There is a demand for this class of office help when well trained. Money spont for a practical shorthand education pays a big return on the investment. Boyles' school is the only one in the city presided over and directed by an expert reporter, actually engaged in the practice of the shorthand profession; and this school has more calls for competent young men and women than it can supply and more than all the other schools of the kind in the city combined. "THAT WONDERFUL WOMAN:
So all Omaha speaks of the famous Mme.
Gylmer, palmist and life reader; this marvelous woman has the power to lift the mystic vell from off the future, to expose the hidden mysteries of the past; in the simple lines of your hand she sees your entire life; can tell you things that have been, that are and are to be; her addle, based upon this knowledge, is of incalculable benefit; consult her in strictest confidence; Mme. Gyimer has been here more than a year; the public knows her, the press endorses her; she is no stranger—no fakir; money refunded if not satisfactory. Hours, 9 to 7:30; Sundays,
