September Takes a Flurry, Goes Up to 70 Cents and Quietly Down at 68 1/4.

PORK, LARD AND RIBS ON A SLIGHT DECLINE

Provision Market Generally is Heavy on Large Receipts and a Decline at Liverpool-Corn and Oats Down.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—A flurry in September wheat closing prices, influenced to some extent by the unfavorable weather, liberal northwest movement and the fact that cables did not show as much strength as expected in view of the heavy rally here late yesterday. It soon developed, however, that September was in good demand and a very moderate supply, resulting in a rise to 70 cents, a loss of 1/4 cent as compared with yesterday. The closing price of December was 68 1/4, precisely the same as the price of September yesterday. Corn lost 1/2 cent and oats 1/4. Pork declined 1/2 cent, lard 1/4 and ribs 1/4.

Wheat opened at 67 3/4, declined from yesterday's closing price, influence to some extent by the unfavorable weather, liberal northwest movement and the fact that cables did not show as much strength as expected in view of the heavy rally here late yesterday. It soon developed, however, that September was in good demand and a very moderate supply, resulting in a rise to 70 cents, a loss of 1/4 cent as compared with yesterday.
