A LITTLE LIGHT.

Every young wo-man needs a little light upon the sub-ject of health. There is far too much newfashioned prudery among mothers. Every young woman should have ex-plained to her the necesberself pure and wholesome and free from weak-ness and disease in a womanly way. Her general health, her future happiness, her good looks, her physical strength, her capability as a wife and mother, and the ealth and strength of generations to come are dependent upon this.

Nothing in the world will destroy the good looks, wholesomeness, the amiability, and the usefulness of a woman quicker than disorders of the delicate and important organs that bear the burdens of maternity.

De Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the Dr. Pierce's Pavorite Prescription is the best of all medicines for women who are ailing in this way. It makes a woman strong and healthy where a woman most needs health and strength. It relieves pain, soothes inflammation, heals ulceration and gives rest and tone to the tortured nerves. It cures all the ills and pains too commonly considered an uncomfortable interior of woman in the strength of the st heritance of womankind. It has been used for over thirty years with an unbroken record of success. More of it has been sold than of all the other medicines for women combined. It is the discovery of Dr. R. V. combined. It is the discovery of Dr. R. V. Pierce, for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Sur-gical Institute, at Buffalo, N. V. He will cheerfully answer, without charge, all let-ters from ailing women.

"Three years ago," writes Mrs. I. N. Messler, of 1794 Vanderbilt Avenue. New York, N. 1., "the best physicians in this city said there was no cure for me—unless I would go to a hospital and have an operation performed. I could not walk across the room. I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and after three bottles I could work, walk and ride."

Torpid liver and constipation are surely and speedily cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They never gripe. They regulate, tone up and invigorate the liver, stomach and bowels. No substitute arged by mercenary dealers is as good.

GAMBLING TOOLS CAPTURED DRIVER ARCHIBALD ON TRIAL

Another Raid at South Omaha Results in Paraphernalia Being Taken.

NO GAMES ARE FOUND IN OPERATION

Supposition is that Plans Were Known to the Camblers in Advance-Effort to Replevin the Tools a Failure.

Somehow a well planned raid on fully a score of saloons in South Omaha in the turf congress was in executive session here hope that evidence of gambling would be found and at least a dozen arrests be made meeting. The name of the Little Rock club on charges of keeping gambling devices did not get any further than the "pulling" of two places Tuesday night. These places were the saloons of A. F. Hester and Blum & Sautter, both on N street in the 2600 block. Hester and Bernard Blum and Henry Sautter were all put under arrest. No gambling devices were found. Yesterday J. D. Courtney of the Star de-All pending applications for relief were referred to Hopper, Labold, Tariton and Reese as a special committee. This includes such cases as Venegeance, the alleged ringer at Windsor three years ago.

The following officers were elected: Fresident, S. R. Montgomery, Memphis; vice president, Robert Auli, St. Louis; treasurer, O. L. Bradley, Lexington, Ky.; recretary, F. C. Hopper, Covington, Ky.; auditing committee, Schulte, Reese and Fowler; committee, Schulter, Reese and Fowler; committee, Reese and Fowler; committee, Reese and Fowler; committ cloth are accustomed to make up a blg wagon load. They were all loaded on a truck of Mr. Carpenter's and during the afternoon brought to the court house and placed in the custody of Superintendent Miles Houck for safe keeping until further orders. An effort was made by the owners of the stuff to prevent it from getting into the hands of the county authorities by W. W. Donnelly swearing out a writ of replevin with which Constable J. J. Maly appeared at the court house at the same time the wagon load of gambling apparatus showed Carpenter's driver also made a representation, with a Union Pacific bill of lading in the name of Thomas Healy, that the stuff had been shipped recently from Rhode on the 9th, and intended to be shiped on to some locality indefinitely to the westward of Omaha. Mr. Baldrige concluded to have the contents of the truck unloaded and remain in the court house over night, at least, and then wait for further developments. It is said that the members of the gambling fraternity in South Omaha got wind of the intended raid in advance and cached their lay-outs in Carpenter's barn to throw Detective Greer off the track. Greer made the arrests of Hester, Blum and Sautter. Among the warrants out the names of J. R. Harvey, Fred Hefflinger and almost

THE REPORT OF THE PROPERTY OF SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

George Jackson and Frank Rogers were arraigned in the police court yesterday afternoon for having burgiar tools in their possession and they were both held to the district court in the sum of $1,000. Officers Morrisey and Aylward testified to having cap-the remaining two were declared off.

There was some good shooting and on the other hand there were a number of the shoigun amateurs who did not do as well as they have done in the past. On the whole, however, the shooting was of a good grade. Each of the eight events was at fifteen targets, $1.50 entrance. The purse was divided into four moneys. The results, including only those who were in on the police committee on the last escape has not been made yet, so that it is hardly probable that there will be any inquiry into the affair of yesterday.

When the escape of Jackson became known last night the comments on Chief Brennan's conduct were anything but complimentary. It is a fact that very few criminals captured here ever see the inside walls of the county jail for the reason that they either escape while confined here or else get away while being taken up to Omaha.

Stamps on Stock Sales.

Revenue stamps were placed on all bills to purchasers yesterday which were issued by commission men at the stock yards. The new rule charging the cost of the stamps to the shippers has gone into effect and will be observed from this time on until the gov ernment orders otherwise.

There is one thing about the new law to which the commission men object and that is the ruling regarding stamps past due. Agent Wheelock of the revenue office has directed that the commission firms go over their books and affix stamps on all bills rendered to purchasers since July 1. This the live stock dealers complain about and an appeal has been made to the authorities at Washington. Such an order would entail considerable expense on the commission men and an attempt will be made to avoid this portion of the tax if possible.

Service on the Stub Car.

Street car patrons are complaining about the service on the stub lines. Passengers are compelled to wait at the corner of Twenty-fourth and N streets from twenty minutes to half an hour for a car. This delay is caused by reason of the motorman being compelled to collect fares. On the Q street line, which is heavily loaded from the time it starts in the morning until after dark, the motorman pps the car while he works his way through the crowd and collects the fares. Visitors to the city object to this and complaints on the service rendered are continually made. It is understood that the city council will request the street car company to place conductors on these stub lines.

Prof. Wolfe Comes to Omaha.

Prof. Wolfe of Lincoln, who is to succeed A. A. Munro as superintendent of the public chools, is expected to arrive here today. Mr. Munro will continue in his official duties until the last day of the month, when he will step down and out. Prof. Wolfe intends to familiarize himself with the schools between this time and the date that he takes charge in order that he will not delay any of the plans of the Board of Education, Prof. Munro expects to leave soon after October 1 for the east, where he will take a post graduate course at one of the colleges.

Magie City Gossip. E. C. Price, manager at Swift and Company's plant here, has gone to New York and expects to take a trip to Europe before returning home. Friday night the democrats will hold a neeting at Pivonka's hall, Twenty-fourth and L streets, for the purpose of organizing a club of some sort.

Miss Myrtle Keefer, the new stamp clerk at the postoffice, is giving entire satisfac-tion and is serving the patrons of the office in a manner gratifying to all. John Latenser, the new superintendent of the government building, has posted a notice to the effect that he can be found here any afternoon between the hours of 1 and 3 p. m. J. J. Farnam the former superintendent, has gone east and will not return here. Nate Elliott of the Omaha fire reports service was in the city yesterday and spent some time in conference with the packing house officials and Manager Kenyon of the stock yards company. It is possible that the fire reporter service may be extended to Man Accused of Stealing a Package of Money Up for Preliminary Henring.

Little other than was published at the time of his arrest was developed yesterday at the hearing in police court of George Archibald, the driver for the Pacific Express company, who is accused of having robbed one of the company's wagon safes of an express package containing $3,000 while en route to the Tenth street depot on the morning of August 31. Six witnesses were examined for the state. They were: Frank M. Clark, paying teller of the First National bank, and Williard Chambers, assistant teller of the same bank; Michael O'Toole, money order clerk of the express company; H. Howes, junior member of the firm of Streight & Howes, commission merchants; G. W. Reye, shipping clerk at Streight & Howes, and Harvey Cooper of the commission firm of Ferron & Cooper.

The evidence adduced by these witnesses brought out nothing save the fact that the iron safe that was in Archibald's wagon had been half locked after the robbery; that is, the key had been turned in the lock but the bolt had not been shot into place. It was claimed before this that the safe door had been found wide open. This bit of information was given by Mr. Howes, who was the first to clamber into the wagon after Archibald had entered his store and stated that his safe had been robbed Howes, Reye and Cooper had been placed on the stand to disprove Archibald's state ment that he had left his team in the alley back of Streight & Howes' store, where the robbery had been committed, and had entered their places to pick up express mat ter and it was while he was in Streight & Howes' place that the robbery was commit ted. Each swore that he had not seen him prior to the robbery. Clark and Chambers of the bank simply swore to the signature in their express re celpt book of O'Toole, the money way-bill clerk of the express company, who received the package of money on the morning of August 31. Clark counted the money at the bank and Chambers tied it up and delivered it to O'Tcole. The money was consigned by the local bank to the Citizens National bank at St. Paul, Neb. O'Toole testified to having given the package to Archibald and to having received his signature in return for it. He also identified the four way-bills and two packages of express papers found after the robbery.

At the conclusion of the examination of these witnesses the hearing was continued until 9:30 this morning. The state has three more witnesses to examine. Assistant County Attorney Herring, who is prosecuting the case, is aided by Attorney W W. Morseman for the express company Timothy J. Mahoney is defending Archibald

HOT RACE OUT AT THE DEN

King Ak-Sar-Ben IV and His Knights See a Real Contest and Some Other Things.

"Go It, Dud."

"You better get a move on yourself, Billy." These were the exclamations heard shouted by hundreds of enthusiastic Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben at the big den last night at the conclusion of the great one night heel-andtoe tunnel race for the championship of the kingdom between the two distinguished statesmen of the local political world. Hon Dudley F. Smith and Hon, William I. Kierstead. The race went to the latter by about a quarter of a mile. After he had received the stakes the winner had to respond to the many calls for a speech. Smith worked hard all though the race, but before it was half over some jollied him like this: "Dud, if you don't run any better than this on election day, it's all over with you now."

The race was the feature of the meeting and was received with wild enthusiasm. During the last quarter stretch the excitement was at fever heat and some of the spectators were beside themselves. Billy Bennett tore up his straw hat and Captain Charlie Wilson broke his sword to show they were more interested in the race than in any mundane matters. A similar race between two of the most distinguished gentlemen of Omaha is on the card for next Monday night, the occasion of the last initiation. An immense crowd is anticipated and books are already being made on the

The Dupont Gun club was represented by a score of its visiting sharpshooters last evening. They were entertained with a special initiation and said they had a good time. John J. Hallowell of Philadelphia acknowledged the thanks of the marksmen to the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben in a few well selected quakerisms. Nerved to the furious ordeals of the initiatory proceedings by the presence of the gunners a half hundred citizens of Omaha embraced the opportunity to rap at the doors of the kingdom and be numbered among the chosen.

This evening there will be held the first chearsal of the knights chosen to ride on the floats of this year's pageants and to form the grand march at the coronation bail. Rehearsals will be held from now on until the autumnal festivities are inaugurated.

All Plead Not Guilty. Judge Munger had a squad of "innocents' brought before him yesterday for arraignment on alleged offenses against the United States law and all pleaded not guilty. Front Fishback and James Bryant were charged with selling liquor to Indians; J. Webster charged with selling liquor without a gov ernment stamp; F. J. Vanderberg of the American Business college, charged with using the mails for fraudulent purposes

kinson, charged with embezzling money or ders and postal funds. They were bound over to the November term of the United States court, but Fishback was released on his own recognizance Mrs. McAusland, stenographer at the Iowa building, was the victim of circumstances and a thief yesterday morning. She was returning to the exposition grounds. having come from her rooms at 2604 North Nineteenth street, and in entering the gate she got mixed up in the crowd. After getting out of the jam she noticed that her watch had been stolen. The watch was a present and she valued it very highly. Lose Their Coin.

Rudolph Johnson, previously employed on a farm near Millard, Neb., came to Omaha yesterday to relax and at midnight wound up at Jensen's saloon, Fourteenth and Cass streets, where he took his final draught and was put away by the bartender in a rear room. Finally Johnson and another man awake to find themselves intermingled in a snarl of legs and arms to the annovance of the stranger. He hunted a brick and struck Johnson on the head, inflicting a painful scalp wound. Johnson says also that he was robbed of $2 during the melee. His assailant has not been arrested. Israel Davis brought in $40 from Lyons, Neb., yesterday, which had been set apart as a fund to see the exposition. The money was diverted from its rightful channel and is now in an indefinite location in the Third ward. The woman in the case was Kittle Marshall, colored, who is now at the police station, but the money is still missing.

books to the ladies whose names I enclose. Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have given me great relief, and I will see these ladies personally and explain how they can be benefitted.

MRS. MARY RANKIN.

Wine of Graui

The most positive proofs of the great virtues of Wine of Cardui are furnished by women themselves. It is truly astonishing how they go about telling other sufferers of this great vegetable Wine. To be restored to perfect health after a long term of aches and pains is like being released from the grasp of death itself. It is such a relief to be able to cure yourself at home. Not only do you escape the humiliation of submitting to local examinations by physicians, but you have no big doctor bills to pay. And, best of all, Wine of Cardui does what you want done-IT CURES. It is a specific for falling of the womb, leucorrhœa, ulceration and inflammation, backache, headache and all other forms of trouble peculiar to women. It reaches the inner source of those ailments and completely heals.
