sure speedy and permanent cure for constipa-tion. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxa-tive and two a mild cathartic. They never gripe. Found at all medicine stores.
