

HEALTH OF THIRD REGIMENT

Surgeon Grothan Says it is Mending as Rapidly as Possible.

TYPHOID FEVER'S FORCE IS SPENT

Sporadic Cases Expected for Some Time, but the Epidemic is Over-

Outbreak at Pabla Beach Due to Men's Indiscipline.

LINCOLN, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Major Grothan of St. Paul, surgeon of the Third regiment, Nebraska volunteers, passed through Lincoln yesterday, having been home today to see to it that the regiment is in a better condition than it was when he left for Pabla Beach, where the epidemic of typhoid fever broke out.

The epidemic of typhoid fever broke out at Pabla Beach, where the epidemic of typhoid fever broke out. The epidemic of typhoid fever broke out at Pabla Beach, where the epidemic of typhoid fever broke out.

Lincoln Local Notes.

At the meeting of the school board last night it was decided that the letting of the contracts for coal was to be put over until the next meeting.

The union printers of the city have announced a poster show and ball to be given under their auspices in the near future.

Mrs. Mary E. Ives, a millionaire of New Haven, Conn., left the city this evening for a trip through the western states and around through California to old Mexico and back.

The Klote, a publication under the auspices of the English club of the State university, made its initial appearance for the year today.

Harry Richards, a tramp, was arrested this morning in the Burlington city jail. He had on his person a number of counterfeit bills of the denomination of $100 and $50.

The coroner's jury sitting on the remains of William Rhodes, who was found hanging from a tree in the city, yesterday afternoon, found that he came to his death from hanging with suicidal intent.

Mrs. Mary Baker, the girl who was arrested recently, charged with incontinency, was judged guilty as charged. Her mother was present in the court room and made wild threats toward all concerned in the trial of her daughter.

There will be a meeting of the friends and relatives of the members of the First regiment of Nebraska volunteers tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. It will be held at the court house and all those who are interested in having that regiment re-enlisted are invited to attend the meeting.

Miss Lucy Maria Haywood gave a piano recital this evening in the hall of the Nebraska Conservatory of Music before a large audience. Her playing was excellent and she made a decided impression.

The turning down by the members of the city council of the bill to re-appoint Barnes as his successor in the council, was the topic of conversation in the city today.

Many of the friends of the deceased gentleman averred that there had been some trickery in the matter and that he had been put up simply for the purpose of slaughter. The vote was 4 to 8 against him.

Mayor Graham has signified his intention of handing in the name of W. J. Cooper, a former member of the council, who would appear will be Mrs. Will Owen Jones of this city.

The October term of federal court is in session in the government building, but so far Judge Munger has found nothing to occupy his attention during the term.

The jury for the term are: J. F. Morgan, Alma; W. H. Goid, Lamb; A. P. Mason, Tekamah; Charles W. Deane, Junction; W. Hall, Pierce; W. E. Heard, Harriburg; J. E. McNeill, Blue Springs; A. P. Beeman, Chapman; Logan Summons, Kearney; Augustus Deane, Deane; D. Deane, Albion; G. H. Ransom, Bancroft; W. H. Love, Lincoln; Willard Hammond, Lincoln; E. Tillman, Jr., Hooper; J. Larimer, Kearney; W. A. Kearney, North Bend; David Barloss, Hastings; M. K. McWhinnie, Hastings; Dave Hamilton, Kearney; D. Locker, Scotts Bluff; David City; R. French, Kearney; C. Lawrence, Hastings; W. R. Waite, Lincoln; O. G. Smith, Kearney; T. L. McLean, Boone; E. Post, Scotts Bluff.

Thieves at Calhoun. Two robberies were committed here last night. One was the robbery of the drug store and the other was the robbery of the store on the corner of the street.

Monument Unveiled. MEAD, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Valley camp, No. 29, Woodmen of the World, came over yesterday trying strong and, with the assistance of the local camp, unveiled the monument recently erected to the memory of John W. Harris, who was a member of the camp.

Dunn for Senator. COLUMBUS, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The populists and democrats of the Twelfth senatorial district, comprising Platte and Colfax counties, held their convention here, commencing yesterday, at 2 o'clock.

Normal School Notes. PERU, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The attendance at the normal school this year has reached a large number. About 400 have enrolled in the normal proper and it has been found necessary to place chairs in the chapel to seat the daily attendance.

Thieves at Syracuse. SYRACUSE, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The Review hotel was entered by burglars last night. Tobacco, cigars and what else there was in the drawer was taken. The chief haul made by the crooks was, however, at E. R. Haas' store, where they secured a quantity of clothing and shoes.

Normal School Notes. PENDER, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The populists and democrats of the Twelfth senatorial district, comprising Platte and Colfax counties, held their convention here, commencing yesterday, at 2 o'clock.

Picket for Senator. ASHLAND, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The republican senatorial convention for the Fifth district, comprising Saunders and Sarpy counties, assembled in this city this afternoon at the office of Police Judge Jesse N. Moon. S. P. Decker of Ashland, chairman of the senatorial committee for the last two years, called the convention to order.

Judge James Hasset of Pender was elected chairman, and W. S. Baker, postmaster of Gretna, secretary. V. L. Hawthorn of Wahoo nominated Hon. Thomas J. Pickett, jr., editor of the Wahoo Waap and chairman of the press committee of the republican state central committee, for senator. S. P. Decker seconded the nomination. There being no further candidates, Mr. Pickett was declared the unanimous choice of the convention. The candidate of today's convention is well known throughout Saunders and Sarpy counties, having served the people in the capacity of state senator several years ago. He will poll a large vote and should have a walkway from William D. Schaal, his fusion opponent.

Metaphors Opens the Campaign. HARLAN, Ia., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Hon. Smith McPherson, republican candidate for congress in this the Ninth district, opened the campaign in Shelby county as the county convention last Saturday. He came out squarely for the gold standard and also for the administration in its course during the recent war. The fight against Alger and others, Mr. McPherson reminded his hearers, was but a repetition of the abuse that was hurled at Lincoln and Stanton during the civil war. He referred to the horrors of the camp life and spoke of the great national cemeteries filled with graves marked "unknown." War, he argued, is bad enough always, but no worse now than in the past.

Every precinct in the county except Westphalia and Colfax seem to have been checked, though he expects sporadic cases for some time yet. The increase in sickness at the beach he says may have been accounted for by the theory that the old infection was in the ascendancy, or owing to some indiscretions of the men during the first few days after the outbreak.

The supreme court was in session today, but no cases of general interest were disposed of. Only arguments and motions in cases on the calendar were taken up.

The grand lodge of the Degree of Honor, Ancient Order of United Workmen, began its annual session this morning in Representative hall at the capitol. There was a very large attendance of delegates.

The usual routine of business was transacted. Before adjourning for the noon recess, the degree of honor was conferred upon a number of delegates.

Reports of the officers were read and accepted. Tomorrow will occur the annual election of officers. In the evening Capital lodge, No. 80, Ancient Order of United Workmen, will tender the grand lodge officers and visiting delegates a reception at the hall 515 O street.

Hon. E. H. Hinshaw, G. R. Williams and Senator Murphy. Ringing addresses were made and a feeling manifested by the audience which insured a big vote in this county for the straight ticket.

Judge Hayward's expose of the fusion argument was convincing and found a hearty response from his hearers. Mr. Hinshaw is making rapid strides in the district and becoming more and more popular as the people are coming to know him.

Republican Rally at Albion. ALBION, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The campaign was opened here last evening by a republican rally in the opera house addressed by Hon. W. S. Summers. For over two hours the speaker held up the platform of the various parties and discussed the issues therein contained.

He arraigned the present state administration before the people and showed the methods used by the present state officers to be able to make their boasted claims of economy. Tremendous applause greeted every mention of the name of Hayward.

The republicans of this county are wide awake and putting forth an enthusiastic campaign that is causing the demopops to worry over the results.

Peace Jubilee at Wymore. WYMORE, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The jubilee held at the Methodist church in this city last evening was attended by one of the largest crowds ever congregated in this beautiful edifice and was a success in every particular.

The meeting was presided over by Mayor Neuman and addresses were made by Mrs. Woodcock, the new Methodist minister's wife, and Rev. C. S. Dudley. A fine musical program, in which Wymore's best local talent participated, was also rendered.

A very substantial sum was realized, and it is believed that the fund for erecting a monument for the heroes of the Maine and of the late war.

Loss in a Fire. ITHACA, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Rev. A. V. Wilson, who is just moving from this place, was visiting in Schuyler over Sunday and had his team, buggy and harness burned in the livery barn of Mr. Ayes, which burned last Saturday night.

Fall wheat is all sown here and most of it is up. Some of the farmers have begun husking corn. Some fields will yield as much as thirty bushels per acre, but most of the fields will fall below twenty and some below ten.

Robbers at Calhoun. CALHOUN, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Two robberies were committed here last night. One was the robbery of the drug store and the other was the robbery of the store on the corner of the street.

Monument Unveiled. MEAD, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Valley camp, No. 29, Woodmen of the World, came over yesterday trying strong and, with the assistance of the local camp, unveiled the monument recently erected to the memory of John W. Harris, who was a member of the camp.

Dunn for Senator. COLUMBUS, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The populists and democrats of the Twelfth senatorial district, comprising Platte and Colfax counties, held their convention here, commencing yesterday, at 2 o'clock.

Normal School Notes. PERU, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The attendance at the normal school this year has reached a large number. About 400 have enrolled in the normal proper and it has been found necessary to place chairs in the chapel to seat the daily attendance.

Thieves at Syracuse. SYRACUSE, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The Review hotel was entered by burglars last night. Tobacco, cigars and what else there was in the drawer was taken. The chief haul made by the crooks was, however, at E. R. Haas' store, where they secured a quantity of clothing and shoes.

Normal School Notes. PENDER, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The populists and democrats of the Twelfth senatorial district, comprising Platte and Colfax counties, held their convention here, commencing yesterday, at 2 o'clock.

Picket for Senator. ASHLAND, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The republican senatorial convention for the Fifth district, comprising Saunders and Sarpy counties, assembled in this city this afternoon at the office of Police Judge Jesse N. Moon. S. P. Decker of Ashland, chairman of the senatorial committee for the last two years, called the convention to order.

POLITICS IN SOUTH DAKOTA

Populist Orators Are Drawing Slim Houses Right Along.

FRANK PETTIGREW THEIR STAR SPEAKER

He Hoves Against Republicans and Abuses the Administration—Republican Leaders Expect to Carry the State.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—In his speech opening the campaign in Sioux Falls, Senator Pettigrew gave it as his prediction that the fusionists would carry South Dakota next month by 15,000 majority.

This prediction will come no nearer realization than did the senator's prophecy in the summer of 1896 that if McKinley were elected wheat would sell on the streets of Sioux Falls before January 1, 1897 at "20 cents a bushel."

In fact, the fusionists are very much alarmed. They began their campaign several weeks ago, but they are unable to see that any progress has been made.

Senator Pettigrew has spoken four times in Sioux Falls already and no time did he have a house more than two-thirds full.

Congressman Knowles spoke here to a very meager and listless house. Even Senator Dubois, whose bolt with Mr. Pettigrew at St. Louis helped to advertise him here, could not get but a very small audience.

The lesser lights have had an awful time of it. The farmers will not attend the populist meetings. There are too busy threshing an immense crop, buying more land, putting up new buildings, paying off old debts, and getting things in shape for a comfortable and happy winter to take interest in such things.

The populists all over the state make the same complaint. They say it is an off year and that for this reason the farmers refuse to become interested in the campaign.

However, they say it is because the farmers have lost faith in the silver program, that they have learned a lot about the money question in the last year, and that one of the most painful surprises which will come to the populist cause will be the large vote which the republican committee will give out to figures, and making no claims, for publication.

It is known, however, that Chairman Herried and Colonel Orr, the secretary, are both growing daily more confident of a tremendous republican victory in November.

Great Call for Literature. The republican committee is not complaining of apathy among the farmers. In fact there is a tremendous demand for campaign literature of the republican sort in the rural districts and the conclusion is being reached that the farmers are doing much study upon both the money and the tariff questions.

Reports to the local county committee show a very heavy falling off of the populist vote in townships where such republican gains were least expected.

The local committee are doing much study upon both the money and the tariff questions. Reports to the local county committee show a very heavy falling off of the populist vote in townships where such republican gains were least expected.

One of the peculiar features of the campaign is the anti-corruption talk being made by Mr. Pettigrew and those under his influence. To be sure, Mr. Pettigrew professes to believe that the great issue in the campaign is that of silver, but he is the only one who has not taken the issue, and his talk is perfunctory and listless.

Mr. Pettigrew talks loud and long against the railroads, yet it is known that he killed the Wheeler bill in 1885, and did it in order to secure his re-election to the senate. He is charged with having accepted a $10,000 contribution to his campaign fund from President Hill of the Great Northern in 1894, a charge which he has never denied, though it has been repeatedly and conspicuously published.

Rails Against McKinley. Senator Pettigrew's friends were very much surprised at the speech he made here in opening his campaign for the fourth time. After talking for an hour and a half, he criticized the administration for permitting our soldiers to charge up San Juan with old style Springfield rifles while the Spaniards had Mauser rifles.

Mr. Pettigrew said that he had seen the soldiers with Mauser rifles and that he had seen the Spaniards with Springfield rifles. He said that he had seen the soldiers with Mauser rifles and that he had seen the Spaniards with Springfield rifles.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

WHEELER GIVES TESTIMONY

(Continued from First Page)

His testimony chiefly to his experience at Camp Wikoff, Montauk Point. The president on giving him command there had ordered him to spare no pains or expense to make the men comfortable. He made an examination of the camp and found it necessary to undertake much preparation to care for the men properly, to bore wells, lay water pipes, build laundries, disinfecting plank floors for the tents, erect hospitals, etc.

The surgeons, at his request, had made a list of special articles to be purchased for the sick. This he had asked them to do in obedience to the president's orders. The list included evaporated fruits, green corn in cans, sugar cured hams, oatmeal, fish, rice, canned peas, milk, pickles, lemons, oranges, eggs, tea, fruit and many other articles in addition to their regular supplies.

And I undertake to say, General Wheeler declared, "that no army on earth was ever so abundantly supplied with necessities and luxuries."

The general location of the transportation facilities for the campaign was discussed. It was but one line of railroad, and that a single track, and without adequate terminal facilities. The camp could have been supplied by water, but, unfortunately, there was a contract with the railroad company which prohibited the use of the water.

All transportation except that on government transports. This contract had been made, he understood, in return or the use of the land. He did not know who had made the contract.

Needs Supplied Promptly. There were good hospitals erected, but there was a scarcity of nurses. He immediately went to the city and secured six nurses here with an abundance. He summoned the surgeons for a consultation each morning and would order immediately by wire any article needed.

The hospital tents were, he said, all floored. The patients were laid upon mattresses on the floor, and were supplied with clean bed linen. From first to last 10,000 patients entered the hospitals at Montauk. The hospitals had, when he landed, a capacity of not to exceed 900 and so far as he knew the hospitals were full.

Over 8,332 of the Santiago troops had been reported sick on arrival, but many others of the arrivals were really sick.

Visiting women had made frequent complaints to him of the conditions in which sick men were not properly cared for, but he found upon investigation in each case that the physicians said the women were mistaken.

General Wheeler explained that the reason there was so much complaint about the burials was that the burial ground was so near and so plainly in view. Only 260 of the men had died in the existence of the camp. He knew nothing of the details of interments and could not say whether any bodies had been donated to the city.

Upon the whole he thought the fact that there had been no spread of yellow fever from the camp was quite marvelous. One of the greatest difficulties he had encountered was to properly control the removal of sick soldiers by railroads.

Where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion. General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded and the men were where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion.

MISSOURI NEWS NOTES

A St. Joseph theatrical man was arrested and fined for failing to pay the war tax on one of his shows.

Rev. J. M. O'Brien of Macon gave a bully a much-deserved licking for swearing in the presence of women.

A female bootblack from Chicago stopped for a week in Sedalia and became so popular that she earned $30 blacking shoes in one day.

Female church members of St. Joseph will operate the hardware stores of that village for one day and turn the receipts over to charity.

One of the oldest engineers on the Hannibal & St. Joseph line frightened his crew by running down the steepest grades at 11 around the sharpest curves without slackening speed.

A Webb City Charles Williams, a prominent citizen, attempted to eject a tramp from his premises. The tramp drew a knife and was met by a similar weapon.

In Jackson county every stranger is looked upon as a detective and since the recent series of train robberies it is said to be really dangerous for a stranger to be found in that particular part of the county known as "crack" country for fear of being shot by friends of suspected train robbers.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.

The old ex-confederates of Missouri are in arms because the detectives of Kansas City have intimated that One-Eyed Jack Shepard engineered the last robbery of the country.