ATTENDANCE S NOT VERY LARGE

Few Who Are Here Go at Their Work with Great Enthusiasm and Vigor.

The twenty-ninth annual session of the Iowa state grange, Patrons of Husbandry. opened at Woodman hall yesterday morning and will continue over Thursday. The attendance at the morning session, which was called to order at 11 o'clock by A. B. Judson of Silver City, master of the state grange, was rather slim, and, beyond appointing a committee on credentials and arranging other preliminaries for the meeting, little other business was transacted, and the morning was chiefly spent by the delegates present in renewing acquaintances and forming new ones. The following were appointed the committee on credentials: Mrs. J. S. Davis of Murphy, S. A. Holcombe of Hillsdale and G. G. Wright of Mount Pleasant. A number of delegates arrived during the morning and the attendance at the afternoon session showed a decided increase over that of the morning. A number of reports were read and the following committees appointed:

MATTERS IN THE DISTRICT COURT Novel Petition for Divorce Filed by Mrs. Marcia R. Glynn.

Mrs. Marcia R. Glynn filed a petition for divorce from her husband, Archibald Glynn, in the district court yesterday, which is somewhat out of the ordinary run of such petitions. Mrs. Glynn sets forth that she was married August 23, 1877, in Mills county and that there are four minor children as a result of the marriage, of which she asks the court to award her the custody. The petitioner, who lives on a farm in Silver Creek township, states in her petition that after she and her husband had been married about two years it was found that the eighty acres belonging to her were not sufficient for farm purposes and an adjoining eighty acres was purchased, the title to same being taken in the name of her husband, although the money with which the farm was bought belonged to her and that therefore by rights the land is her property. All the improve ments, including the home of the family, were made on this second eighty acres. He husband in December, 1895, was adjudged insane and committed to the asylum at Clarinda, where she now alleges he is incurably insane. Mrs. Glynn also alleges that prior to her husband becoming insane, and in fact from the time of their marriage, he had treated her in a cruel and inhuman

Mc-Cormick seeks to recover the sum of $220, which he claims is the value of certain household furniture and articles of jewelry alleged to have been taken and retained by the Rices despite the protests and request of McCormick that they be returned to him. The property in controversy form erly belonged to the mother of McCormick who died September of last year. Mrs. Mc Cormick was a sister to Mrs. Rice, and the latter claims that the furniture and jewelry had been bequeathed to her. On the death of Mrs. McCormick the plaintiff, Mrs. Rice sets up in her answer, refused to turn the

REVOLTING TRAGEDY IN A PENITENTIARY

Leaves a Letter in Which She Claims That Her Mother is Innocent of the Crime of Murdering Michael Smith.

DES MOINES. Oct. 11 .- (Special Telegram.)-The attorney general today received news that Cora Smith, alias Cora dent McKinley's visit here. Most of the McCamly, who committed suicide yesterday at the Anamosa penitentiary, where she was serving a life sentence with her mother for the murder of her father, committed suicide by eating spiders. A large number of dead spiders were found tied up in her handkerchief and investigation shows that she met her death from the effect of eating these revolting insects.

The courts of the prison where the female criminals are allowed to take their exercise are surrounded by high stone walls. Here, it is said, the spiders come out from the crevices of the rocks to bask in the sunshine during the day. It was during these walks that she conceived her purpose and her morbid mind dwelt upon the terrible deed. She caught the spiders and secreted them been enjoying good health before committing the deed, but met a terrible death. Before she died she wrote the following confession and left it where the prison officials could get it:

Hon. Milton Remley, Attorney General: Dear Sir-I will write you these few lines, as I want everything clear. I have repented for all my sins and I feel as if I was forgiven. My health is failing so rapidly I know I am going into consumption. I want to tell you the truth about my mother's case, as it will go before you. Ellen Scoville and myself poisoned my stepfather, Michael Smith. Ellen made a peach pie for supper and put rat poison in it, also in his coffee, and that night I put rat poison in a glass of water and he drank it.

"I have never been sorry that I told the truth, but God knows I hope you will do all you can for my dear mother, for she is suffering for something she never done. It breaks my heart. I want to tell the truth about everything. My dear mother is innocent of what she is charged with. I cannot stand it to see her suffer so. It worried me dreadfully. This is the truth as sure as God is my creator and I repeat once more that my mother is innocent, so do all you can for her. I am not sorry for the confession I made, but I am ready to die, so I ask you again to belp my mother. No one knows I truth. Yours truly. CORA M'CAMLY.

My Dear Sir: I enclose a pledge for monthly contributions to the cause of bi metallism until October, 1000 together with the installment for this month. I most cordially endorse the plan adopted by the com-mittee and am confident it will result in the collection of a large fund for the circulation of bimetallic literature. OVER-WROUGHT NERVES OF WOMEN.

Extracts From Letters Received by Mrs. Pinkham.

"I am so nervous and wretched." "I feel as if I should fly." How familiar these expressions are. Little things annoy you and make you irritable. You can't sleep, you are unable to lift ordinary burdens, and are subject to dizziness. That bearing-down sensation helps to make you feel miserable.

You have backache and pains low down in the side, pain in top of head, later on at base of the brain.

Such a condition points unerringly to serious uterine trouble. If you had written to Mrs. Pinkham when you first experienced impaired vitality, you would have been spared these hours of awful suffering. Happiness will be gone out of your life forever, my sister, unless you act promptly. Procure

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and begin its use, then write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., if there is anything about your case you do not understand. You need not be afraid to tell her the things you could not explain to the doctor, your letter is seen only by women and is absolutely confidential. Mrs. Pinkham's vast experience with such troubles enables her to tell you just what is best for you, and she will charge you nothing for her advice. Mus. JENNIE BIERLY, Youngdale, Pa., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-Will you kindly allow me the pleasure of expressing my gratitude for the wonderful relief I have experienced by taking your Vegetable Compound. I suffered for a long time with nervous prostration, backache, headache, loss of appetite, a heavy bearing-down feeling, also burning pains in the groins. I could not sleep, was tired all the time, had no ambition. Life was a burden to me. The pains I suffered at times of menstruation were something dreadful. I thought there was no cure for it. I saw your advertisement in the paper, and my husband advised me to try your medicine. I took five bottles, and now I am well and happy. Your medicine saved my life."
