Safe Blowers Make a Haul.

Word was received by the authorities here yesterday morning that the Botna Valley State bank of Hastings., Ia., had been robbed during the night and the safe blown open, the robbers securing $2,135 and escaping with their booty. The safe was blown about 3 o'clock in the morning and although the sound of the explosion was heard by a number of people. Little attention was paid to it at the time, the sound being mistaken for that of firearms. A man named Brownell, the proprietor of a hotel, was the only person who considered it worth while to investigate, and when he reached the bank building he was knocked down, bound and gagged, in which condition he remained for over an hour, only being released when the fact of the robbery was, discovered shortly after 4 o'clock. The safe was literally blown to pieces, portions of it beposed to have been done by two men who were seen loafing about the town Tuesday. The bank was not insured against robbery.

The convention was called to order promptly at 11 o'clock in the superior court room of the county court house by Chairman Frank Everest of the county central committee, who named J. W. Roland of Neola as temporary chairman and E. H. Lougee of this city as temporary secretary. On assuming the gavel Chairman Roland announced that there would be no opportunity afforded anyone to work off any oratory on the convention, as the business in hand was to be got through with as quickly as possible so that every one could go to the exposition and help swell the an imposing spectacle. Governor Shaw was crowd at the Iowa day exercises. On motion of E. E. Hart it was decided to dispense with the usual committees and that the delegates answering the roll call be declared seated as the delegates to the convention. There had been no contests reported and on roll call it was found that every township and precinct, except Lincoln, was represented. Then, as a another time-saver, a motion declaring the temporary organization permanent carried and J. D. Johnson of Council Bluffs was appointed reading clerk. A. T. Flickinger moved that the convention remain in scssion until the business for which it had been called was completed and the motion carried without any opposition.

> Extend Sir Julian's Term. WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.-The retirement of Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, from the active diplomatic service would have occurred today had not the foreign office, as already announced, extended his term of service until next April in recognition of his long and capable service to the authorities here. The ambassador and his staff are still at Pequot, Conn., the plan being to re-open the embassy here on October 15. Secretary Tower has been assigned to Quebec to attend the meeting of the British-American commission.

> General Garcia is Coming. WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 .- It is expected y members of the Cuban delegation here that General Calixto Garcia, second in com mand of the Cuban forces during the war will come to this country in the course of the next two weeks. His coming is looked forward to with much interest in view of the prominent part he took in the military operations around Santiago, and the unforunate clash between him and General Shafter following the surrender of the city, His presence in this country is likely to raise a question regarding the old criminal proceedings pending against him.
