Captain Harry Gooch of Company H said he knew that most of the men in his company had had enough of it under the old plan and that the only manner in which interest could be revived would be by the establishment of a sort of a club with a reading room and gymnasium attached. Such an arrangement would attract young men from the best families in Sloux City and by enjoying the privileges of this club they would, in a measure, feel compensated for the time spent with the militia company.

Lieutenant George Haley of Company L is of the same opinion as Captain Gooch, as were also Sergeant Hamilton, Corporals Mc-Donald, Winnie Belden and others.

Iowa's Dairy Industry.

DES MOINES, Nov. 3 .- (Special.) - The dairy business has grown during the last year, notwithstanding the fact that last year was such a phenomenal year. The number of creameries and skim stations in Iowa made at either Halifax or the Bermuda last year was 891 and this year it is 947. Though 120 new ones were started, sixty-six were closed. Of the sixty-six that closed factories are doing business now than a instituted proceedings in the supreme court ning between Havana, year ago, when there were seventy-six, today for several wholesale houses of Kan- and Kingston, Jamaica.

Some are on both lists, so the net gain is the difference between the totals, less the doubles, which gives 958 for last year. The output may not be as large, though the statistics of production have not been received at the state dairy commissioner's office. Prices, however, are better, so the result not greatly different to butter producers.
