

EVERYBODY COMES TO OMAHA

Tremendous Jams at All the Depots the Feature of the Morning.

TWO STATES POUR OUT THEIR PEOPLE

Nebraska and Iowa Contribute Record Breaking Throngs to Swell the Crowds Already Here—How the Railroads Handled Them.

Many a cow went to bed un milked last night in Nebraska and Iowa. "Morse people have come into the two depots here since Tuesday morning than during any previous five days of the exposition," remarked one of the busy depot policemen at noon yesterday as one of the big excursions of The Omaha Bee pulled into the Burlington depot.

Brought by The Bee.

If the early morning crowds were large those that appeared at the long and short depots towards noon were something enormous. The heavy amount of travel from points on the B. & M. road bespoke the success of the excursion arranged by The Bee. It was estimated that over 4,000 persons had come in Burlington trains up to 4 o'clock, and there were the regular trains and special trains scheduled to arrive this afternoon. A great many of the excursionists of The Bee arrived on the two sections of train No. 92 at 11:40 a. m. Each of these sections was made up of 1200 cars, and brought in great crowds from Nebraska points, the arrivals from Wynora, Beatrice and vicinity being especially large.

Iowa Lines Also in It.

All of the Iowa lines did a big business on Tuesday and Wednesday. Every regular train carried from ten to fifteen cars, and many of them had to be run in two sections. From the arrival of the regular trains special trains from all parts of Iowa kept bringing thousands of persons to the two depots so fast that the approaches to them were jammed and it was not to suffocation. That no one was hurt in the big crowds reflects credit on the depot policemen and passenger directors who had their hands full throughout the morning.

Magnificent Trains.

Omaha to Chicago. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul rail line has just placed in service two magnificent electric lighted trains between Omaha and Chicago leaving Omaha daily at 5:45 p. m., arriving Chicago at 8:25 a. m. and leaving Chicago 9:15 p. m. and arriving Omaha at 5:30 a. m. Each train is lighted throughout by electricity, has buffet smoking cars, drawing room sleeping cars, dining cars and reclining chair cars and runs over the shortest line and smoothest road between the two cities.

You Cannot Do Anything Else

If You Want to Go East except take the "Northwestern Line" if you desire a fast daylight trip between Omaha and Chicago, because no other line runs a daylight train. Leave Omaha 6:40 a. m., arrive Chicago 8:15 a. m. evening. Close connection with eastern lines. A good train. Empathically YES. City office, 1502 Farnam St.

The Only Railroad to Chicago

With a daylight train. Leave Omaha 6:40 a. m. every day, arriving Chicago the same day. Leaving Chicago at 8:15, with close connections are made with all lines beyond. This train is 50 years ahead of the times and is proving immensely popular with Omaha people. Other lines leave Omaha for Chicago at 4:55 and 6:55 p. m. daily. City Ticket office, 1502 Farnam St.

The Rock Island's business from its main line and branches in Iowa, especially from Des Moines and points this side of the Iowa capital, has been heavier during the last two days than for a long time.

All of the passenger equipment has been pressed into service, and some of the trains have filled up so rapidly soon after leaving Des Moines that they had to be run through points this side of Avoca, leaving passengers to wait for later trains, with the hope of being able to get on. The governor's special, with Governor Shaw of Iowa and staff, arrived shortly before midnight with about 550. The morning train from Chicago was a double-header, with fourteen cars and 800 passengers. Thirty-three extra cars had to be ordered for the Iowa division today, and there is plainly use for all of them. The trains from the east arriving over the Rock Island at 11:25 a. m. and at 1:25 p. m. brought in nearly 1,500 more Iowa to show whenever the praise of the Hawkeye state should be sung at the Transmississippi Exposition.

The Union Pacific carried all of its heavy travel on regular trains. There were no special trains run, but the number of extra cars that had to be attached to the regular trains to accommodate the heavy travel would have made several big special trains in themselves. Train No. 4 arrived before 7 o'clock with five extra cars.

The Columbus local pulled in at 9:40 with six extra cars. The local from Stromsburg and Beatrice brought in three extra cars at 12:30, and the afternoon "Overland Limited" from the west is run in two heavy sections.

There were no special trains into the Webster street station yesterday morning, but all of the regular trains had additional cars attached. Travel from the north over the Omaha road, from the south over the Missouri Pacific and from the west over the Elkhorn was very heavy, but it was carried on regular trains.

A large number of the special trains from Iowa discharged a considerable part of their traffic at Council Bluffs. This fact, however, made travel across the two other bridges beside the Union Pacific's very heavy. The big street cars from Council Bluffs were run at intervals of three minutes during the morning, and were packed on every westbound trip. The new street cars of the Omaha Bridge & Terminal railway from Council Bluffs to the exposition grounds also accommodated a large number of Iowa visitors, and the Union Pacific put on several additional bridge trains during the morning.

Big Four-Monon Deal is Off.

Prospect that it May Be Carried Through at Late Date.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 21.—It has been intimated that the Vanderbilt interests operating the Big Four system might show their hand today at the annual meeting of the Chicago, Indianapolis & Louisville (Monon) stockholders. However, John A. Hilton of New York and Crawford Fairbanks of Terre Haute were elected directors and the Big Four people made no sign. It was intimated by the officers present that the proposed consolidation of the properties was off for the present at least. It is understood that a controlling interest of the stock is owned by persons interested in both corporations. The directors voted to endorse the bonds to be issued by the Indiana Stone Road company. General Manager McDoel was asked if it were true that President Thombs is to resign and if McDoel is to succeed him. Mr. McDoel said that he had heard such a report, but so far as he knew there was absolutely nothing in it. No such intimation had reached him.

"Has the Monon-Big Four deal been completed?" the general manager was asked.

"Not yet. The understanding I have is that it is off for the present, but it is likely to be taken up again any moment."

"What about the purchase of the Harry Crawford road, the Chicago & Southeastern?"

"There is nothing in that. The Monon people do not want the road and have not thought of it for four years."

A Big Four official said this afternoon that there is no question but that the deal will go through in time. The greater part of the Monon stock is owned by President Thombs and John Greenough. Both of them have sold heavily and the transfer of a controlling interest would have been made before this time but for the fact that the Cincinnati & Dayton cannot be secured on the terms offered by the Morgan syndicate.

Death of Mrs. Kenyon.

The Des Moines Register of September 16 contains the following concerning the death of a woman well known in Omaha:

After illness of over three weeks Mrs. William F. Kenyon, mother of P. C. Kenyon, of the Kenyon Printing company of this city, died last night at her residence, 1101 North 16th street, at the age of 74 years.

The doctors pronounced the disease which had been for some time attacking her, health of Mrs. Kenyon necrosis of the liver. It was hoped that she would be able to survive the attack, but the disease was the worse case and a few minutes after 11 o'clock her spirit passed away.

Mrs. Kenyon was in her 74th year when she died. She had been living with her son, P. C. Kenyon, for some time, and had always been considered in good health until recently. Two months ago she was taken to the funeral to mourn the loss. Her son, A. T. Kenyon of Cincinnati, O., and Mrs. C. S. Steyer of Omaha, her daughter, were sent for when it was known that Mrs. Kenyon's condition was dangerous. Both arrived last Wednesday.

Steamboat excursions by moonlight are again popular. Take it in tonight.

In Behalf of a Museum.

A meeting was held at the public library building Tuesday afternoon at which representatives of the Woman's club, the directors of the museum, the Omaha Western Art association were present. The object was to start a movement toward the acquisition of art objects suitable for exhibition in the public museum, which is about to be started in the museum building planned for it in the public library building. It was decided that donations should be asked from exhibitors at the exposition, such as minerals, woods, arms, ceramics, etc., and it is hoped that the response will be so generous as to make it possible to open two or more of the rooms by January 1, 1898. A nucleus has already been secured in the museum building, which will be donated by the Transmississippi and International Exposition.

Chronic Diarrhoea Cured.

This is to certify that I have had chronic diarrhoea ever since the war. I got so weak I could hardly walk or do anything. One bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured me sound and well.—J. R. Gibbs, Newcastle, Va.

Old Man Badly Hurt.

John Meers, 60 years old, was quite badly hurt Tuesday night when he fell from the roof of the building at the corner of Eleventh and Mason streets. He was driving a dirt wagon drawn by two excited mules, which lost their presence of mind in passing a large grading machine and ran away. Meers jumped while the team was in full career and was hurled high upon the roof. His leg was fractured below the knee and he was otherwise bruised and shaken. Meers lives at 1115 South Twelfth street and is an employe of the Cash grading company.

IDENTIFIES THE SHORT MAN

Samuel Newman Accuses John Cook of Being One of the Burglars Who Robbed Him.

Samuel Newman, the grocer at Tenth and Center streets, who was robbed of $1,000 worth of diamond jewelry ten days ago, and who positively identified John Cook, the "short" man of the two highwaymen captured Monday as one of the robbers, has filed a complaint of robbery against him. A warrant charging Cook with the crime was served on him in the county jail, where both men were taken last night.

Strenuous efforts are being put forth by the relatives of "Sassy" McDonald, the "long" man, to secure his release on bond, but so far their efforts have been unavailing.

Several houses the men are known to have frequented were searched by the police last night, but nothing was found.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that one, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed inevitable. For months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles she had been able to eat and sleep like Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Mannick & Co. of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free. Sent for when it was known that Mrs. Kenyon's condition was dangerous. Both arrived last Wednesday.

HELD UP IN A BARBER SHOP

Iowa Youth Falls Into the Hands of the Tonsorial Pirates and is Quickly Fleeced.

Theodore Erickson, newly arrived from Radcliff, Ia., was enticed into the shop of a rascally barber at 1515 Farnam street yesterday and separated from all his exposition money by the barber, who took a session and effected a shave from the door to the door of the shop, worth 10 and 15 cents, and he inquired within as to what made the difference in the charge. The point was made clear that the 10-cent rate did not include the upper lip and as the young man wished that passed over anyway he engaged the services on that basis. When the shave was over the barber kept right on and acceded to Erickson's account, both "burnt" his hair and "put something wet on it." Erickson had been in very few barber shops and supposed that the barber was putting in the extra by way of good measure.

When Erickson's appearance had been polished up as much as possible he brought up a long wallet and extracted 10 cents according to contract. The barber was satisfied by the barber, who reached in himself and took out what he thought was a proper amount. Erickson says he waited around for some time in the hope that he would be given change and finally protested when he was threatened and pushed out by the barber. The latter's name is Ike Martin, given on the police blotter as Morris. S. P. Emmel, police sergeant, was called and made objection during the serving of the warrant that he, too, was arrested for interfering with an officer.

John Phillips also reported that he was confronted with a bill for $1 during the afternoon, upon which payment was enforced.

WEAK SCAFFOLD GIVES WAY

Three Carpenters Get a Long Fall and One Receives Quite Serious Injuries.

By the giving away of a scaffolding of his own erection Joseph Sanfern and two companions were precipitated to the ground last night at the party given at the Reprint company's building at Eleventh and Howard streets yesterday afternoon. Sanfern sustained severe scalp wounds, a fractured collar bone and severe internal injuries. His recovery is in doubt. His companions, one of whom was Julius Brodthurn of 1811 Oak street, escaped with but superficial cuts and bruises. In falling Sanfern's body struck a double barred iron railing enclosing a cellar window with such force that the upper bar was broken and the lower doubled into a horse shoe.

The three men were carpenters and were engaged in repairing the window sills of the burned building at the time of the accident. They had completed their work on the second story and had created a splice to the scaffold to enable them to reach the third story windows and were just about to begin work when the structure gave way. One of the supporting cleats in the middle of the scaffold was found to contain but one nail at each end while all of the others contained at least a dozen.

Sanfern lives with his family at Sixteenth and Burt streets. He was taken to the Clarkson Memorial hospital.

The Best Remedy for Flux.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Omaha, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me."

HER SURETIES REJECTED

Mrs. Coder's Bond Turned Down by Judge Baxter as Being Insufficient in Guaranty.

Certain ample bonds of Mrs. Mary B. Coder, the tenant whom the Portsmouth Savings bank has been endeavoring to evict from Sherman avenue premises, have again been rejected. This time they were turned down by Judge Baxter, who said that they were not sufficient in guaranty.

The attorneys for both the Portsmouth Savings bank and the Philadelphia Mortgage and Trust company, the latter of which has been also trying to disposses her from other premises, entered objections against her bonds on the ground of the insufficiency and irresponsibility of her sureties. V. O. Strickler plainly charged that the name of Hans J. Johnson, one of the sureties, was a forgery, and it was also asserted that a certain Anna Anderson, whose name appeared upon the bonds, was a fictitious person. Judge Baxter went into a careful examination of the sureties. The real Hans J. Johnson who owned the lot in Sherman avenue park turned out to be a round house engineer of the Northwestern road and had never signed the bond, so he testified. Likewise it developed that the Anna Anderson of the bond and the Anna Anderson of fact were two persons, with the identity of the former a matter of mystery. Mrs. Anderson de facto was not even named in the deed to assert her claim to the Dupont place lot claimed by the other Anna Anderson, but had Thomas Creigh to attest to that fact also, as he had conducted her business for her, she being a widow. Like Engineer Johnson, she said she had never signed any bond for Mrs. Coder.

Another surety, Emil Lauritzen, claimed four lots in Grandview addition, but Judge Baxter is convinced that at least three of them are in the Missouri river. Lauritzen was one of the woman's sureties on an appeal bond rejected by Justice of the Peace Long, and District Judge Slabaugh sustained the Justice's position. All the other sureties of Mrs. Coder in both the cases of the Portsmouth Savings bank and the Philadelphia Mortgage and Trust company were rejected by Judge Baxter on one ground or another, some having so many judgments piled up against them that recovery on a bond would be impossible.

Hot Stuff.

You probably know that The Nebraska is one store in Omaha where you can buy goods—straight goods—for less money than any other store in America, day in and day out. You probably know that there isn't another store you ever had any dealings with that does business so near right, so fair to everybody, so open and above board and sell goods so near to actual cost as this Nebraska store. If you don't know these facts, it's because you haven't traded here. If you haven't traded here, we want you to begin today. Just to make it interesting for strangers as well as our regular customers, we open up today six great lines of Winter Underwear at 25 cents, 35 cents, 45 cents, 75 cents, one dollar and one dollar and a quarter a garment, and just to show that we're not afraid of the prices or the goods we have filled a whole window up with samples of these garments so that everybody can have a chance to see it. No matter how high the thermometer registers today, it will come a day when you'll be glad we called your attention to this window full of Winter Underwear. It's hot stuff in more ways than one.
