state central committee raised his estimate of the republican majority in Iowa from

50,000 to 60,000. Hancock says decisive figures from sixty-eight conties show that gress in every district will be elected by good, round majorities. The total majority on the whole ticket is placed at about 60,000. This depends largely on the extent of the vote and is based on the following

Republicans Feel Sure of Carrying Their Broadway. County Ticket Through.

CHAIRMAN EVEREST ON THE SITUATION

He Says the Party is in Excellent Condition at the Close of the Campaign-State Chairman Hancock Issues an Appeal.

"There is no visible reason why the entire county ticket should not be elected and believe when the ballots are counted my prediction will be verified. Reports from all over the county indicate that Pottawattamie will be right in line with a good republican majority.'

So spoke Frank Everest, chairman of the republican county central committee, yesterday evening. The campaign this year has unusual in the general apathy and Lieutenant John Albro of Torrey's Rough Riders is in the city visiting his brother, Sam Albro, of the police force. Lieutenant Albro is on his way home to Wyoming from hard to distinguish that today was the batlittle interest shown by the public at large tle of ballots. The democrats, even the most sanguine of them, do not expect to elect the whole county ticket, but are hopeful that one or possibly two of their candidates may squeeze through. They are resting their principal hope on John Plumer, candidate for county auditor, but R. V. Innes, the republican candidate, has waged a most effective campaign and developed strength all over the county and in places where his opponents little expected he would. The indications are that Innes will be elected with a safe majority. The election of Freeman Reed as clerk of the district court is a foregone conclusion and is conceded by the democrats. In fact, as Chairman Everest puts it, the entire republican ticket in Pottawattamie county is sure of election.

The voting booths will be opened at o'clock this morning and will close at 6 o'clock this evening. The voting places in the different precincts are as follows:

First Ward-First precinct, 104 East Broadway; second precinct, 207 East Broadway. Second Ward-First precinct, 23 Bryan street; second precinct, 734 West Broadway. Third Ward—First precinct, 101 South Main street; second precinct, 807 South Main. Fourth Ward—First precinct, 600 South larger majority than ever before against the heresy of free silver and in favor of honest money. There is no doubt but that a large majority endorses the administration of President McKinley. There is no doubt but that in every congressional district a majority of the voters favor the election of members of congress who will support President McKinley in the settlement of the grave questions now confronting us. There can be no doubt upon these points, but it is necessary in order that these results be accomplished that every republican vote should be polled.

Chairman Hancock of the republican state central committee has issued the following appeal to the republicans of Iowa:

Hoping this last appeal may rouse the voters of Iowa to a realization of the truth of the situation and to a determination to give an overwhelming vote of confidence to President McKinley and his administration I remain, yours very truly, C. T. HANCOCK,

Book-ANDREW JACKSON. Centralia, Wash.

"For four years I suffered from heart diecase and nervousness which was caused by La Grippe and pneumonia. I had sharp pains in the heart, palpitation and a disressing feeling of faintness; was short of breath and could not sleep or rest well at night. My health run down, and I became o thin and weak that I could not attend o my business. Responsible parties recommended me to try Dr. Miles' New Heart Jure, which I did, and after using four bottles of that medicine, together with two of Restorative Nervine, I was completely cured of heart trouble and nervousness and have enjoyed good health ever since.
