REGISTRATION FALLS BEHIND

Total Now Barely Two-Thirds of What it Was Two Years Ago. VOTERS SEEM INDIFFERENT TO THE MATTER. Second Day's Totals Disclose the Difference Between 1898 and 1896 in Fifty-One of the Precincts of the City of Omaha. Yesterday's registration was somewhat better than that on the first day, but it is a long way from coming up to what it was two years ago. All the wards, based on the figures collected by The Bee last night, show increases over the first day's registration except the Sixth, Eighth and Ninth. The largest increase was in the Second ward, where it was almost 100. The registration booths in fifty-one districts, two-thirds of the city, were visited last night between the hours of 8:30 and 9:30, and of the figures collected those in twenty-one districts were the totals for the day, as shown by the reports of the registrars. The total registration in these fifty-one districts yesterday was 3,453, and on the first day it was 3,229, making an increase of 224. The total registration for the two days in these fifty-one districts is 6,682, while for the same districts two years ago the total was 10,704, the approximate proportion for this year being about three-fifths of that of two years ago. The figures collected by The Bee last night were as follows, the districts marked with a * being the complete:

| Ward         | District         | Day | Total |
|--------------|------------------|-----|-------|
| FIRST WARD.  | First district   | Day | 76    |
|              | Second district  | Day | 46    |
|              | Third district   | Day | 35    |
|              | Fourth district  | Day | 39    |
|              | Fifth district   | Day | 35    |
|              | Sixth district   | Day | 35    |
|              | Seventh district | Day | 35    |
| SECOND WARD. | First district   | Day | 61    |

WHAT WOMEN SHOULD WEAR

(Continued from Fifth Page.) quickened souls; that every mother, looking into her child's eyes, might be able to say, "I am blessed and happy because in the world." I pray God that we all might help our republic to quicken and bless the world with our cosmopolitan religion. Rev. Anna Shaw followed with an entertaining talk on woman's place in religion. Woman had been the mainstay of the church yet no institution had been so slow to accord her her place as the church. That Pauline test, "Let your women keep silence in the church" had been used so much that it ought to have been used up by this time. No church, from the time of Susannah Wesley, the mother of John and Charles Wesley, had been so much benefited by woman's work as the great Methodist denomination. Miss Shaw was as usual full of the humorous in her handling of her subject. Gratitude of the Women. The meeting closed with an address from the president, Mrs. May Wright Sewall of Indianapolis, in the course of which she complimented the press and public of Omaha as follows: In bringing to a close the tenth annual executive session of the National Council of Women of the United States I may not for bear this opportunity to express in the name of the council the keen and grateful appreciation which it will always hold toward the citizens of Omaha for the gracious courtesies, the generous hospitality and the cordial reception which has been given to our body. It is fitting to bear public testimony, not only to the uniform courtesy, but to the justice which has characterized the press of Omaha in its discussion of the council meetings. We thank the management of The Omaha Bee for the space accorded in its columns to the proceedings of this meeting; we thank it also for the use it has made of the space which it granted; we thank it for sending to our sessions an intelligent and accurate reporter who has evidently endeavored to grasp and to report faithfully the proceedings of our sessions. I wish to avail myself of this public opportunity to express the thanks of the council to the local section of the National Council of Jewish Women. The beautiful breakfast which was tendered by the local section out of respect to the national body of which it is a member to the National Council of Women illustrates how affiliation with the council multiplies, broadens and deepens our social relations. The National Council of Women has also a deep sense of what it owes to the Woman's club of Omaha. The local advertising which has been done for the national body of which it is a member to the National Council of Women illustrates how affiliation with the council multiplies, broadens and deepens our social relations. ### SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

Manager Kenyon has decided to experiment with Sherman gravel for a flooring in the pens and alleys. Several years ago the stockmen commenced to complain about the plank flooring and vitriol brick was given a trial. At first the brick appeared to be satisfactory, but those who are in the saddle nearly all the time assert that horses and cattle slip on the brick and for that reason it is not a success. A large pen in the western part of the yards has been covered with four inches of Sherman gravel and this will be tested for some time. In case it is satisfactory the gravel will be used in the cattle pens and some of the alleys. It is not the intention to take up the brick already laid but if the gravel is better than a solid pavement it will be used as improvements are made. Political Pointers. Kay W. Hunt, the republican candidate for assessor in the First ward, is making friends rapidly and feels confident of his election. Henry Kelsey of Millard, republican candidate for county commissioner, spent yesterday in the city looking after political matters. Mr. Kelsey is led to believe that he will go out of South Omaha with quite a majority over his democratic opponent. David H. Mercer, republican candidate for congress, spent yesterday in the city. Mr. Mercer was shown through Swift's and Hammond's plants by B. E. Wilcox. At every turn Mr. Mercer was greeted cordially and the support of the laboring man was promised to the man who has done so much for South Omaha. High School Classes Elected Officers. The classes at the High school held a meeting a few days ago and organized by electing officers. Following is the list: Seniors—Bertha Clarke, president; Mary Darling, vice president; Claire Wilsey, secretary; Edna VanArman, treasurer. Juniors—Perrille Wheeler, president; Florence Smith, vice president; Florence Pennington, secretary; Byron Smiley, treasurer. Sophomores—Charles Lefler, president; Nora Smith, vice president; Estelle Gray, secretary. The object of organizing the classes is to stimulate a school and class spirit. Time is allotted for the meeting of these organizations once a month. Grading for New Cudahy Barn. The grading for the new Cudahy barn was completed yesterday and when completed this barn will be the largest in the city and will accommodate nearly 100 horses. The cost will be in the neighborhood of $10,000. Work on the artesian well is still progressing. At the present time the hole is down over 1,700 feet and still water in flowing quantities has not been struck. Mr. Cudahy said he would keep on drilling for awhile, as the prospects for water constantly increased and he expected to strike a flowing stream within the next hundred feet. Registration Slim. As has been customary in the past the second day's registration was rather slim. While a good many registered the number does not by any means show the strength of the vote in this city. A great many people seem to think that because they registered last spring it is not necessary to register again this fall. Every one who wishes to vote next month must register. Only one more day for registration. That is on November 5. CHAMBERLAIN'S Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This is the best medicine in the world for bowel complaints. It acts quickly and can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. Many families are never without this remedy and always find it prompt and effectual. For sale by every druggist in Omaha. Library Board Meeting. The Public Library board held its regular monthly session last evening, with all members present except Dr. Hanchett. Besides receiving the usual reports from the librarian and auditing the bills to the amount of $1,072 the board transacted considerable routine business. It was decided to close the library next Monday in recognition of Omaha day at the exposition. A special resolution in acknowledgment of the successful work of Victor Rosewater for the recent library congress was adopted. Two committees were created, one a permanent committee on art and museum, consisting of President Reed, Haller and Hanchett, and a second to investigate and report on the condition and needs of the library, consisting of President Reed, Rosewater and Leavitt. The first named committee was empowered to take full charge of all donations made in response to the appeal for contributions to a municipal museum. From the Granite Hills of New Hampshire comes Londonderry Lullia Water. Soft, light, and absolutely pure. Paxton, Gallagher & Co., Distributors. Sold by Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., Omaha, Neb.
