RALLY IN THE THIRD WARD

Colored Republicans Turn Out to Hear the County Candidates.

ALL URGED TO VOTE STRAIGHT TICKET

Battin, Kierstead, Beverly, Strawn and Williams Tell the Third Ward Voters of the Issues of the Present Campaign.

The colored republicans of the Third ward turned out in their full strength last night at a rousing meeting at the corner of Twelfth street and Capitol avenue to listen to some stirring republican speeches and to enjoy a barrel of oysters which Nathaniel Brown opened for them. The Eagle Mandolin club was on hand, too, and gave some fine music of an appropriate character. James Smith singing some campaign songs, accompanied by William M. Robb and Jesse Ford with guitars. The meeting was presided over by O. W. Jackson. The speakers were: John W. Battin, J. A. Beverly, William I. Kierstead, Winfield S. Strawn, G. R. Williams, J. B. Woods and several others. Every speaker urged a vote for the straight republican ticket and put in a word for V. B. Walker.

DEPOSITORS GET IMPATIENT

Creditors of Defunct Savings Banks Demand More Vigorous Action Concerning Their Claims.

About fifty of the 3,000 depositors in the defunct savings banks of the city—the German, the Nebraska and the Midland—held a meeting last night at 2205 Parham street to devise ways and means of getting the money they have in the institutions. After a lengthy and very discordant meeting it was decided to send a committee to the equity judges, to ask them to discharge the receivers of the banks, sell the assets and distribute the proceeds among the depositors and institute proceedings against the stockholders for the remaining deposits. This committee was formed as follows: John M. Aikin, Miss R. E. Burke, Miss Mary Fairbrother and J. O'Shaughnessy, representing the Nebraska Savings bank; T. A. Norris, Dr. George Wilkinson, Duff Green and W. F. Wappler, representing the German Savings bank; and Daniel Carey, Amos Metzler and Thomas Douglas, representing the Midland bank depositors.

ELEVATORS WOULD OVERFLOW

Reconsigning Privilege Would Boom Local Grain Industry.

RAILROADS MAY READJUST RATES

Storage-in-Transit Allowed in Other Cities and Omaha Grain Men Feel that Same Privilege Should Obtain Here.

The discussion of securing arrangements with the railroad companies whereby grain may be stored at Omaha, instead of being hurried through here to Chicago and St. Louis, is rife among freight men as well as grain men here, and from the interest manifested in the movement it is believed that it will be fruitful of good results. Encouraged by the success of Kansas City, whose leading men urged the railroad to put in storage-in-transit rates there, and finally secured what they went after, the grain men of Omaha feel that they can obtain similar concessions for this city. There appears to be no positively retardative element, as even the officials of a number of the railroads express themselves as willing to co-operate with any fair movement to secure the results desired.

DEATH RECORD.

Stable and Cattle Destroyed. ELKHORN, Neb., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—At 5:30 a. m. today Green Swaze's barn and sheds were burned. The fire was discovered when it was too late to save anything and five horses, three cows and thirteen calves perished. Hay, small grain, harness, etc., to the amount of $200 was also consumed. The origin of the fire is unknown. The property was not insured.

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

Councilman Wear thinks if the city goes to the expense of putting in police telephone stations, a patrol wagon ought to be purchased in order to make the system complete. When an arrest is made now the officer has to walk his prisoner to the jail and this means a long tramp, as some of the beats are a long way from police headquarters. Under the present charter, only 5 miles is allowed for police purposes and this is not enough for a city of this size. It was stated yesterday that an effort would be made this winter to have the legislature take some action on this matter and increase both the fire and police levies. With a little more money a patrol wagon could be purchased and maintained.

Last Day of Registration.

Today is the third and last day of registration and an effort will be made to get every voter to register before it is too late. Captain Austin of the central committee and Henry C. Murphy, who is in charge of the republican headquarters in this city, propose to have one or more men in each ward today to look after the registration. A list of the republican voters who have not registered has been compiled and these voters will be visited during the day. Only a few over 1,000 names have been registered so far, leaving at a low calculation 1,300 voters who have not registered.

RELATIVES OF WHITTING.

Undertaker Brewer has succeeded in locating the relatives of Herbert V. Whitting, the man who died at the South Omaha hospital a day or two ago. The wife of the deceased lives in Van Buren, Ark., and she has instructed Mr. Brewer to prepare the remains for burial and to forward them to her. The deceased was formerly an enlisted man in the Twenty-second Infantry, stationed at Fort Crook. He left the army about a year ago and went south. Relatives of Mrs. Whitting were found in Omaha through the notice of the death published in The Bee.

Twenty-Third Street is Ready.

Twenty-third street is now open from Vinson street to this city. Last year the city of South Omaha graded this street from A to F streets, but there was considerable delay in doing the necessary work at the Omaha end of the street. Finally Mayor Enos induced Mayor Moore and Engineer Rosewater to come down and take a look at the road and as the cost of fixing it up was not much the work was done. The completion of this work gives South Omaha another northern outlet which was badly needed.

Opening Madison Street.

Councilman Barrett is pushing his scheme to open Madison street across the Union Pacific tracks. The matter has now gone to the streets and alvays committee for investigation and it is expected that a report will be made before long. Madison street is now desired to make a crossing across the railroad right of way. The expense of condemning this property would not amount to much, Mr. Barrett says, and he hopes to see the project go through.
