

LOW RATES FOR CLOSING DAY

Railroads Make a Tempting Offer to Nebraska Patrons.

THREE MORE DAYS OF REDUCED TARIFFS

Saturday, Sunday and Monday, at Eighty Per Cent of the One-Way Fare Will Apply Within the 200-Mile Limit.

For Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the last three days of the Transmississippi Exposition, the lines entering Omaha from the north, south and west have made wonderfully low rates.

The rates to be offered on these three days will amount to 80 per cent of the one-way fare for the round trip to Omaha from all points within 200 miles of Omaha, except east of the Missouri river.

While the rates agreed upon by the Nebraska lines are supposed to be limited to a radius of 200 miles, they are not. The Union Pacific is going to give the people of North Platte, 224 miles from Omaha, to enjoy the rates.

The tickets on these rates will be offered for sale on Saturday morning for the first time by these railroads: The Union Pacific, the Burlington, the Elkhorn, the Missouri Pacific, the Rock Island and the Omaha road.

All of the passing officials are confident that the rates will bring in an enormous attendance. It is expected that more people will be attracted to Omaha for the closing day than for the opening day.

BURIAL OF THE WRECK VICTIMS.

One of the Men Killed Was to Have Been Married Monday.

The aftermath of the Union Pacific wreck at Silver Creek, Neb., on Wednesday, brings to light one of the saddest stories known in local railroad circles for many a day.

William B. Shannon, the head brakeman of freight train No. 27, who died from his injuries, was to have been married next Monday to Miss Louise Snyder of Sioux City, Ia.

The funeral of Samuel Hindman, the Union Pacific engineer who was killed in the wreck, will not take place from his late residence in this city, but from his former home in Grand Island, Neb.

KEEPING THE RAILROADS BUSY.

Special Trains Necessary to Handle Exposition Business.

As the time for exposition excursions grows shorter the Omaha terminal lines continue to bring in increasing crowds of visitors. The Northwestern this afternoon had three special excursions in addition to their regular trains.

WATCHING SHORT LINE ELECTION.

Opinion that Union Pacific Men Will Be Chosen President.

There is great interest manifested in local railroad circles over the annual meeting of the directors of the Oregon Short Line, which will be held in New York City this afternoon.

Two names are most frequently heard in connection with the presidency of the Oregon Short Line. These are Edward Dickinson, general manager of the Union Pacific, and H. G. Hurt, president of the Union Pacific.
